MANY CALLED BUT FEW QUALIFY

Local Exemption Board Examines 100 More Young Men for Military Service

The Local Exemption Board has been busy this week in preparing a qualified list for the last 15 per cent of the present draft, the call for which may be issued at almost any time.

In addition to those who were rejected by the army physician at Ayer from the first quota from this city, the following men have also been rejected:

John Henry Chappelle, 40 North street.
Frank Y. Clark, 61 Pelham street.
Frederick Simpkins, 50 Beecher place.

Leslie A. Hamel, Church street.

The Local Board has requested permission from the authorities at Ayer to reopen the following cases:

Harold C. Stockdale, 275 Tremont street.
Clifford W. Hines, 159 Oak street.

Edgar E. Libbey, 629 Commonwealth avenue.

Walter Tedstone, 985 Watertown street.

Timothy J. Meade, 113 Edinboro street.

District Board No. 5 has refused to grant the claims for exemption of the following men:

Joseph J. Ridge, 145 Pearl street.
Vito Palladino, 215 Adams street.

Joseph L. Murphy, 125 Walnut street.

Calvin J. Stata, 40 Hale street.

Alvin D. Mack, 181 Lexington street.

Michael J. Quinn, 236 Pearl street.

Lionel J. Sadler, 31 Jefferson street.

Arthur R. Stubbs, 89 Jewett street.

The District Board has allowed the claims and discharged the following men:

Bernard V. Coughlin, 15 Washburn street.

Ernest E. Williams, 140 Linwood avenue.

Wallace Fisher, 1198 Chestnut street.

The Local Board called 100 men for physical examination last Tuesday, and a corps of physicians were busy all that morning in passing upon the qualifications of the men who responded.

27 men were discharged for physical reasons, 13 were found to be aliens, 4 were transferred to other district for examination, 11 did not appear, 8 were found to be already in the U. S. service, 1 was discharged as he was in prison, and 37 were found qualified, of whom 22 filed claims for exemption. One man, Frank Zito, of 42 Carleton street, an alien, was placed on the qualified list at his own request.

"OVER THE TOP"

Newton Subscribes Over $300,000 More Than Maximum for the Liberty Loan

The Liberty Loan Committee of Newton under the efficient direction of Hon. Seward W. Jones, its chairman and Mr. Frank L. Richardson, the secretary, should be proud of the results which were obtained in this city by the work of hundreds of volunteers in all parts of Newton. With a maximum quota laid to Newton people to raise $5,768,600 the city is now credited with the splendid total of $6,094,200. Of this sum the Newton Trust Company, as the largest financial institution in the city is credited with $2,696,700, the West Newton National Bank with $400,200, the West Newton Savings Bank with $235,000 and the Newton Centre Savings Bank with $125,000. The Newton Centre Savings Bank is included with the Newton Trust Company. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston also had $2,637,300 to the credit of the Newtons. The number of subscribers thru the Newton banks was 6696. On the first Liberty Loan, Newton subscribed $1,986,850 with 5868 subscribers.

NEEDS FUNDS

The Newton Branch of the Surgical Dressings Committee has sent to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital 25635 dressings for the month of October. This is not as much as it wishes to do and could do if it had more money to spend for materials.

A cable from Col. Grayson Murphy says "it will be a national disgrace if the women do not prepare and send millions upon millions of surgical dressings to France. It means life or death to our men."

The women are ready and willing to prepare and send them if they have the materials.

The Committee appeals to the public for support.

Contributions small or large may be sent to Mrs. F. W. Stone, 178 Bellevue street, Newton, or may be left at workrooms, 429 Centre street, any morning except Saturday.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Newton Club opened its social season on Wednesday evening with a formal dancing party which was attended by a large company of members and their guests.

The decorations in the dining-hall were especially effective, the dominant color being yellow. The table was centered with yellow chrysanthemums, and placed at each corner were yellow shaded candles figured with Halloween emblems, witches, black cats, etc.

Delightful up-to-date music was furnished by Handley's Orchestra. The matrons were Mrs. Frank L. Nagle, Mrs. William B. Arnold, and Mrs. Albert M. Lyon.

The ushers included Mr. Fred E. Mann, Mr. William B. Arnold, Mr. Edwin Vose, Mr. Norman Bankhart, and Mr. Winfield S. Slocum, Jr.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

A Patriotic Service will be held in Grace Church next Sunday evening, November 4th, at 7:30 o'clock. His Honor, Mayor Childs, will make the address, on Our Duty. This War. Patriotic hymns will be sung. All are invited and will be cordially welcomed.

Holds a Successful Fair and Entertainment in West Newton

The West Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a Halloween sale, supper and entertainment at A. O. U. W. Hall Wednesday evening. Mr. Arthur MacRae was the efficient chairman of the committee and of the supper arrangements.

Mrs. Jennet Hoar was in charge of the candy table; Mrs. Della Jenkins of the food table, assisted by Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Carley. Mrs. M. M. Beardsley of the fancy and useful articles, assisted by Mrs. Swett; Mrs. Ida Henley of the witch's cauldron, and Mrs. Clara Ellice of the ice cream. The hall was decorated with autumn leaves and flags and the tables well supplied with the articles were made unusually attractive with Halloween novelties. A bountiful cafeteria supper was well patronized.

The talent for the musical entertainment was supplied by the Musical School and as one would expect was very well rendered. The participants were Arthur Bloomingdale who gave a violin selection in a pleasing manner; Miss Dorothy Greeley and Miss Ethel Spencer of Waltham and Miss Griffith Huston of West Newton sang; Miss Ruth Spencer and Miss Ruth Alexander acted as accompanists. The exceptionally good voices of the singers so well trained delighted the audience who enjoyed generously.

At the close of the entertainment Madame Ceylon, the fortune teller was kept busy the remainder of the evening and four couples entered the suit case contest and greatly amused the audience. Mr. McKenzie and Miss Clara MacRae were the prize winners, and Mrs. Rand, chairman of the entertainment, made the presentation. A goodly sum will be realized for the treasury of the local Union which is assisting in the War Welfare work at "The White Ribbon Home" recently purchased at Ayer by the Mass. W. C. T. U.

The entertainment opened with the playing of America on the cornet by Joseph Earle and the singing of it by the audience with the words,—
God bless our splendid men
Bring them safe home again
God bless our men
Make them victorious
Patient and chivalrous
They are so dear to us
God save our men.

The Boy Scouts, Master Patchett, Master Bosworth and Master Chandler deserve to be highly commended for the assistance they gave.

Mrs. Earley was chairman of the supper committee and was assisted by Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. James Chandler, Mrs. S. MacRae, Mrs. Alice Cushman, and Mrs. Lewis.

RED CROSS WORK

Urgent Need For Help on Surgical Dressings

The need for surgical dressings and the need for every woman in Newton who can give any of her time to the work to help in the making of them is something the Newton Branch of the Red Cross wishes to particularly emphasize. In the interest in knitting woolen comforts for the soldiers and sailors, which are also needed, there is danger that the necessity of sending a great supply of dressings to the front may be overlooked. Any woman who is willing to help in making them is always welcome at the Red Cross work rooms where the work is carried on. The Red Cross Room in Temple Hall, Newtonville, is open every day, except Saturdays and Sundays, from ten to one and has plenty of work and room for many workers. In a cable from the front to the officials of the American Red Cross, Major Murphy said:—"The Red Cross has direct responsibility of supplying us with surgical dressings. Nothing in the whole situation here is equally important. Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed. If this is not done and done in time a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable. The American women who compose Red Cross chapters should prepare with all speed possible the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our men. The whole question deals with the most vital thing that the women of America can do for the soldiers in the war."

For the Children's Thursday Afternoons at the Red Cross Work Room in Newtonville it has been found necessary to make it a rule to take only children over ten. Yesterday there was a good attendance and a good bit of helpful work was done.

The Woman's Club of Auburndale starts this week to make Red Cross standard surgical dressings.

BRAE BURN CLUB

An allotment of seats has been made for members of the Brae Burn Club at the Army and Navy Football and Athletic Carnival to be held tomorrow at the Stadium, Cambridge.

More than 100 people attended the Patriotic Golf Match on Saturday at Brae Burn Links and about $900 was cleared for the benefit of the Athletic Equipment Fund for soldiers at Camp Devens.

Mr. Henry Jewett who is an enthusiastic admirer of Brae Burn, invited the caddies to attend the performance of "The Man Who Stayed at Home", and on Monday and Tuesday evenings, fifty of the caddies, accompanied by Mr. Daniel Keefe, the caddy master, were his guests at the Copley Theatre.

Mrs. Horace Packard of Boston entertained in the Garden Tea Room on Saturday afternoon at Brae Burn.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

Newton Delegates Discuss the Reasons for Placing These Questions on the State Ballot

The following opinions of the Newton delegates from this city to the Constitutional Convention in regard to the three articles of amendment which will appear on the ballot at the election next Tuesday will give our readers a clear and concise idea of the reasons which prompted these gentlemen to favor or oppose these particular matters.

Prof. Frederick L. Anderson

Everybody is in favor of the first Amendment providing for Absent Voting for our soldiers, sailors and traveling men, and a great many favor the third Amendment which favors the Food and Coal supplies and other necessities of life in times of public emergency.

The second Amendment is the Anti-Aid Amendment. The story is very interesting. The Amendment rises out of the long contest to make the American doctrine of the separation of the Church and State and religious liberty apply to sectarian appropriations. This has been a difficult and delicate question for many years, but the men of the Convention have handled it in so broad a way as to lift it out of the quagmire of the old debate to a higher plane of a general policy. "No public money for private schools and institutions."

This was satisfactory to all parties in the Convention, 90 per cent of the Catholics, 90 per cent of the Protestants and all of the Jews voting for it. The attacks of the extremists on both sides should only make sensible citizens more determined to back up the moderate men of the Convention who framed this great treaty of peace in good faith and passed it by a vote of 275 to 25.

FREDERICK L. ANDERSON.Mr. James A. Lowell*Editor of Newton Graphic.*Sir,

Three proposals to amend the Constitution will appear on the ballot on election day. The first in order will be the provision to provide for absent voting. This will allow soldiers and sailors, railroad men and others who are away from home on election day to vote by mail. This is a good amendment as it gives the vote to many patriotic citizens now serving the country and to many other intelligent men who happen to be away from home on election day.

The second amendment in order is the resolution to prevent the State from giving money to private institutions. It is known as the Anti-Aid amendment. If adopted it will prevent the annual attempts to get from the Legislature grants for private objects. These attempts always raise the cry of prejudice in favor of one religious sect over another. The amendment also continues the guarantee of religious liberty for every citizen. It will keep religion out of politics and should be adopted.

The third amendment allows necessities of life to be provided by the public authorities at reasonable cost during times of great emergency. It does not allow this to be done in ordinary times. The amendment gives a power which may be of great value in times of emergency.

JAMES A. LOWELL.Mr. James P. Richardson

To the Editor of the Newton Graphic: As I understand your request, it is that I present to the voters of Newton, through your columns, my personal opinion and advice as to the three proposed amendments to the Constitution which will appear upon the ballot next Tuesday as a result of the work of the Constitutional Convention.

I gladly comply, regarding compliance as in the nature of a partial report to the people of Newton.

WINS CROIX DE GUERRE

Richard W. Westwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Westwood of 24 Richardson street, Newton, has recently been decorated with the Croix de Guerre by order of division. After having been wounded at the post de secours by a piece of shell he drove his ambulance, full of wounded, back to the base hospital.

Mr. Westwood sailed for France to join the American Field Service on May 26. He was a student in the Columbia University School of Journalism and is a member of Section 84 made up of men from Yale and Columbia.

MR. MARS HONORED

Mr. Walter E. Mars, who has just retired as manager of the Newton Corner Drug store in Nonantum square, was the chief guest at an informal reception held last Friday evening at the Elks Club in Eliot Block, Newton.

The affair was a complete surprise to Mr. Mars and was creditably managed by a committee composed of E. C. Morrissey, chairman, Harold Moore, and William E. Pike.

About 70 friends and business acquaintances of Mr. Mars were present and after a substantial collation provided by Paxtons, had been enjoyed, brief remarks, complimentary to Mr. Mars were made by Wm. E. Pike, P. A. Murray, C. G. Newcomb, Morris Bailey, William Hopkins, Chas. F. Jones, and J. C. Brimblecom. Mayor Edwin O. Childs was greeted with hearty cheers and presented Mr. Mars with a travelling bag. Mr. Mars was received with great enthusiasm and responded briefly. The speaking was under the direction of Mr. L. D. G. Bentley, who made a most efficient toastmaster. Music was furnished by Mr. George King and Mr. Spring.

Among those present were: William E. Pike, Edward C. Morrissey, Harold Moore, Edwin O. Childs, John Purcell, J. C. Brimblecom, George A. Trotter, P. A. Murray, Elmer C. Wilcox, C. E. Josselyn, Morris Bailey, Burt M. Rich, Arthur H. Helmberg, Charles F. Barrows, Lowell Hunt, George W. Keating, W. S. Hayden, George C. Campbell, John T. Joyce, Gardner T. INTERESTING LECTURES IN WEST NEWTON

A unique series of lectures constituting The People's Institute are to be given every night this week except Saturday at eight o'clock in the Second Church, West Newton.

Dr. Richard L. Swain, Ph. D. has given these to crowded houses. Dr. Hillis's great church in Brooklyn, N. Y., at union meetings of all the Protestant churches in Winchester, Mass., at the Center Church, on New Haven Green. They have always been to great audiences.

Each lecture is followed by a questionnaire. The subjects are those such as are raised by Mr. H. G. Wells' last books.

All that is asked is that you attend the first lecture Sunday night at eight, the rest then will take care of themselves. Everyone is welcome at every lecture.

COPLY THEATRE—Patrons of the Copley Theatre have found much to interest them during the past week. They have found entertainment in "The Man Who Stayed at Home," goes without saying. Its long run of twenty-one weeks proves that. But in addition they found the theatre newly renovated and decorated, new hangings and draperies, a new curtain of handsome velours, a new choral for entre-acte music. And especially have they noticed the wider seats in the orchestra, and the greater comfort they offer. As for "The Man Who Stayed at Home" it is the greatest popular success of the Boston stage in recent seasons. It has run all the summer, and it is now running through the entire autumn, with no signs of a waning popular favor. It is skillfully acted by the Henry Jewett Players, and it gives a realistically dramatic and comedy view of life in England during the early days of the war.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE—Next Monday night at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, the "Oh, Boy!" Company will begin the final week of its phenomenal successful engagement, an engagement that will have covered a total of 125 performances, and one that has registered the biggest musical comedy success of the year. "Oh, Boy!" came to Boston last July, and from the date of its opening performance has played to unusually large and enthusiastic audiences, the standing-room-only sign being displayed at the majority of its performances. The delightful story of "Oh, Boy!" by P. G. Wodehouse, the jolly lyrics by Guy Bolton and the merry tunes by Jerome Kern will live long in the memory of those who have been fortunate enough to have seen this attraction. "Oh, Boy!" will be followed at the Plymouth Theatre by William Faversham's production of George Bernard Shaw's "Misalliance," with Maclay Arbuckle.

LOOK HERE, FELLOW SMOKERS!

By HAPSBURG LIEBE

Of the Vigilantes
(Written for "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund")

EDITOR'S NOTE.—This newspaper will receive and turn over to "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund," all contributions to pay for tobacco for the soldiers. Each dollar pays for four packages, with a total retail value of at least $1.80. In each package is placed a postcard bearing the name and address of the contributor. The soldier receiving the package agrees to send a message on the card to his unknown friend back home. You get your thanks from an American soldier in the trenches.

Our soldiers in France are going to need tobacco very soon, and it's straight up to us to send them some. Unless you've been in the service, and in active service, you would be surprised to know just how important a figure tobacco cuts in any war. I've fought through a war, and I tell you I know. Many a blistering day in the Philippines I have seen whole companies turn villainous, almost insubordinate, because there was no tobacco—and if ever I told the truth, that's it!

England discovered the importance of tobacco in warfare, years ago, and some of the best work done by English voluntary organizations has been in the supplying of smokers for the soldiers. Most of the soldiers of any nation smoke, you know. It means a lot to them; it is a balm for homesickness, which is always a curse to a young army; it is a comfort that no other thing can give in these trying times, when their nerves are strained almost to the breaking-point.

Take tobacco from our men now, and it means a drop—and an amazing, big drop—in their efficiency. That's the fact. A good man who is addicted to the use of tobacco may easily become a villain when it is taken from him. I wonder whether you've read that story by the lamented O. Henry, who was marvelous in his understanding of human nature—that story in which a good man was willing to turn deep-deyed villain for the sake of a long-wished-for smoke. Unfortunately, the reward, the cigar, was given before the foul deed was done—consequently the foul deed was never done!

Now there is in New York City an organization, a bona fide and trust-worthy organization, that has for a purpose the taking care of the tobacco needs of our soldiers in foreign service. For every 25 cents we send to this "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund," they retail for 45 cents. It is sent to some American soldier on the battle front; also, a card bearing the name and address of the donor will be sent along with the package, and the soldier who receives it will write you his thanks—if he has the opportunity. Poor boy, he may never have the opportunity.

Let's do our little bit—it is but a pitiful little bit—for those fellows who are soon to be without a single thing to smoke, unless we help them! Even a quarter from each of us will count; but if you can send more, do it for those boys who had to go to the Kaiser's Hell while we stayed by our own comfortable fireside. Not a single penny of your money will be misappropriated; you may feel sure of that. The movement has the endorsement of the Army and Navy Departments. Send your contribution to the NEWTON GRAPHIC, Newton, Mass.

EVERY MEMBER RALLY NIGHT

The Men's Club of Trinity Parish, Newton Centre, has voted unanimously as their major work in the season's activities to give their special aid and assistance to the Rector, Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, in the further development of the regular evening services at the church.

A special standing committee has been appointed to focus and guide the activities of the Club in this work, and rotating committees, comprising during the season the total membership of the Club, will, in cooperation with the Rector, care for the details from Sunday to Sunday.

The first of the services under the special auspices of the Men's Club will be on Sunday evening, November 4, and it has been designated as Every Member Rally Night.

The service will be very simple, not long, and will be preceded by the singing of familiar hymns at 7.15 P. M. The special speaker will be Frank Palmer Spence, of the Young Men's Christian Association, president of North Eastern College, who will talk on "Exactly What The Great Conflict Means To You Personally."

Trinity Church, Newton Centre, is on Centre Street, just south of Commonwealth Avenue.

LAND COURT.

To Frederic M. Burditt and Charlotte T. Bergerson, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; heirs, devisees or legal representatives of William Ashmore, formerly of Swatow, China, deceased; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by said Charlotte T. Bergerson, of said Newton, to register and confirm her title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in that part of said Newton called Newton Centre, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the Southeast corner of the within described land on the northerly line of Beacon Street at land of Charlotte T. Bergerson, thence running westerly on said northerly line of Beacon Street eighty-seven and 61-100 (87.61) feet to Crescent Avenue; thence turning and running Northerly on the easterly line of said Crescent Avenue one hundred and fifty-three and 78-100 (153.78) feet to Pelham Street; thence turning and running Easterly on the southerly line of Pelham Street ninety-seven (97) feet to said land of Bergerson; thence turning and running Southerly in a straight line by said land of Bergerson one hundred and seventy-three (173) feet to the point of beginning; containing 14,986.5 square feet of land.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the twelfth day of November A. D. 1917, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fifteenth day of October in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen.

Attest with Seal of said Court.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The freshman class following a custom inaugurated by the class of 1916 have elected these officers: Donald Reynolds, president; Robert Smith, vice president; Eleanor Roberts, secretary; Theodore Trefrey, treasurer.

An unusually large number of candidates for the High School orchestra are rehearsing Thursday afternoons under the direction of Mr. Walton instructor in music.

Wednesday morning the junior class met in the hall to elect four members of the student council. Dorothy Stebbins and Florence Mandell were elected to the girls' council and Austin Eaton and William Gardner to the boys. The student council is made up of elected members of each class. It was introduced four years ago by Mr. Adams and its chief objects are to bring the students into closer contact with the officers of the school, to decide upon any minor matters of discipline, and to see that the pupils conduct themselves in a manner creditable to the school.

The dance in the gymnasium last Thursday for the benefit of the Red Cross netted more than $20.

More than 40 girls are now engaged in making surgical dressings for the Red Cross on Thursday afternoons. Newton is to play Boston College High this afternoon at Claffin field. This game is not on the schedule but the boys from Boston have a heavy fast team and with Newton going at top speed a very good contest should result. The way Somerville tore Waltham to pieces on Saturday was particularly gratifying to Newton as Somerville was beaten by the red and black boys earlier in the season.

WINS FROM ENGLISH HIGH

Newton High provided a surprise Friday, defeating Boston English High, 27 to 7, at Claffin field, Newtonville. The Newton school eleven played its best game to date, while Boston E. H. S. did not show the quality that marked its work in the recent game with Cambridge Latin. Newton started off by getting the jump on B. E. H. S., going right down the field and scoring before the Boston eleven realized what had happened. English High then bucked down and was going well until it fumbled in the second period near midfield. Then Newton started another march down the field, but was held for downs on its opponents' 20-yard line.

In the third period shortly after the kickoff Capt. Henry Garrity shot a long forward pass to McCoy, who ran 35 yards before being downed. Then, on successive plays, Newton advanced to the 10-yard line. On the following play, Capt. Henry Garrity tallied.

After an exchange of kicks, Newton obtained possession of the ball. On successive plays, with Garrity and Hughes doing most of the carrying, Newton went down to its opponents' five-yard line. Here Garrity went over for the third touchdown of the game. Hughes kicked his second goal.

Early in the fourth period, Newton invaded its opponents' territory again. With the ball on Boston's 35-yard line, a delayed pass was tried, with Nutting, the Newton quarter, carrying. He went over for his team's last tally. Boston English here took a new lease of life, four forward passes in rapid succession, Capt. Bridges doing the throwing from midfield enabling his eleven to reach Newton's 10-yard line. After three plays Bridges went over for the touchdown and he also kicked the goal.

LIEUT. GOV. COOLIDGE HERE

Lieut. Governor Calvin Coolidge was a visitor in the city Wednesday evening, being a speaker and guest at the Flag service of the Nonantum Boys Club, a guest at the Halloween party of Palestine Chapter, Eastern Star at Temple Hall, a guest at the dance to Company C, 5th Regiment at the State Armory, and he was given an informal reception at the Elks' Club before leaving for Boston.

Newton

When you want a plumber call B. M. Thomas, 272 Newton North, adv. Telephone MacLean, 725 or 2654-M North, for anything in the carpenter line.

A Service Flag, with 125 stars, has been placed on the grounds of the Church of Our Lady.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Fearing of Park street have returned from their summer home at Minot, Mass.

Mrs. George F. Jewett of Bellevue street is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Francis Easton Carr at Oberlin, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Emerson of Hovey street have returned from a six months' stay at their summer home at Minot, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben H. Ellison have closed their summer home at Powder Point, Duxbury, and have returned to their residence on Sargent street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Converse and family of Park street spent the week end at Gray Bungalow, their summer home at Powder Point, Duxbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith P. Burton, Jr., and Miss Katherine Burton of Centre street have returned from a stay of several weeks at their farm in Framingham.

The many friends of Messrs. William H. Donald, formerly of Centre street, Martin Manning of Maple terrace, and Edward Kelly of Centre street will be interested to hear of their safe arrival in France.

Contributions for the Tobacco Fund received within the next few days will be used for special Christmas packages for the BOYS IN FRANCE. Why not send 100 contributions of $1 each?

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Goodridge of Park street gave a dinner party on Tuesday evening for a few relatives and intimate friends. The occasion was an informal celebration of the 7th birthday of their son Daniel M. Goodridge, Jr. The table decorations were most unique, the dominant colors yellow and black, being carried out with Halloween emblems, Jack-o'-lanterns, witches, black cats, skeletons and yellow shaded candelabra.

Newton society was represented at the Auction Bridge which was given last week on Wednesday by the Brookline Morning Club, at the residence of Mrs. John Lyman Porter on Washington avenue, Cambridge. There were 75 present, and the tables were arranged in the billiard hall on the third floor. The prizes were dainty jars of jelly which were made by the hostess, and attached to each jar was a card on which was written her autograph. The proceeds were for the benefit of the men of Brookline who are going into the war service.

Miss Gwendolyn Handley, Scout Lieutenant in the Newton Troop, and the girls in her patrol entertained at a Halloween party and dance on Wednesday evening at Miss Handley's residence on Oakleigh road, Newton.

The rooms on the lower floor were opened to suite, and decorated with black and yellow, with crepe paper, yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds. The rooms were in darkness except for the faint glow from the Jack-o'-lanterns, which were much in evidence, and all the surroundings were suggestive of "spooks" and spirits.

In the corner of the front parlor, a big white ghost with fiery glittering eyes, and a most uncanny appearance, peered forth into the darkness in search of hobgoblins, and sent terror to the hearts of the timid guests.

All wore fancy hats and masques and the dancing scene was both weird and fantastic.

A pianist from Boston furnished the latest popular music, and sang "coon" songs for the entertainment of the young people.

A buffet supper consisting of hot frankfurters, cakes, marshmallows, pop-corn, peanuts and other edibles dear to the hearts of the boy and girl scouts, was served in the dining room. The table was centered with a huge pumpkin, and black cats, skeletons, and other emblems of the season marked the festive occasion. Suspended from the chandelier over the table was a large black cat which contrasted most effectively with the yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds. There were about twenty-five young people present.

Rev. Percival M. Wood, rector of the Church of the Messiah, Auburn-dale, Mass., and were tendered a reception on Monday evening by the Vestry of the church.

The parish house on Auburn street was made most attractive with floral decorations, palms, ferns and yellow chrysanthemums being arranged in a bower for the receiving line.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood received from eight until ten, and were assisted by Mr. Manley T. Adams, the Senior warden, and Mrs. Adams of West Newton, and Mr. W. I. Goodrich, the Junior warden of Auburndale.

Mrs. Wood was attractively gowned in black satin with iridescent trimmings and corsage of Ophelia roses, and Mrs. Adams wore a handsome gown of taupe georgette with gold embroidery and jet trimmings.

A delightful musical program was given by Knight's Orchestra.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Eleanor Adams, assisted by the young ladies of the Sunday School.

There were about 150 guests present.

The Hunnewell Club bowling team won three straight strings from the A. B. C. in the Bowling League match on Wednesday.

Social activities at the Hunnewell Club opened Tuesday evening with a very successful dancing party which was attended by about 125 guests.

Stanley Hall was made attractive for the occasion with American flags, and the Service Flag was hung in a conspicuous place. Up-to-date dance music was furnished by Russell's Orchestra.

In the dining-hall, the table decorations were yellow chrysanthemums.

The ladies who poured were Mrs. George Lincoln Parker, Mrs. Edward Merrihue Hallett, Mrs. William F. Garcelon and Mrs. Fred H. Loveland.

EDITORIAL

The chief interest in the state election next Tuesday will not be in the success of the several candidates for office, but in the acceptance or rejection of the several questions on the ballot.

It is conceded by everyone having the slightest knowledge of political conditions that Governor McCall and the entire state ticket will have an old fashioned Republican majority.

Newton voters, in common with the rest of the state, will vote on the three amendments submitted by the Constitutional Convention, and will also vote on the question of granting city laborers a two weeks' vacation.

In another column the delegates from this city to the Constitutional Convention fully express their views on the three constitutional questions and there is no excuse for anyone to neglect his plain duty on these important matters. An affirmative vote on the first article seems most advisable, and the Legislature can be safely trusted to provide sufficient safeguards so that absentee voting may be kept straight and honest. On the anti-aid amendment there is room for a difference of honest opinion, and there is some strength to the argument, that in providing for a hard and fast division between politics and religion, too high a price may be paid and legitimate fields of state assistance, denied by too strict constitutional provision. On the other hand, it would seem that with the undoubted tendency of the times towards a more liberal expenditure of public moneys, it would be wise to establish the principle of a complete divorce of religion and politics, and allow the future to make whatever modifications, the wheel of time might bring with it. The amendment will also receive strength from the fact that Catholics and Protestants, alike voted for it in the Convention, and that it seems advisable to clinch any conclusion reached by such a desirable coalition. The third article is probably the most far reaching of any question ever submitted to the people and opens the door for public control of what has always been considered an exclusive function of private enterprise. Here, again, it seems to us that it may be well to have the constitutional authority, and allow the Legislature to determine the time and place when it may be advisable to act.

It is most unfortunate that the Legislature again insists that Newton should vote once more on such a political question as that of granting two weeks' vacation to city laborers. This city rejected this measure only three years ago by a large margin and ought not to be compelled to consider it again so soon. The chief objection to the act is its ambiguity and the question as to whom would be entitled to the vacations, if accepted. Most of the city laborers are employed by the day and do not work in winter or stormy weather. If the act was definite enough to limit these vacations to those who are employed everyday throughout the year, men who are virtually engaged by the week, and not by the day or hour, there would be slight objection to it. No one knows, however, just who would be entitled to these vacations, and in view of the fact that the city has just established the policy of granting a Saturday half holiday for six months of the year—virtually a vacation of 13 days—it seems wise to vote No on this question. As the expense is figured at over $12,000 annually, and in view of the conditions in the labor market and the pressure for money in every direction, there are additional reasons for a negative vote.

Newton boys across the water are showing the stuff they are made of in accomplishing tasks that win them the "croix de guerre" of France. Let us hope that they may live to tell the tale to their children and grandchildren.

The rounding of the corners of Walnut street at Otis street and at Cabot street is one of those alleged improvements that can wait for many years in the future.

Mr. Frank Zizzo, an alien, who wishes to serve in the draft army, sets a splendid example to native born Americans.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

"Hoover Week" is well nigh over. Anyone who attended the mass meeting at Tremont Temple on Monday evening gained some knowledge of the need for conservation of the food supply, as well as a realization of how seriously many people are interested in helping win the war through the kitchen. Reports from those serving at the Liberty Cottage are also revealing a like interest. Keep up the good work.

To enlist the co-operation of the newspaper women of the state was the purpose of two conferences, which have been held at the State House upon the call of Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, chairman of the women's committee of the Council of National Defense, within the last week. In response to the second call sent directly to the editors of the papers delegates came from Springfield, Worcester, Salem, Lynn, Brockton, New Bedford as well as from nearly all of the Boston papers. The women's committee is anxious to get before the public what is being done and what women want to know. Two publicity men are giving half-time to Mr. Endicott to follow up conferences and give out to the papers the results. A similar plan is to be tried by the women, the volunteers coming from the Federation, the Press chairman being one and among the others, the Club Editor is to have a chance to do her bit.

State Federation

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 10 A. M. Fall meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs, Town Hall, South Braintree, Morris J. Wessel will speak on "New Americans and the Community Center" at the morning sessions and John Collier, director of the Training School for Community Workers of the People's Institute of New York, on "Can Social Work be Democratic?" at two o'clock. Box luncheon. Tea, coffee and ice cream may be secured at a nominal sum. White or brown tickets will be necessary for admission. Special cars on train leaving Boston, South station at 9:45 A. M. Twelve-ride tickets, $1.45.

Newton Federation

Wednesday, Nov. 7, 2:30 P. M. Open meeting of the Newton Federation at Temple Hall. Attractive program opening with pageant "The Immigrant's Gateway," addresses on "Our New-American Neighbors" by Edward W. Hickey, executive secretary State Board of Immigration, Miss Geraldine Gordon, Francesco Argento, songs by Mrs. Lina Damiano McSwaney. Exhibition of handicrafts. A cordial invitation is extended to all who care to attend.

Bay State Patriotic Bazaar

Nov. 12th, 13th and 14th, Copley Plaza. Annual bazaar of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association, the entire proceeds of which will be turned over to War Relief to be divided among the following: Regimental Fund of the 102nd U. S. Field Artillery, the Camp at Ayer, the Red Cross, the continuation of the Food Campaign and the Bureau for the Americanization of Aliens, already organized and doing efficient work at the North End. The Newton League has charge of the doll table and although attractive dolls are difficult to find this year, there will be a charming variety from the home-made rag baby to the daintiest of little misses. Come early to make your choice.

In order to take in the women on its waiting list the Newtonville Woman's Guild has increased its limit to 400. So doing has necessitated leaving the New Church parlors where the club has met for many years and going to the Central Congregational church. The first meeting of the season will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 6 at 2.45. It will be Club Member's Afternoon, with story telling and music.

Miss Helen Louise Johnson, new editor of the General Federation Magazine and past chairman of the Home Economics department of the General Federation, will address the Auburn-dale Woman's Club on "The Budget," Nov. 6th, in the Methodist parish house. Music by the Glee Club accompanied by Mrs. L. D. MacNutt.

The Social Science Club will hold an important business meeting next Wednesday morning at the Hunnewell Club.

"The Right Kind of Conservation" will be the subject of a lecture by Miss Helen Louise Johnson before the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 10 A. M.

Local Happenings

Owing to national conditions the Waban Woman's Club carried on during the summer activities in municipal work. In June the club undertook the registration of Waban women for the free canning classes at the Newton vocational school, enrolling more than thirty women. It also arranged for a canning demonstration lecture by Mrs. Sandwell, at which there were more than ninety present. Mrs. Dana M. Dutch was chairman of a committee to secure glass jars for canning, and orders were filled for three hundred and sixty dozen jars at prices considerably less than the retail price.

The Waban Committee for the Patriotic Food, Mrs. Horner M. Holmes, chairman, sent more than one hundred pounds of candy and sold more than twenty dollars' worth of tickets.

The Federation Endowment Committee, Mrs. George W. Souther, chairman, has spent much time in collecting the assessment of twenty-five cents per capita for the State Federation Endowment Fund.

Mrs. C. E. Stevens was the chairman of the Waban committee for the Garden City Fair held September 29th, at Norumbega Park, and was actively assisted by the Girl Scouts.

The Waban committee in cooperation with the Newton committee on Public Safety made a thorough registration of all Waban housekeepers for the purpose of food conservation. Mrs. Edward Becker was the chairman.

On Oct. 29 the Monday Club of Newton Highlands met with Mrs. Joseph W. Moore for a social afternoon. A tempting luncheon of old-time food was served at one o'clock followed by an entertainment of readings and music given for members. Mrs. Harry E. Ward gave two selections with piano accompaniment and Mrs. C. A. Thompson read James Russell Lowell's "Courtin'" from Biglow Papers. The club trio, Mrs. F. S. Fairchild, Mrs. Everett Winslow, Mrs. M. S. Wallace, sang several old-fashioned songs in costume. At the loan collection upstairs many valuable articles were shown. It was announced at the business meeting that the club had taken two Liberty Bonds.

Mrs. W. J. Spaulding entertained the Auburn-dale Review Club at its regular meeting, Tuesday, October 30. Mrs. Charles Pickard had the meeting in charge, and furnished a most delightful morning of music.

Mrs. Albert Stetlin, played a group of numbers in her always charming and able manner. Miss Stoessele, piano, played a group of Chopin numbers and Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsodie. Miss Morehouse, cello, was an efficient third in a trio at the beginning and end of one of the most entertaining programs it has been the club's privilege to enjoy.

Mrs. Mabel A. Crawford gave the first of her monthly talks on Current Events before the Newton Center Woman's Club on Thursday morning.

Civic Conferences

By invitation of the West Newton Women's Educational Club the Civic department of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs held a conference at West Newton on October 26th. Mrs. Robert Gorton, president of the hostess club, called the meeting to order and after a few brief items of business presented Mrs. Frederick G. Smith, the chairman of the Civics department, who conducted the afternoon's program. The singing of The Star Spangled Banner, led by Mrs. Chester Union, opened the program. Mrs. Smith stated that her department's motto for the year is Service, to help the clubs to do work for their communities is the aim. The work of the department is divided among several sub-committees, that of Town and Village Improvement was presented by Mrs. Smith herself in the absence of the sub-chairman. She urged each club to study its own community and find out what needs to be done, no outside committee can tell that. Mrs. O. S. Fowler of Maynard spoke of Playgrounds, of their necessity for the normal development of the child. A playground without a supervisor, she said, is worse than no playground at all. Mrs. Charles A. Briggs of Norwood told of Community centers and their immense value today in bringing about a better understanding with the foreign-born citizens. Mrs. L. B. Mitchell of North Scituate, in speaking of Junior Civic Leagues, told a bit of practical work, which she herself had done during the summer in Scituate, in giving useful occupation to some young girls who had been frequenting the railroad station. She had secured wool for them, taught them to knit and arranged a meeting place on a piazza in the center of the town where they could see what was going on and still be safe out of harm's way. Police women was the division treated by Mrs. W. W. Whitcher of Somerville. Their usefulness in safe-guarding thorough-and ignorant young girls is more and more apparent in these stirring times when uniforms dazzle their eyes and turn their heads. Western cities have been much more forward in this so that in that section of the country they are considered a matter of course, but the East has been more slow in appreciating their necessity. Haverhill, Brookline and Maynard are among the places in Massachusetts, which have already someone doing that work. Mrs. George S. Kramer of Roslindale has Juvenile Courts and Probation Work as her special department. She is of the opinion that a voluntary probation system is sufficient. She urged the clubs to emphasize the constructive side of the work.

In the open conference which followed much stress was laid upon the responsibility which rests upon the mothers themselves. The president of the Rockland Woman's Club told of the garden which her club has carried on during the summer with a great amount of labor and a considerable measure of success, though their crops were not yet all harvested and disposed of. At the close a social hour over the tea-cups was much enjoyed for the opportunity for further exchange of ideas and methods.

Conference of the Sixth District

Newton was largely represented at the conference of the clubs of the Sixth District, of which Mrs. Irving O. Palmer is the director, held at Stoneham on Tuesday. The first part of the morning was given to the roll call of the clubs and a brief response from each telling of some specific thing accomplished or planned for this year. War work of some sort seemed to be the keynote of each report, conservation of food, assisting in the Library Drive for books for the camps, purchasing of Liberty Bonds, simplified entertaining, yet there were also sufficient accounts of local civic work to show that that is not being neglected.

Mrs. Ethel Hobart of the Woman's Patriotic League told of what her organization is doing to help to keep the men in the camps morally clean and wholesomely amused. She desired her audience to understand that this organization is no new one, but is merely trying to co-ordinate the work being done by all others. She sought for new members, for an opportunity to present the work to the clubs, for contributions for the War Camp Community Fund when their drive comes. She also asked for old furniture to help in fitting up a house in Shirley where girls may go and receive their friends from the camp at Ayer under proper chaperonage. The hope was expressed that the Federation might see its way clear to fit up one of the rooms. She stated that all Y. M. C. A. rooms. She stated that all Y. M. C. A. work is inside the camps, while money for the Community Drive is for work outside, but in the near vicinity of the camps. Mrs. S. F. Herron spoke briefly of the Food Drive which is on this week and urged those present to sign the pledge cards which would be found at the places at the luncheon table.

After a delicious chafing dish luncheon, served by the hostess club, there were brief post prandial exercises, which enlivened the serious program of the day. Mrs. Palmer was toast mistress and Mrs. C. G. Wetherbee of Newton Highlands was among those who responded.

Afterwards there was opportunity to meet the guests of honor and to hear a short organ recital. The afternoon session opened with the singing of America and a summary by Mrs. Palmer of the morning conference, which had been open only to club presidents and Federation secretaries, while the afternoon was for all club women. A plea for the State Federation Endowment Fund was made by the committee chairman, Mrs. Ella C. R. Whiton. Mrs. Whiton stated that as every other organization is needing increasing income, so is the Federation, never have there been so many avenues for service open to them as at the present time.

"A Woman's Club in War Time, its Program, its Activities," was the subject of discussion for the afternoon and the speakers, Mrs. Henry Coolidge Mulligan, a past president, and Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, the present president of the State Federation. Mrs. Mulligan said that now is the testing time of the club women, when we are to show whether or not we are going to come up to the expectation of our friends and of our leaders. The club activities have always been more or less controlled by the State Federation, but the programs have seldom been. She is of the opinion that all effort should be centered upon What can we do to win this war? She would keep the programs simple and the amount of money spent upon them very little.

Mrs. Gurney, on the other hand, feels that the club cannot afford amidst the immense amount of activity in the multiple lines to let the cultural side go. All the wounds are not the wounds of the body. Put the programs on a higher plane. We have been too easily satisfied. Every war has been followed by a revival of literature, of art and of music, it rests with us to make that revival good or bad. She urged her hearers to sit before a beautiful picture, to listen to beautiful music, and to read good literature. Unless all signs fall there is going also to be a revival of religion, may it be the noblest.

Just such conferences as these are what is needed more than anything else to make the Federation work real to the clubs. The big meetings are now so very big, that heart to heart talks are no longer possible, and these opportunities for the intimate contact with other workers are more of an inspiration than it is possible to realize, until one has had the privilege of attending such an one.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

The dance given in the Town Hall at Watertown last Friday evening by the Nonantum Athletic Association was successful in every way and a large sum was collected for the benefit of nine members of the club who are now in service in France. The committee in charge comprised George Bradley, Francis Terrio, Charles Chaisson, Clifford Bennett, Walter Terrio, Walter Boudreau, Bernard Coughlin, George Veno, Thomas Foley and William House.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

A social event of interest was the Annual Halloween dancing party given Wednesday evening in Temple Hall under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The hall presented a very beautiful scene with autumnal decorations, pumpkins, and other emblems of the season, and the 250 merry dancers, 150 of whom appeared in costumes. The early part of the evening was devoted to games, grabbing for apples, and other sports, and Mrs. Margaret Ross, in the costume of a witch, was kept busy telling fortunes.

The grand march started at 9.30, with lively music by Knight's Orchestra. Prizes were awarded for the most attractive costume. Mrs. Herbert Smith of Beaumont avenue took the first prize for ladies' costume, and Miss Lucy Parker of Washington park took the second prize. The first gentleman's prize was taken by Mr. Wilson Ross, and Mr. Frank Petersen of Newton Centre, took the second prize.

The guests of honor were Lieutenant Governor Coolidge, who gave a short address on war conditions, His Honor Mayor Edwin O. Childs, and Mr. Leland Powers. It was a very pleasant social affair and greatly enjoyed by all present.

The committee of arrangements was under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. Wilson Ross, and included Mr. H. Wilson Ross, Mrs. Grace R. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Leonard, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Parker, Mr. Louis Littlehale, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wilkins and Miss Catherine Porter.

UNFURL FLAG

There was an interesting meeting of the Nonantum Boys' Club Wednesday evening at their club house on Dalby street, Nonantum, when a service flag was unfurled in honor of the 12 members of the Club who are in the United States service. Mr. Charles Chaisson, president, and the Club was honored with the presence of Lieut. Gov. Coolidge, and there were also addresses by Mayor Childs, who donated the flag to the Club, by Alderman Reuben Forknall, Alderman John W. Murphy, Mr. William J. Doherty, ex-representative Thomas W. White and Mr. T. D. Murphy.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

I regard the general principle of this amendment as sound; while some worthy private institutions, such as small academies may suffer temporarily from the withdrawal of public support, yet I believe that in the long run the private institutions themselves will be better off if they have to stand, and know that they have to stand on their own feet.

The amendment is sincerely intended to lay the ghost of an old and bitter religious controversy; and takes the last step to ensure the utter separation of Church and State in Massachusetts.

The argument has been put forward that the amendment is hostile to religion, education and philanthropy. There is nothing in the amendment which can properly be interpreted.

The above was written before the remarkable speech of Cardinal O'Connell on October 28.

The speech, stripped of all evasive verbiage and reduced to its lowest terms amounts to this: an attack upon the anti-aid amendment, and an appeal, amounting almost to a direction, to Roman Catholics to vote against it, because it will effectually prevent public appropriations for parochial schools; and the only possible further inference from his words is that a movement to obtain such appropriations is about to be undertaken by the Roman Catholic Church.

If anyone had predicted three months ago, that the Roman Catholic Church would officially take such an astounding position, I should have been among the first to scout it. The fact that such a position is now taken furnishes, in my opinion, a new, unexpected and powerful argument for the adoption of the amendment. Vote Yes.

3. The so-called "public trading" amendment.

The adoption of this amendment would open the door (now closed by our Supreme Court) for the Commonwealth and its cities and towns to engage in business, subject to the following conditions all of which must co-exist:

a. The general court must authorize such engaging in business.

b. The only kinds of business to be engaged in are the providing of food, shelter, and the other common necessities of life.

c. Such business may be engaged in only in times of "war, public exigency, emergency or distress."

There is a very nice legal question on the meaning of the words "public exigency." Some think they mean an extraordinary occasion, e. g. a Chelsea fire or a Johnston flood; others think they signify only public interest or convenience.

Obviously, the operation of the amendment is much restricted or enlarged according as the first or second of these definitions is accepted. Personally, I incline to the latter view. In other words, it is my opinion (given with great hesitation) that under the amendment the City of Newton, at any time when the General Court thought it would be for the convenience of the public, could go into the business of selling coal and ice (for example) to its citizens.

It cannot be denied that the passage of this amendment may fairly be said to be a first step in the direction of state socialism. Those who are opposed to anything which even squints in that direction will oppose this amendment.

On the whole, I am in favor of it. I think the tendency of the times in the direction indicated by the amendment is so strong that it is a mistaken policy to set our faces wholly against it. Better yield a little, with proper safeguards, than be broken by the gathering force of the storm.

Moreover, our system of distribution of foodstuffs and fuel is so near the breaking point that the experiment of municipal control in such matters may have to be tried. It could not be tried without this amendment.

There is the reason, in brief, why I shall vote Yes on this amendment.

JAMES P. RICHARDSON.
October 31, 1917.

Dr. Guy M. Winslow

To the Editor of the Graphic.
I thank you for your kind invitation to write a few lines in regard to the amendments recommended by the Convention and which will appear on the ballot next Tuesday.

1. Absentee Voting.
This was adopted by a voice vote, if I recall correctly, and apparently has the real support of nearly or quite all of the delegates. If adopted it will enable our soldiers and sailors to vote wherever they are, and more important because we are not usually at war, it will enable traveling men, railroad men and all voters necessarily out of town on election day to vote.

2. "Anti-Sectarian," "Anti-Aid" hybrid, otherwise known as "Resolution Relative to the Support of Certain Institutions from Public Funds".

Without impugning the motives of any of the strangely associated authors of this amendment, I for one much regret that at the present time this cause of bitterness and irritation should have been thrust upon the Commonwealth.

There was no urgent need for it. The eighteenth amendment is meeting all reasonable requirements and the sentiment against the public support of really sectarian institutions is steadily growing stronger.

The impelling force back of this resolution appeared to be on the one hand a fear of what may happen in the future and on the other a purpose to make the escape from this fear sufficiently expensive so that the smart should not all be enjoyed by the party first hit.

To speak more plainly this amendment is an artistic combination of several resolutions into one. The "Anti-Sectarian" portion of the amendment was brought forward by the representative of the Minute Men who fear that at some time in the future the Catholics will gain sufficient power to enable them to secure improper appropriations for their schools and institutions of charity. No claim is made that we are at present suffering from one dollar appropriated wrongly for Catholics.

As a back-fire to the "Anti-Sectarian" proposition and perhaps in order to make the Protestants pay a satisfactory price for what many, both Catholics and Non-Catholics, regard as an entirely uncalled for drive at their group, the "Anti-Aid" resolution was presented. It is heralded as the enunciation of a great new principle in words which are at first reading very taking but which will bear careful study and analysis. This portion of the amendment is to present a "brand new policy of no public funds for any private school or institution." In other words if we adopt this amendment we shall protect the "public crib" from the private predatory interests which are seeking to benefit themselves at the expense of the public. Surely this sounds well.

But what are these predatory interests so threatening the public treasury in the interests of private parties? The following are a few of them: Perkins Institution for the Blind, Massachusetts Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Lowell Textile School, Bradford Durfee Textile School, Fall River, New Bedford Textile School. Because founded and largely supported by generous, public spirited individuals who have anticipated public needs by donating money for these institutions and because they deemed it advisable that ownership and control should rest in a private corporation, they are, not technically, "belonging" to the Commonwealth or to a town or city—these institutions are to be classed as predatory private interests and the voters of the State are asked to adopt a constitutional amendment making it impossible for the State or any municipality to make further contributions to these or any other charitable institutions barring two, not entirely owned and controlled by the Commonwealth or some political subdivision thereof.

As an illustration consider the Newton Hospital. It is "privately" owned. At one time it received general contributions from the city though this has not occurred for many years. But just why should the citizens of Newton vote to so tie their own hands by a constitutional amendment that whatever the circumstances may be it will be impossible for the city to help the hospital, financially, without first securing a change in the constitution or having the ownership and control of the hospital turned over to the city? Why, because it is a great new principle that no public money shall be appropriated for any "private" institution.

This proposed amendment if adopted may make illegal the carrying out of an agreement, morally binding whether legally so or not, between the state and Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Worcester Polytechnic Institute. To be sure, the money probably will be paid, but a Constitutional Convention should more carefully avoid putting Massachusetts into a class with those states which have deliberately repudiated their obligations. The mere possibility of such a situation is very uncomfortable.

The proposed amendment is an unfair one to submit to the voters because it contains two fundamental propositions upon which a voter may have opposing opinions. Moreover the two questions could easily be separated and submitted separately. Because it is not needed: Because it is an unnecessary attack upon the Catholic Church. Because it will seriously hamper many educational and charitable interests for no sufficient reason: Because it may cause the state to repudiate two of its obligations: Because it is in improper form for presentation to the voter:

Because under present conditions, it practically limits the state's financial support of higher education to the one branch of agriculture: Because it is likely to drive into public ownership with attendant political evils, institutions which will serve the public better as they now are:

Vote NO on this proposed amendment.

3. The so-called "Food" amendment.

This enables the legislature to act as is clearly set forth in the brief but important article. Great power will be conveyed by this amendment if adopted.

Those who are willing to trust the legislature with this power should vote YES, those who are not NO. I expect to vote yes, and then keep an eye on our representatives.

Yours very truly,
GUY M. WINSLOW.

Hon. Samuel L. Powers

To the Editor of the Graphic.
I take pleasure in complying with your request to make a statement concerning the proposed amendments to the constitution to be voted on next Tuesday.

The convention has already recommended to the people three amendments for adoption. The first is known as "absentee voting", the second as the "anti-aid" amendment, and the third as the "municipal trading" amendment. These amendments will appear in the order named upon the ballot.

The amendment authorizing the Legislature to enact laws providing for absent voting received the unanimous endorsement of the convention. It is probably true that this matter was brought forward at this time on account of the great war which will call from our midst a large number of voters who will be deprived of the right of voting unless some provision is made for absent voting. The

STATE ELECTION

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1917

In accordance with law, notice is hereby given that meetings of the citizens of this city qualified to vote for state officers will be held in the several polling places designated for the purpose by the Board of Aldermen on and all such citizens will on said date, in the several precincts in which they are entitled to vote, give in their votes for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer and Receiver General, Auditor, Attorney General, Councilor for Sixth District, Senator for 1st Middlesex District, Three Representatives to General Court for the 4th Middlesex District, and County Commissioner.

TUESDAY, THE SIXTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1917

Also to give in their votes "Yes" or "No" in answer to the following questions:

"Shall an act passed by the General Court in the city nineteen hundred and fourteen (Chapter 217) entitled, 'An Act relative to vacations of laborers employed in cities and towns', be accepted."

Also to give in their votes on the following articles of Amendment submitted by the Constitutional Convention:

"Shall the following Article of Amendment relative to absentee voting, submitted by the Constitutional Convention, be approved and ratified?"

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

The General Court shall have power to provide by law for voting by qualified voters of the Commonwealth who, at the time of an election, are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election.

"In place of Article 18 of the Articles of Amendment of the Constitution, shall the following Article of Amendment relative to appropriations for educational and benevolent purposes, submitted by the Constitutional Convention, be approved and ratified?"

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

Article XVIII. Section 1. No law shall be passed prohibiting the free exercise of religion.

Section 2. All moneys raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all moneys which may be appropriated by the commonwealth for the support of common schools shall be applied to, and expended in, no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and superintendence of the authorities of the town or city in which the money is expended; and no grant, appropriation or use of public money or property of public credit shall be made or authorized by the commonwealth or any political division thereof for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding any school or institution of learning, whether under public control or otherwise, wherein any denominational doctrine is inculcated, or any other school, or any college, infirmary, hospital, institution, or educational, charitable or religious undertaking which is not publicly owned and under the exclusive control, order and superintendence of public officers or public agents authorized by the commonwealth or federal authority.

Section 3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the commonwealth, or any political division thereof, from paying to privately controlled hospitals, infirmaries, or institutions for the care of the deaf, dumb or blind more than the ordinary and reasonable compensation for care or support actually rendered or furnished by such hospitals, infirmaries or institutions to such persons as may be in whole or in part unable to support or care for themselves.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any inmate of a publicly controlled reformatory, penal or charitable institution of the opportunity of religious exercises therein of his own faith; but no inmate of such institution shall be compelled to attend religious services or receive religious instruction against his will, or if a minor, without the consent of his parent or guardian.

Section 5. This amendment shall not take effect until the October first next succeeding its ratification and adoption by the people.

"Shall the following Article of Amendment relative to the taking and distribution by the Commonwealth and its municipalities of the common necessities of life, submitted by the Constitutional Convention, be approved and ratified?"

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.
The maintenance and distribution at reasonable rates, during time of war, public exigency, emergency or distress, of a sufficient supply of food and other common necessities of life and the providing of shelter, are public functions, and the commonwealth and the cities and towns therein may take and may provide the same for their inhabitants in such manner as the general court shall determine.

The polls at said meetings will be opened at six o'clock A. M. and closed at four-thirty o'clock P. M. at the polling places which have been designated for the purpose by the Board of Aldermen, a list of which is posted in the several precincts of the city.

By Order of the Board of Aldermen,
FRANK M. GRANT,
City Clerk.

proposed amendment allows the Legislature to enact laws which will permit any voter absent from the city or town in which he lives to cast his vote at any state or municipal election. There are a large number of citizens who by reason of their employment are prevented from casting their votes. This is especially true of men in railroad service, commercial travelers, and others. The constitution of Massachusetts as it now stands provides for voting at meetings called for the purpose, which apparently restricts the right to vote at polling places. This restriction in the constitution as to the place of voting makes it necessary to enact an amendment similar to the one proposed, in order that the Legislature may provide a means for citizens necessarily absent from home to cast their votes.

It is assumed that if the Legislature makes such provision it will be properly safeguarded as to the method by which this privilege may be exercised. During the Civil War many states passed such legislation, allowing the soldiers in the war to cast their votes. Some of these acts were declared invalid, as they came in conflict with the constitution of several states. At the present time there are thirteen states in which provision has been made in the constitution for voting by absentee, ten of which, however, limit the privilege to voters in the army or navy. In two states, Michigan and Oregon, the constitutions provide for absent voting. In other states it is permitted by statute, there being nothing in the constitution to prevent statutes of that character. To my mind there appears to be no good reason why this proposed amendment should not at this time be adopted by the Massachusetts voters.

The second amendment is known as the "anti-aid" or "sectarian" amendment, and the purpose of this amendment is to prohibit the Legislature from appropriating public money to institutions that are not under public control. In other words it prohibits the Legislature from appropriating money to any school, church, hospital or other institution that is under private control. In principle the proposed amendment appears to be correct. Its adoption will undoubtedly work some hardship to hospitals and technical schools that have received support from the Commonwealth in the past. The convention, however, by very decided vote, has believed that this amendment was correct in principle, and that its adoption was essential at the present time.

The third amendment is known as the "municipal trading" amendment, and provides that the Legislature may authorize the Commonwealth and the cities and towns to deal in the necessities of life in time of war, exigency or emergency. It will be noted that the authority to do so is limited to specified conditions, and it is fair to assume that such authority cannot be given and exercised except in time of war, exigency or emergency. Therefore if this authority is exercised by the Legislature it would be of a purely temporary character, and I think it is fair to say that this amendment is not satisfactory to those who believe in extending socialism by allowing municipalities greater authority to deal in the necessities of life. The committee reported a somewhat elaborate resolution, and the amendment which was finally adopted was offered as a substitute for the resolution recommended by the committee. It received a majority vote of the convention, but it can hardly be said that it was cordially endorsed. So far as I am able to judge the amendment is not satisfactory to those who believe in greater socialism or collectivism, and is not satisfactory to those who are opposed to the extension of socialistic doctrine.

SAMUEL L. POWERS.

TIMELY ASSISTANCE TO CO. C, 5TH REGIMENT

Our Newton boys in Camp at Framingham, the remnants of the Newton Company of the National Guard, consisting of all the sergeants, several of the corporals, cooks, etc., (the best part of the Company which left Newton in August) suffered intensely from the cold snap some three or four weeks ago, and had no money, or any way to get stoves for their tents, when one of the ex-members of the "Clan Guard" Mr. Robert C. Bridgman of Newtonville stepped into the breach and purchased a sufficient number of oil stoves and had them delivered the next day, making them comfortable and happy.

He had great difficulty in finding any, and was told that there were none to be had at any price, but with his usual energy and diplomacy succeeded in securing the necessary number, becoming responsible for the payment of same, with the hope that the citizens would help him out in an expense, rather than to wait and solicit subscriptions first, and delay the relief which would mean that many of them would be sick in the hospital with colds and possibly pneumonia.

For several nights it was so cold that water froze in their tents. Mr. Bridgman certainly deserves the thanks of the citizens for his philanthropy.

THE MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club of St. John's Church will hold its first meeting of the season on Monday evening, November 5th, at the home of the president, Mr. William B. Arnold, 515 Walnut street, Newtonville.

This Club is the Men's Social organization of the church, and all men of the parish are members. It serves the purpose of getting the men acquainted, and also its purposes are largely social, some subject of special interest is discussed at each meeting, by someone thoroughly informed.

St. John's has become known in the community as the most patriotic church, and it is hoped that every man will help to maintain this worthy reputation, by taking some interest in this organization.

An invitation is extended everyone to be present at this first meeting on Monday, and this invitation especially includes the new comers in the parish.

KELSEY-EATON

The wedding of Miss Eleanor Johnson Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin H. Eaton of Auburndale, and Mr. Joel Kelsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kelsey of Baltimore, Maryland, took place Saturday, October 27th, at the bride's home on Central street.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. William C. Gordon, pastor of the Congregational Church. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a wedding gown of white Liberty satin with tulle of lace and bead embroidered train. She wore the wedding veil which was worn by her mother, Miss Elizabeth Hoppe of Washington, D. C., the maid of honor, was given in pale orchid crepe, and the bridesmaids, Miss Louise Wood of West Newton and Miss Margaret Strong of Newtonville, were gowned alike in pale yellow satin with overdress of tulle. Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by a ladies orchestra. The bridegroom was assisted by Dr. Neal Fogg of Boston, as best man and the ushers were Mr. Raymond Tuttle of New York city, and Mr. Edwin C. Eaton, brother of the bride, of Auburndale. The rooms were decorated attractively for the occasion with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony a reception was held and the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by their parents. A delicious wedding supper was served by Paxton of Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey left on a wedding trip and will make their home in Philadelphia, Pa., where they will be at home after December 1st.

A large number of guests were present from Boston, New York, Washington, D. C. and Newton. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Farley, Miss Emily Farley, Mr. Stephen Wright, Alderman Arthur W. Hollis and Mrs. Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Frost, the Misses Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Gilman, Mr. Robert P. Gilman, Jr., Miss Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus C. S. C. Parker Bishop Fiske, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stoessel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickard, Dr. H. W. Godfrey and Mrs. Godfrey, Miss Annie Strong, Miss Marion Knowlton, Professor Amos R. Wells and Miss Elizabeth Wells, Mrs. W. F. Hall, Miss Ruth Woodbury, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eaton, Mrs. John W. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. James Miss Edith Jacobs, and Mrs. William C. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Eaton.

SERVICE FLAG SUNDAY

There will be a special "Service Flag" Service at the church of the Messiah (Episcopal), Commonwealth avenue and Auburn street, Auburndale, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The service is in honor of those who have enlisted in the service of their country from the parish, and a national flag and a Service Flag will be dedicated and addresses will be delivered as follows:

"The Service Flag: Its significance in a Community." Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Mayor of Newton.

"The Service Flag: The man it represents." Rev. Howard K. Bartow.

Mr. Bartow is chairman of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, and is now stationed as Voluntary Chaplain at Camp Devens, Ayer.

The service and message will be of community interest. Everyone will be welcome especially those who are now "flying the Service Flag."

DAVIS-WELLS

The wedding of Miss Marion H. Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wells of Watertown and Mr. Vivian Bruce Davis of Waltham, took place on Monday evening at the bride's residence on Union street.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Kimball Mason, pastor of the Waltham Universalist Church.

The bride was given away by her father. The bride was gowned in white silk with Japanese chiffon embroidered in rose pattern, with pearls. She wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

She was attended by Miss Myrtle M. Hopkins of Wollaston, Mass., as maid of honor, who wore a gown of turquoise blue with georgette crepe made in beaded butterflies. She carried a silver basket of pink roses and ferns.

The bridesmaids were Miss Minnie Belle Frazine of Kane, Penn., Miss Agnes M. Fraser of Watertown, Miss Margaret D. Lamprell of Indiana, Miss Verda A. Snyder of Maryland. They were gowned alike in pastel shades of georgette crepe with glass butterflies for adornment and carried silver baskets of roses, designed by the bride.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Harold L. Tilton of Bridgeport, Conn., as best man and the ushers were Victor Le F. Fillebrown of Ayer, Mass., Ellis L. Gates of Waban, Charles C. Gleason of Medford, and Carl P. Clare of Waltham, all cousins of the bride groom.

After the ceremony a reception was held and a wedding supper was served by Paxton to about 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on a wedding trip by motor and will be at home after November 15th, at Ayer, Mass.

ALDERMEN HOLD SHORT SESSION

Revolver Practice and Overcoats Proposed for the Newton Constabulary

The aldermen were in session less than an hour at the regular meeting on Monday night at which President Early presided and only Aldermen Tuttle and Blake were absent.

Mr. Herbert M. Bacon opposed an Addison pole on Fairview street and Nicholas Lupo objected to a sewer being laid in Ashmont avenue and no one appeared on the third hearing on petition of Arcese Bros. for a gasoline permit in rear of Bridge street, Nantam.

Alderman Harriman was designated to draw four jurors for the coming civil session of the Superior court at Cambridge and drew the names of George C. Ewing of Oxford road, Albert G. Hopkins of Applegarth road, Seward G. Johnson of Centre street, and John A. Paine of Somerset road. The name of Mr. George A. Kinley, who has just died, was also drawn and laid aside.

Mayor Childs sent in recommendations that $1000 was needed for State Aid, and $200 for Law Department expenses, both of which were granted. A recommendation for $50 for Forestry Department automobiles was referred.

Petitions were received for concrete sidewalks on Central street, for laying out of extension of Adams street to California street, for telephone attachments on Bulbough park, for street railway attachments on Crafts street, of James D'Angellis for common victuallier license on Adams street, B. D. Childs for second hand store on Centre street, and G. W. Turner to operate a jitney from Chestnut street, Upper Falls, to the Charles river.

Various permits for private garages, a telephone attachment on Rockledge road, and relocation of Edison poles on South street and Moffat road were granted. Betterment assessments on Avalon road on estates of C. W. Martin and Louella B. Gates were apportioned.

The Public Works committee made a laudable attempt to clear its docket, reporting no action necessary on the lighting of Newtonville square, on making Putnam street a one way street, on the improvement of Pleasant street, and on establishing a building line on St. James street, Charlesbank road, and Florence street. Leave to withdraw was granted on sewers in Mason road, Chestnut Hill road, Warwick road, Commonwealth avenue, Commonwealth park, Bulbough park, and the laying out of Algonquin road, Hood and Rogers streets, Davis avenue, and Nottingham street. The committee also reported that it was inexpedient to act on the improvement of Dedham, Parker, and Winchester street, to improve the swamp at the Upper Falls playground, to widen Walnut street, and to authorize the sale of the Lowell avenue ledge. Alderman Harriman explained that the railroad company and the city authorities were to make some changes in the fences and shrubbery at the approaches to Putnam street bridge, and it was thought the greater part of the present danger at that point may be avoided in this manner. The matter of improving Dedham, Parker, and Winchester streets was discussed at considerable length. Alderman Angier wanting the matter left in such a way as to allow it to be taken up whenever it was deemed advisable in the future. Alderman Harriman said that the expense of this work was prohibitive at this time and probably for next year, and the committee wished to have its docket cleared before the end of the year. A motion to refer this matter to the next city government was defeated by a tie vote.

Favorable action was taken on laying a concrete sidewalk on Broadway and hearings were assigned on November 19 on sewers in Waban avenue and Pilgrim road. Land was taken and sewers ordered built in Hood street and in Ashmont avenue.

The select committee on new quarters for the fire alarm telegraph reported that the present system had reached its full capacity, but as a new building would cost at least $80,000 it was inexpedient to take any action at the present time.

Just as adjournment was reached, Alderman Clark presented two resolutions in behalf of Alderman Whidden who had left earlier, one requesting the Mayor and Chief of Police to arrange for practice with revolvers and other arms for the Newton Constabulary, and another calling for $5000 to be used for furnishing the Newton Constabulary with overcoats when on active service. Both matters were referred to the Finance committee.

The board adjourned at 8.40 P. M.

NEWTON CONSTABULARY

Many Good Reasons Why Newton Men Should Render Personal Service

Everyone who has given the subject any consideration realizes that even in normal times we do not place our real dependence for the maintenance of law and order upon the police forces of the various cities and towns of the state. The local police forces, however efficient, are fully occupied in patrolling the streets and in apprehending criminals of the ordinary type, and they are wholly inadequate in numbers to handle a serious riot or uprising, or to maintain order and the rights of public property when a large portion of a city or town has been destroyed by a fire or a flood, or to enforce the law where drastic measures have to be taken to subdue a pestilence, or when some other situation has arisen in which the civil authorities are defied by a large body of lawless and excited men.

In such cases it is to the militia that the civil authorities resort, and in extreme cases, when the militia cannot handle the situation, the regular army is called in. It is not often that it is necessary to call out the militia, but the occasion has arisen more than once in every state in the union, and moreover there can be no doubt that the existence of an armed and disciplined force ready to supplement the police in case of need is the most powerful deterrent to riots and uprisings of all sorts. If there were no such force available, the community would soon be at the mercy of its most lawless members.

MILITIA NOT AVAILABLE

At the present time the militia has been called into the service of the federal government and, together with the regular army, has been ordered to be sent to France. At a time when the passions of the people are excited by war, when discontent in various forms is likely to manifest itself in riots and disorders of every kind, when there are thousands of malcontents in secret if not open sympathy with the enemy, we are left without the protection which has again and again been found necessary even in times of peace. Even if it were possible to call back troops from the front to suppress riots at home, as was done in the case of the draft riots in the Civil War, if this were the only recourse of the civil authorities the incentive to emissaries of the enemy to interfere with our military plans by stirring up trouble at home would be doubled.

Those charged with the duty of maintaining the government during the war, have not failed to realize the dangers of the situation. To be sure, under statutes which have been in force for over two hundred years, every male citizen over eighteen years of age may be drafted by the mayor and compelled to perform police duties in time of public disturbance, but to exercise this power upon men having no previous training would be merely to set one mob on another. To be of any service whatever the forces of law and order must have some semblance of military discipline and some training in the use of weapons, and must be able to recognize their own officers and to know how to act as an organized body and not merely as an aggregation of individuals.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Interesting Event at the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale

A well attended Patriotic Service was held at the Church of the Messiah (Episcopal) last Sunday afternoon. A Service Flag was unfurled in honor of the young men connected with the parish who have enlisted in military service. The rector, P. M. Wood was in charge of the services and the special speakers were Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Jr., Mayor of Newton, who spoke on the significance of the Service Flag in community life, and Rev. Howard K. Bartow, chairman of the Social Service Commission of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, now representing the Episcopal Church as Voluntary chaplain at Camp Devens, Ayer.

The Mayor spoke strongly of the supreme service given in behalf of all those who have gone forth from this city, an example calling for a generous response in the service of those at home.

Mr. Bartow spoke feelingly of the boys in camp, and of the chaplains' close association with them of the new sense of life-values the men are getting as they are brought face to face with a supreme task. He quoted and applied in many ways the outstanding expression in camp today, "It's a great life, if you don't weaken."

The names of those in whose honor the Service Flag was unfurled are: Ralph Heals, Archibald Henley, Ernest Henley, Morrell H. Manter, Albert H. Randall, William Scott, Raymond Sikes, Robert Stowell, Lewis H. Young, Chester Bonney, Lloyd Mantner, Elliot Stickney, Warren Daley, Stanley Wood ward, Roger Bennett, Richard Jacobs, Jr., Richard A. Klein. Since the making of the Flag, two others have been accepted for service and their names will be added, they are Carl Pendergast and Miles Standish.

WAR CAMP RECREATION FUND

The work in this city to raise a quota of $10,000 towards the fund to provide the boys at the various training camps with clean, wholesome entertainment and exercise while off duty, is in charge of a competent committee, with Mr. Fred M. Blanchard as chairman and consisting of Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Aldermen Stephen H. Whidden of West Newton, Arthur W. Hollis of Auburndale, and Arthur Kendrick of Newton, and James S. Cannon of Newton and William H. Rice of Newton Centre.

The various wards have also been thoroughly organized and a systematic campaign is in progress this week to raise the money. Do what you can to help this excellent cause. The cost is estimated at $3.00 per soldier. How many soldiers will YOU take care of?

FATAL ACCIDENT

Mrs. E. E. Hillburn of Boston was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. Dana Libbey of West Newton, division foreman of the Newton Street Department, last Thursday evening, while on Main street, Waltham, and died on Friday morning at the Waltham Hospital from a fractured skull. Mr. Libbey told the police that Mrs. Hillburn stepped in front of his car and he was unable to stop in time.

THE CITY ELECTION

No Opposition to Mayor Childs and Four Aldermanic Changes

With the state election out of the way, some attention is now being paid to the various candidates for the city election to be held December 11th.

It is generally conceded, although it is not yet officially announced that Mayor Edwin O. Childs will be a candidate for a third term. This is entirely due to political conditions, for several gentlemen would like to become mayor of Newton, but have a most wholesome respect for Mayor Childs' ability as a vote getter. At all events, until Mr. Childs states definitely that he is not a candidate, the booms of other men are kept in the background.

For aldermen, some changes are contemplated.

In ward 1, Alderman Fitts will retire of his own volition, and Alderman Harriman, who was elected last fall for two years from ward 7, but whose tenure of office will cease on Dec. 31st as he has since moved into ward 1, has been persuaded to serve again as an alderman from ward 1, instead of ward 7, and the city is to be congratulated on that decision, as Alderman Harriman is one of the most valuable men in the present board. Alderman Murphy can succeed himself if he wishes to do so, but as he has served for six years, he may decide to retire on his well earned laurels.

For School committee, Mr. Fred W. Stone, who has served for six years, announces his retirement and Mr. Joseph N. Palmer will accept the office. Mr. Palmer was a member of the school board when it was reduced in numbers from 15 to 7 and retired at that time, so he will be no stranger to the task.

In ward 2, Alderman William Price will run for ward alderman, having served the past two years as alderman at large, and it is expected that Ward Alderman Hubert L. Carter will run for the two year term.

In ward 3, Alderman Justin A. McCarthy as ward alderman and Alderman at large, Herbert M. Cole are expected to succeed themselves.

In ward 4, Alderman Guy M. Winslow will retire after five years of valuable service and Alderman Hollis is expected to take the two year term with Mr. W. J. Spaulding succeeding him as ward alderman. School committeeman, Charles E. Valentine has also accepted another term in that office.

In ward 5, it is expected the Ward alderman, George M. Angier, one of the leading members of the board will be returned from Waban and Alderman at large Frederick W. Cobb will succeed himself, having an eye on the representative nomination from the south side next fall.

In ward 6, Alderman Robert M. Clark retires and Alderman Morton C. Tuttle, will be named for the two year term and Mr. E. Clifford Potter is mentioned for the ward aldermanship.

In ward 7, Alderman Bancroft Goodwin will succeed himself as ward alderman and Mr. Philip Nichols will undoubtedly accept the office vacated by the removal of Alderman Harriman to ward 1. Mr. Everett E. Kent will also succeed himself as a member of the school committee.

SMALL VOTE CAST

But Republican Ticket has an Old-Fashioned Majority. Laborers' Vacations Refused.

The state election on Tuesday attracted but little attention from the voters of Newton, only 71 per cent of the registration being recorded at the polls. Governor McCall, as was expected polled a very large portion of the vote, receiving 4063 votes to 1383 for Mansfield, his Democratic opponent. Lieut. Governor Coolidge received 3971 votes to 1289 cast for Matthew Hale, Democrat, but Mr. Coolidge had a plurality of 2682 as compared with 2680 given Gov. McCall.

The greatest interest was taken on the result of the referendum on the "anti-aid" amendment to the Constitution, Yes carrying the city by a vote of 2770 to 1555 No. The other constitutional amendments were also favored, absentee voting having 3904 Yes and 1073 No, while the public trading amendment had 4200 Yes and 825 No. The referendum for vacations for city laborers was again defeated, the vote this year being 2330 Yes and 2795 No.

A remarkable feature of the election was the lack of scattering votes. Only three votes, one each for Lieutenant governor, for state auditor, and for councillor being cast.

Mr. Leland Powers, a new candidate for representative, had the highest vote for that office, with Representative Allen, a close second, and Representative Weston over a hundred votes behind.

Councillor James G. Harris, Senator James E. MacPherson, and County Commissioner Walter C. Wardwell were unopposed. Senator MacPherson receiving the highest vote cast for any candidate, 4109.

The detailed vote for governor, Lieutenant governor, representatives, and the various referendums will be found elsewhere.

VACATIONS FOR LABORERS.

The Editor of the Graphic.
The referendum on the vacations for city laborers seems to have been so generally misunderstood that I would like to say a word in explanation of the situation.

The question is, whether the city shall be forced to pay to the employees in the street department many of them non-residents, who work a few months during the busy period in the summer a sum equal to their wages for two weeks in addition to compensation for the time they work. This referendum was put on the ballot this year as before under the Act of 1914, Chapter 217, which is so ambiguous as to permit of almost any construction. It provides that all persons classified as laborers "and regularly employed by cities or towns for more than one year" shall be entitled to a vacation of not less than two weeks. If this purports to apply only to city laborers who have been employed fifty-two weeks in a year, it will cover practically none of them. On the other hand, if it means those who are "regularly employed" from year to year during the busy season, it will include a lot of men mostly non-residents and aliens, who come into the city during the summer time temporarily and who are certainly not entitled to two weeks' vacation money.

During my five years' service at City Hall, I came to realize very clearly the faithful and honest work done by the regular employees of the street department who work practically the whole year, and I see no reason why they should not be allowed a two weeks' vacation just as much as an employee in City Hall itself. The city has a right today to give such men two weeks' vacation, and I for one am ready to assist them in any application they may see fit to make to the city government, provided the case of regular workers is carefully distinguished from the situation of the extra men who are taken on during a few weeks in the summer.

CHRISTIAN FORUM

At the monthly meeting of the Christian Forum at Eliot Church next Sunday at 4 P. M., Talcott Williams, Director of the School of Journalism, Columbia University, will speak on the subject, "Why We are at War with the Imperial German Government."

For many years Talcott Williams has been one of the leading journalists in this country. Before being made Director of the School of Journalism or the Pulitzer Foundation at Columbia University in 1912, he had been on the staff of the New York World; Washington Correspondent for the New York Sun and San Francisco Chronicle, and editorial writer on the Springfield Republican, and the Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Williams' address "Why We are at War with the Imperial German Government" is a result of his many consultations with the parents of boys going to the front, who have come to him seeking justification for letting their boys go.

COAL SITUATION SERIOUS

Coal is in great demand all through New England, but, in spite of the best endeavors of the Fuel Administrator, the supply has fallen far behind the requirements. The situation is serious. At the present time New England is several million tons of soft coal short of its needs, and while the hard coal supply was reasonably satisfactory two months ago there was a falling-off during September and October, so that there is not enough now coming forward to meet the increased uses.

Every effort has been and is being made by the Fuel Administrator to facilitate shipments and to secure the economical utilization of the coal received. Many relatively unnecessary forms of use have been curtailed or even eliminated.

The fact remains that the outlook for any improvement in future deliveries for New England is unfavorable, and it has become the duty of the Administrator to advise the public of these facts and to urge that personal and community prudence and national patriotism require that New England should begin at once to utilize as fully as may be the native cordwood supplies.

At a recent conference of fuel officials, woodland owners, wood dealers, the Grange and others interested, representing all the New England States, the opinion was unanimously expressed that an organized effort should be made without any delay to provide a store of wood sufficient for immediate and future needs.

The reports from the several States indicated positively that the supply of wood now on hand is everywhere short even of normal requirements, and that there would appear to be any danger of glutting the market through any cutting activity that may be inaugurated. In view of the likelihood that there will be an even greater stringency in the coal situation later in the season, and with the possibility that these conditions may not be materially improved another year, the present or future market for good cordwood bears a most promising appearance.

It was further recommended by the conference referred to above that an appeal should be made to Local Committees of Public Safety in all wood-producing localities, and to County Agents as well, to take an inventory of all available supplies of cordwood, stumps that are situated within a reasonable distance of a market, and to endeavor forcefully to arrange for its cutting without delay.

It is therefore earnestly requested that the Granges and the Farmers' Clubs will immediately take an active part in co-operating with the local Committees on Public Safety in this important matter.

Federal Fuel Administrator for New England.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

Some Notable Biographies of 1917

Joseph H. Choate; New Englander. New Yorker, lawyer, ambassador, by Theron G. Brown. EC45-S.

"An authoritative biography of a distinguished American. Mr. Strong wrote his book with Mr. Choate's approval, and had access to many of his papers."

Life and letters of Christopher Cranch, by Leonora Cranch Scott. EC55-S.

"Few men of his age touched American life and letters more variously than Christopher P. Cranch. The letters in this volume tell, mainly in his own words, of his interesting life as poet and artist in this country and in Europe."

The life of Augustin Daly, by Joseph Francis Daly. ED178-D.

"Augustin Daly was famous on two continents. Yet this story of his life is interesting not only as a personal biography but as a collection of fascinating information about the theatrical and literary life of the mid-nineteenth century."

Autobiography of a super-tramp, by William H. Davies. ED239-D.

The actual experiences of a young man who tramped and begged, now and then working for a few weeks. He tells us how tramps live, how they talk and how they feel."

A son of the middle border, by Hamilton Garland. EG183-G.

"Mr. Garland's view of himself and of the life he encountered, along a vista that has seen one era after another of American progress give place to its successor. It is the story of the advance of an American boy."

Uncollected letters of Abraham Lincoln, now first brought together, by Gilbert A. Tracy. EL633-L.

"Mr. Tracy was a clerk in the War Department under Lincoln and knew him personally. For fifteen years he has been collecting Lincoln's letters, resulting in the present notable volume of about three hundred letters, most of them hitherto entirely unpublished."

"Honest Abe," by Alonzo Rothschild. EL638-Ra.

The "Literary Digest," in reviewing his previous book, said, "It is one of the most fascinating and illuminating studies of Lincoln. It makes for keener appreciation of the immensity of Lincoln's task and of the greatness of his achievement." In the same way this new book makes for keener appreciation of the fundamental honesty and sincerity of purpose that was responsible for his greatness.

Martin Luther; the story of his life, by Elsie Singmaster. EL977-Si.

A popular life to commemorate the four hundredth anniversary of the Reformation.

These many years, by Brander Matthews. EM431-M.

William Dean Howells says, in an appreciation of this book: "It would hardly have been possible to name this agreeable work more fortunately than Mr. Matthews has named his autobiography, and I think I have shared his good luck in calling it 'The Man Who Stayed at Home.'"

The life of Henry David Thoreau; including many essays hitherto unpublished and some account of his family and friends, by Frank B. Sanborn. ET39-Si.

"The extent of Mr. Sanborn's personal knowledge of Thoreau, his command of the resources of information about him, his possession of manuscripts and other records, placed ready at his hand a large amount of material for the making of a notable biography. The result is an excellent biography in substance if not in form."

TREMONT THEATRE—"Turn to the Right," a play with a hundred laughs and heart-thrills, is the one play out of a season you can't afford to miss. The famous comedy, by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazard, just now the sensation of New England, is the tenderest, sweetest story of mother-love and young romance ever put in a play, with all the ardor and feeling that have made the appeal of "The Music Master" and "The Old Homestead," and with a clever, up-to-the-minute plot of American adventure and enterprise beside, full of new angles and surprises, with dramatic force in the story to hold the audience tense with interest from act to act. "Turn to the Right" has already made a fortune for its producers and played to over two million people the past year. It has literally reached the heart of the public with the homelike touch of nature in "Ma" Bascom's motherhood; and the irresistible realism of the Bascom kitchen where "Ma" Bascom makes the peach jam that makes the fortune of everybody in the play, has no duplicate on the stage—complete to the last detail of the preserving kettle and the kitchen pump that pumps real water.

XMAS GIFTS FOR SOLDIERS

There are now some 35 boys from this part of Newton, Newton Corner, who are serving their country in Batteries A, B and C, 101st Regiment, Field Artillery, in France. They have faced the U-boats in the Danger Zone, where for three or four nights and days they were on deck, with life belts on, not being allowed to even remove their shoes at night. All this time the wind was blowing hard and the rain falling fast. Now they are somewhere in France, in cold stone barracks, eating breakfast by candle light, and doing without many of the things we consider the necessities of life, drilling in the rain and mud with the French 75s, getting ready to go to the front.

These boys will not be home for Christmas. Let us who are in our comfortable homes, doing little and not suffering at all think of our boys over there and do what we can to make them happy on Christmas Day.

I wish to send to every one of these men a Christmas gift and I already have quite a little fund given me by the business men of Newton Corner for the purchase of gifts.

On Sunday evening, next, the 11, the management of the Newton Opera House has kindly offered to give a benefit performance to swell the fund. Let the house be full to the doors. Anyone wishing to add to the fund may do so by sending contributions to me at once, as the time is very short before the date when the mails close for Christmas packages. A list of contributions to the fund will be published in the Newton papers, together with a report of expenditures. (Dr.) M. E. GLEASON, 125 Vernon St., Newton.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE—William Faversham will present Bernard Shaw's latest comedy success, "Misalliance," at the Plymouth Theatre for two weeks only, beginning next Monday, November 12th, with a notable cast, including Maclay Arbuckle, Katharine Kaelred, Elizabeth Risdon, George Fitzgerald and others. "Misalliance" is now playing at the Broadhurst Theatre in New York City.

It has been the greatest comedy success of the early season, scoring one of the most emphatic hits Bernard Shaw has had in America. The play is well-known to Shavian admirers through its published form. Though written in one act, it is acted in three. "Misalliance" tells of John Tarleton, a hugely successful manufacturer of underwear, who has a daughter, Hyacinth, who is engaged to the son of a wealthy banker.

She is a girl of spirit and energy, and the lack of excitement and wants to get married, but so far has not found a man who combines brains and physical attraction, so has compromised on a son of the aristocracy, who is all brains and no body.

COPLY THEATRE—A new record for long runs is being established by "The Man Who Stayed at Home," at the Copley Theatre. With its performance next Monday evening it will begin its twenty-third week. Other plays have remained longer before the Boston public, but they have been acted by visiting companies. Never before has a play been given in a Boston playhouse for a longer period by a repertory company of resident players. It may also be worth noting that a large part of the run of "The Man Who Stayed at Home" was during the summer, when the public is supposed to take but little interest in theatres. The interest in "The Man Who Stayed at Home" has, however, been continuous. It is still attracting large audiences, and it will therefore be acted by the Henry Jewett Players till further notice.

SPECIAL WAR SERVICE

In view of the receipt this week of the first list of American soldiers killed, wounded, or captured in France, the evening service at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, Sunday, November 11, will be a special war service at which the Rector—the Rev. Edward T. Sullivan—will deliver a special address on—"As the Casualty Lists Come In—A Message to Parents and Others who have Loved Ones 'Over There'."

The singing of special patriotic hymns and songs will be a stirring feature of this special service which begins at 7:15 P. M.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The English Club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday when the following officers were elected: John Barry, President; Estelle Wellwood, Vice President; Edson Jewell, Treasurer. Wednesday about 50 candidates for the boys' hockey team reported in the gym. Most of last year's championship team has returned and another bright season is looked for.

In the interclass hockey games the junior girls beat the seniors 3 to 1 and the sophomores beat the freshmen 9 to 1.

The manager of the girls' hockey team has arranged the following schedule: Nov. 14, Winthrop; Nov. 1, Somerville; Nov. 30, Alumnæ; Dec. 4, Milton Academy. All are to be played at Newton with the exception of the Milton game.

The girls' basketball team has elected Elinor Lyon, captain, and Mildred Lovejoy, manager. The schedule has not yet been arranged.

A dance for the benefit of the Boys' Debating Club will be held in the gymnasium Friday, Nov. 16.

Harrison Fairfield has been appointed manager of the boys' tennis team.

Wednesday morning Mr. Adams announced that following a plan inaugurated last year a certain number of points toward a diploma would be awarded for work in music at home.

By making music a part of the school curriculum this removes the difficulty of some pupils who have found it necessary to give up their music on entering high school.

Newton just managed to win from Boston College High last Friday by the scant margin of one point. In the game the Newton team scored its touchdown by a field goal.

The New Aeolian Phonograph
The AEOLIAN-VOCALION
A Notable Achievement in Musical Instrument Making

WHEN you go to buy a phonograph judge its quality by the artistic excellence, the richness and body of its tone. Test the Aeolian-Vocalion with any record you choose—the tone will be finer, smoother than you have ever heard from that record.

The remarkable naturalness of the Vocalion reproductions of voice or instrument, their almost entire freedom from the usual phonographic imperfections, will surprise you.

And to heighten the pleasurable possibilities of a well-nigh perfect tone, there is the wonderful new Vocalion privilege of playing each record if you desire—this by means of the Vocalion expression device, the Graduola, which enables you to shade, to color each phrase, to vary and modulate the music as you feel.

Vocalion prices are reasonable—$45 to $375 for conventional models ($45 to $85 styles without Graduola). Art styles to $2000.

Catalog and descriptive literature sent upon request.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Two weeks ago it was Liberty Bonds, last week it was Food Conservation and this week it is the War Camp Community Recreation Fund, nor will it cease with this, for truly there is no end to the things which must be done and the money which must be given. "Such beautiful co-operation" was the chance remark of Miss Sarah Louise Arneson the other day, as she looked over her mail. An interruption at that moment prevented her from completing her sentence, but her hearer knew she referred to some expressed desire for coming into line, which she had found in the particular letter she was reading. Indeed it is wonderful, the way the women of our State and of every state are co-operating, all eager to do something. Throughout the entire State in 337 cities and towns or thereabouts has the Council of National Defense been able to tie up to itself existing work through chairmen for the most part already at the head of some organization, not with the idea of duplication of effort, but to center all that is being done. Whatever information it is necessary should be known in a special community is easily communicated to it through the chairman of that community. The putting in motion of this machinery has been the work of Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer and her assistants of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense. Mrs. Thayer's appointment came from President Wilson, as did also that of some of her assistants. She is also director of Home Economics for the State. Another piece of co-operation is that of the Public Safety Committee of the State through Mr. Henry B. Endicott, in taking the Women's Committee into his suite of offices, financing the undertaking. That such has not been the fortune in some states was shown by a remark at the monthly conference at the State House on Monday, when a woman from Oregon stated that in her state they were having difficulty in securing the necessary finances for their work. Each week is seeing some new endeavor brought to a head. One such, which will be of special interest to women, is to be announced in the Sunday papers. Watch for it.

State Federation.

Wednesday, November 14, 10 A.M.
 Fall meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at South Braintree by invitation of the Philergians. Morning speaker, Morris J. Wessel, subject, "New Americans and the Community Center." In the afternoon at two o'clock John Collier, director of the Training School for Community Workers of the People's Institute of Social Work, will speak on "Can Social Work be Democratic?" Box luncheon. Train leaves South Station, Boston, 8.54, not 9.45 as previously announced.

Patriotic Bazaar.

Don't forget the Patriotic Bazaar at the Copley Plaza, November 12, 13, 14. Visit the Newton table and secure a doll for Christmas.

Local Announcements.

Nov. 12 the Newton Highlands L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Robert Clark of Erie Ave.

The Christian Era Study Club meets with Miss Johnson, 84 Grove street, Auburndale, on Nov. 12.

At the Brighthelmstone Club next Monday under the auspices of the Home department, Mrs. Ruth Stevens Reed will discuss "Better Dressing on Smaller Expenditure."

The next meeting of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club will be Tuesday, November 13 at 2.30, in Lincoln Hall.

The Civic Committee announces that Miss Catherine Barnum, journalist and lecturer will speak on "Americanizing Americans and Aliens." Miss Barnum has been co-operating with immigrant women in civic and individual work for a quarter of a century and is an authority on women in industry. She has been an ardent advocate of arbitration in this country and Canada. She has served with the Federal Industrial Relations Commission and is now a member of the National Women in Industry Committee, advisory to the Council of National Defense. Her Immigrant Sketches which have appeared from time to time in the press are delightful and illuminating. Some of these sketches will figure in her lecture.

Mrs. Robert P. Gilman of Central street will be hostess for the meeting of the Auburndale Review Club on Tuesday, Nov. 13.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. Mary Schenk Woolman will speak before the Social Science Club on "The Ethics of Shopping." As the lecture is of unusual interest and importance the meeting will be open to the public without guest tickets.

The Newton Central Woman's Club announces an educational meeting for Thursday, Nov. 15, at 10 A.M., when Miss Delian I. Griffin, director of the will answer the question, "Why a will answer the question, 'Why a Museum for Children'."

At the G. A. R. Hall, Newtonville, on Nov. 15, at 2 o'clock, the New Newton Ladies Home Circle will hold its regular meeting.

Local Happenings.

Mrs. S. A. Wiswell was in charge of the work for the meeting of the Newton Highlands L. S. C. held at the home of Mrs. E. G. Swift on Monday afternoon. "Our National Parks" were described in a most interesting manner, the Yellowstone, Glacier and Grand Canyon being presented in all their grandeur.

At the meeting of the Newton Highlands Monday Club Nov. 5th held with Mrs. A. H. Armstrong, the afternoon was spent in reading from the "Quills of our Forefathers." Mrs. M. M. Griswold read from Donald G. Mitchell's "Lands and Letters." Mrs. Charles Ogden from Bradfords History, and love letters of John and Margaret Winthrop. Mrs. Chipman added a lighter touch with the humor of Nathaniel Ward, also reading many of the quaint old epitaphs of Colonial times.

Mrs. Henry F. Cate of Temple street entertained the Newton Mothers' Club for its monthly meeting on Monday afternoon. Rev. D. Brewer Eddy spoke of Y. M. C. A. work in the army and of his experience in the Huts in France. A social hour with refreshments closed a very interesting afternoon.

The first meeting of the Waban Woman's Club for the season was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Leah A. Robinson. A very pleasing musical program under the direction of Mrs. T. H. Piser was the entertainment of the day. At the brief business meeting, which preceded the program, the question of serving tea was discussed and it was decided to dispense with refreshments for the present season. Miss Gladys Berry, violinist, Miss Marion Smith, soloist rendered groups of selections of high order, which were much enjoyed by those in attendance. Mrs. Edward A. Adler, a member of the club, accompanied the musicians and also contributed piano numbers.

At the business meeting of the Brighthelmstone Club held on Monday afternoon of this week, Mrs. J. K. E. Prager, chairman of the War Service committee, presented an interesting program, outlining the work to be done in the next few months. Mrs. T. A. Ashley, 12 Allston Heights, Allston, will receive letters, in the afternoon, and other delicacies to be ready for distribution to the Base hospitals, which will be in operation in the near future.

Mrs. W. J. McDonald, 161 Harvard ave., Allston, will open her home for a dinner to 35 men from the Naval Reserve, stationed at Commonwealth Pier, on Wednesday, November 14. The War Service Committee will act as hostesses for the evening. When the Brighthelmstone Club House is reopened in December there will be one or two entertainments each month for these boys at Commonwealth Pier.

On Tuesday afternoon the Newtonville Woman's Guild at the opening meeting spent a brief part of the session in honoring the memory of two of their old members, who had passed away during the summer, Mrs. E. E. Hopkins and Mrs. Mary R. V. Jones, the new president, who occupied the chair for the first time, read a poem written by Mrs. Martha B. Wallace as a tribute to Mrs. Martin.

The afternoon's program, which was by home talent, was in charge of Mrs. D. Sallinger. After a song by Mr. Frank McDonald, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. C. Boyden related the story of "Ann's Terrible Good Nature," Miss Marion Bassett the story of "Barney told 'Why the negro is black.'" Miss Margaret McGill presented amusing definitions and incidents which had come to her in her work at the Newton High School. A ghost story of Carlyle House in Alexandria was related.

Miss Helen Louise Johnson, Editor of the General Federation Magazine, and director of the General Federation's Service Bureau at Washington, last Tuesday addressed the Auburndale Woman's Club. She said women's clubs could be of the most service to the Government through the arm of the Red Cross, and urged Clubs to keep the Bureau informed of the service they were rendering the Government through sewing, knitting, survey dressing work, etc.

In speaking of "The Budget," her subject for the afternoon, Miss Johnson said women should have a plan of procedure for their economic lives, that it was not a question of what we can afford to buy, but what we can afford to own. Miss Johnson urged that the children, the economists of tomorrow, be taught how to spend money and then how to save. They should also be taught self control and self restraint. She emphasized the fact of the good that would be accomplished if the domestic did not occupy a place in our homes. Then our daughters might assume home duties and be taught values, economy and efficiency, not only that they may become good wives and home keepers later, but that in the present crisis of the world's affairs, by conserving time, labor, money, they are helping the Government to win the war, and are standing shoulder to shoulder with the soldiers who have gone into active service.

With home cares more simple and more direct we may release every particle of thought and energy to the great task before us of helping win the war.

Music was furnished by a double quartet from the Club. Mrs. W. J. Spaulding at the piano.

The opening meeting of the Social Science Club held on Wednesday morning was a business meeting at which considerable time was spent in discussing matters relative to the running of the club during war time. It was voted to omit four business meetings during the winter, beginning with January and to transact the necessary business at the meetings to be held on the fourth Wednesdays of those months. No Year Book will be issued this season and the money thus saved will be devoted to war work, $50 being voted that day for the War Camp Community Fund. The club will contribute by voluntary gifts its quota for the State Federation Endowment Fund. A full report of the annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs held at Great Barrington in June was given by Mrs. W. H. Mitchell.

Newton Federation

That the amount of thought and labor put into a thing is its measure of success was never shown to better advantage than in the way in which the plans for the Newton Federation meeting of Wednesday afternoon at Temple Hall, Newtonville, were carried out. That more than 500 persons came out to a meeting in the interest of "Our New American Neighbors" is testimony that the women are not wholly obsessed with one phase of the war problem, work for "our boys," pressing as that is. To obtain a sympathetic understanding of what it means to be a stranger in a strange land the afternoon's program had been especially arranged. The first number was a faithful presentation of the stages through which each New American must pass in order to be admitted to the country. There was the gang plank, the watchman, the medical inspectors, the interpreter, and the guard, all performing in exact reproduction the parts of these men at Ellis Island. This Immigrant's Gateway, as it was called, was exceedingly well carried out all the participants entering into the spirit of the occasion. Those who had part were: Watchman, Mr. Sidney L. Bryant; Medical inspectors, Dr. W. O. Hunt, Dr. George H. Talbot; Matron, Mrs. Ella E. Mason; Immigration Inspector, Rev. A. J. Muste; Guard, Rev. Rufus H. Dix; Interpreter, Pietro Isola; The Greek, Rev. Thomas S. Roy; The Frenchman, Albert LeCroix; Italian, Francesco Argenzato; Pole, Samuel Thurber; Englishman, Mr. Busick; Norwegian woman, Mrs. Rising; Bulgarian, Mrs. Peter Black; Italian, Mrs. Edward A. Andrews; Swede, Mrs. W. C. B. Robbins; Slovak, Mrs. W. C. Boyden; Irish, Miss Marion Bassett, and numerous children. The picturesque costumes added much to the effectiveness.

Following this Mme. Lina Damiano McSweeney of the Italian Woman's Club of Boston sang a group of appropriate songs, her rich soprano voice displaying all the warmth of sunny Italy.

Edward D. Hickey, executive secretary of the new State Board of Immigration, made a brief address in which he pictured the feelings of the people who came to us from over the sea, their anticipation of the land of opportunity, their journey which began in all probability several years before it actually was started and then the contrast and disappointment attending the disillusionment experienced by many, for fully 80 per cent of those who have come to our shores have been exploited. To prevent this and to offset the effects, the philanthropic agencies have worked and now the State is taking a hand. The Board is making a systematic study of conditions on the docks. Offices have been opened at the West End and at the North End where immigrants may come for assistance, notary service is given them free. The speaker felt that much of the recent labor troubles have been stirred up by unscrupulous persons among the foreigners ignorant of our ways. He anticipated after the war is over that there will be a very large influx from over the seas, so that at present the State is already preparing for it.

Miss Geraldine Gordon of Denison House, Boston, who followed, said that Mr. Hickey had not the least exaggerated conditions. Her purpose was to tell the audience some of the things which these new Americans bring us, among which may be mentioned their skill for handiwork, their sense of beauty, which is a traditional inheritance. Their work is the fruit of love for the beautiful and not in the least a commercial enterprise. She felt that it was our duty to help them to keep the best they have when they come and not superimpose our ideas upon them. Denison House is endeavoring to give these women work at home. She does not agree with the idea of America being the "melting pot," but rather that it has been chosen as the great reconciling place. Miss Gordon brought with her an exhibition of elaborate and beautiful embroideries and crochet work made by some of the women of her neighborhood.

Mr. Francesco Argento, teacher of Italian and French at the Newton Technical High School, in a very practical way told of some things which the women of Newton may do for our own New Americans. By far the largest number in this city are Italians, many of whom have come from helpless conditions at home and on this account it is difficult to accomplish much, but not impossible. Suitable places of amusement would be a great help. It is difficult to talk with them or to teach them in large groups and have them understand, so pictures of clean kitchens and neat bedrooms shown at the movies, for example.

would mean more to them than telling them. Sewing circles where they could have individual attention would be a help; teaching them English, how to save their money and above all making friends with them, for the personal way is the best. The Italian women are very friendly and polite. Speak to one when you meet her and you will find a ready response. Work among the young women and girls is much more promising than among the older ones.

A contribution for the War Camp Community Fund was asked for and the money received together with subsequent pledges reached about $140. Much credit is due Mrs. Irving O. Palmer and her assistants, Mrs. S. H. Mitchell, Mrs. G. W. St. Amant, Mrs. M. E. Herron, who coached, and to Mr. Ernest Hermann, playground director, who created the gang plank, the detention room and all that made possible the Immigrant's Gateway for the success of the undertaking.

ONE of the oldest and most celebrated English makers of fine china ware wrote us today—

"We are compelled to advance our prices on all goods booked after today as follows:

On China ware, 50 per cent.

Earthen ware, 75 per cent."

Moreover, they go on to say, this advanced price will be charged even on goods which were ordered months ago at lower prices, provided they are not able to ship until after January 1st, and future business cannot be definitely accepted even at this advance, but will only be accepted at the price prevailing at the time of shipment from England.

APOLLO CLUB'S CONCERT PLANS

The Apollo Club, an old Boston organization of 80 male voices, will open its forty-seventh season most auspiciously with a public concert in Symphony Hall, Boston, Nov. 13 at popular prices. Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano, of New York, is the assisting artist for this first concert. The club has added to its strength by the election of more active members, and the music committee has prepared a particularly interesting set of programs for the 1917-1918 season. The second concert will be given in Jordan Hall, Boston, Jan. 15th, with Mr. Carl Webster, cello, soloist. The third concert will be in Jordan Hall, March 5, with Miss Lina Conkling, soprano, of New York, and the last concert of the season will be given in Jordan Hall, April 16, with Mr. Alfred Holy, solo harpist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, assisting. During this season several of the active members of the club will be heard in solo numbers. This was formerly a feature of Apollo Club concerts and will be revived at the request of many associate members. Incidentally, there are still a few vacancies in the list of associate members who have the privilege of subscribing for season tickets, and the Secretary, Mr. Horace J. Phipps, 65 Bedford St., Boston, will be glad to hear from any who desire to obtain this privilege. Among the active members who will be heard in solo numbers this season are Messrs. Alessandro Alberini, Alfred F. Denghausen, Ralph L. Harlow, W. F. Smith, Philip Bruce and Walter H. Kidder. Mr. Denghausen has composed a stirring patriotic anthem which will be sung at the Symphony Hall concert. The officers of the Club are: President, Courtney Guild; Vice-President, H. C. Kennington; Secretary, Horace J. Phipps; Treasurer, Thomas H. Hall; Librarian, H. A. Dennison; Conductor, Emil Mollenhauer.

WOOL FUND ENTERTAINMENT

The West Newton Music School has undertaken to raise a certain sum in aid of the Wool Fund of the West Newton Branch of the Comforts Committee. It is hoped that the entertainment to be given at Players Hall on Friday evening, November 16, will bring in a sum that will allow the School to make contributions to other Wool Funds.

The entertainment will include a very pretty Cantata—"In a Summer"—which was given with success at the Vocational High School last Spring. Besides this, there will be musical selections given by pupils of the School, fancy dances given by young people of West Newton, and a group of patriotic songs, in which the audience will be asked to join, and which will be sung and played by the School's orchestra and chorus. In this group, a novelty will be the song, "America's Message," which has created much interest when given in other cities. The School gives the first two verses of the new song, and at the third verse the audience is asked to join with the familiar "America" to inspiring effect.

During an intermission and after the performance there will be dancing in the small hall. The performance will end at 9.30.

DRAFT BOARD

The name of Clifton H. Simms of 10 Clyde street, Newtonville, reported last week as one of the men who did not appear for the examination held last week Tuesday, was a clerical error. The name should have been Clifton H. Simons, and the Local Exemption Board had granted Mr. Simons permission to be examined elsewhere. The name should have been included in the "transferred" list.

Ernest L. Foley of Adams avenue has been discharged from service by District Board No. 5 on industrial grounds.

The name of Edward H. Bell, Jr., of Russell court has been placed on the qualified list.

The Local Exemption Board has been informed that the following men have entered the U. S. service: William J. O'Brien, 18 Jewett street; Joseph Bradley, 283 Cherry street; Edgar P. Freeman, Beecher place; John F. Doyle, Elliot street.

Donald Beecher of 112 Harvard street, who has just returned from France has registered.

NEWTON 25 YEARS AGO

From the Newton Graphic of Nov. 11, 1892

Newton gives Harrison & Reid 2416 votes and Cleveland and Stevenson 1673. Had the governor had 2278 votes, Russell, 1711. Dwight Chester with 2521 votes and E. J. H. Estabrooks with 2062 elected representatives. General W. F. Draper defeats Congressman Geo. Fred Williams.

The returns from Precinct 2 of Ward one were the last to reach City Hall, arriving at 7.10 Wednesday morning.

"The quiet of the morning after election was in marked contrast to the celebrations of some former years."

MCCARTHY-GRIFFIN

The marriage of Miss Alice Theresa Griffin of Central street, Hingham, Mass., and Mr. Charles Louis McCarthy of Cherry street, West Newton, was solemnized Wednesday evening, November 7, at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, Hingham, the Rev. Fr. Peter McCall officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Frances Elizabeth, and Arthur Robert McCarthy, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bridal gown was of white satin and tulle, a circle of orange blossoms caught back the folds of the long tulle veil. The bride carried a shower bouquet of roses and orchids. The maid of honor wore a gown of blue chiffon and picture hat of the same shade and carried Killarney roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, which was attended by the members of both families. Many beautiful presents were received. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy will make their home in Hingham.

MRS. ELMS DEAD

Mrs. Martha Jane (Hamblin) Elms, who died at her home on Arlington street, Newton, Monday, after an illness of several months, was the widow of James C. Elms for many years president of the Shoe and Leather National Bank of Boston. Mrs. Elms was born at St. Johns Newfoundland, in January, 1831, and was married to Mr. Elms June 5, 1853. She and her husband made their home first in Boston, but early moved to Newton, where they became active members of Grace Church. Mrs. Elms was the mother of ten children of whom five survive her. They are: Mrs. J. Alfred Tucker, Edward E. Elms and Miss Florence O. Elms of Newton; James C. Elms of Orange, N. J., and Franklin M. Elms of Montclair, N. J. Mrs. Elms is also survived by seven grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from her late residence on Arlington street, Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure, rector of Grace Church officiating, and the interment was at Forest Hills.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PATRIOTIC SERVICE

At Newton Centre M. E. Church, Sunday, November 18, at 7 P. M., The Epworth League will be in charge of the service, and will present a service flag to the Church. Dr. James E. Wagner, D. D., will speak on "Yoked-Up Folks", interesting, western frontier experiences. Everybody, especially young people, invited.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Gov. John Andrew Home Association will be held in Grand Army Hall, Walnut street, Newtonville, next Monday evening. Annual report of Treasurer. Election of Officers and Reports of Committees.

WHITE RIBBON HOME AT AYER

"White Ribbon Home" is the attractive name given to the house at Ayer which the War Welfare committee of the Massachusetts Woman's Christian Temperance Union has opened to help make the stay of the men in the training camp more pleasant. As soon as it was decided to have a cantonment in this section, the women began to plan to do their part. They had been knitting and making comfort bags, but the prospect of forty thousand men to be in camp in a town of about three thousand population offered an exceptional opportunity to do a very definite work for the boys.

One of the boys at Newport said that while the W. C. T. U. did the factoring, the W. C. T. U. did the mothering, which to a homesick homesick boy meant more than words could express. The W. C. T. U. often called organized mother-love, could easily anticipate what it would mean to the boys who would come from Christian and white ribbon homes to have a place open to them where they could not only enjoy reading, music and games, but would have the sympathy and encouragement of a motherly woman.

The members of the W. C. T. U. all over the state are giving generously to the needed funds, but they would like to give the public an opportunity to have a share in it.

If you would like to help, send your contribution to the treasurer of the West Newton W. C. T. U., Mrs. C. P. Earley, Elliot Ave., West Newton.

N. LOUISE RAND,

President of Middlesex Co.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Florence D. Moore to John T. Burns, dated September 18, 1912, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3725, Page 69, for breach of the conditions therein contained and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, upon the premises hereinafter described, on Saturday, the first day of December, 1917, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, namely: "a certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Newton known as Newtonville, in said County of Middlesex, being the southerly portion of lot numbered two (2) as shown on a plan made by H. T. Whitman, surveyor, dated December 1887 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Plan Book 64, Plan 24; and bounded and described as follows: Southerly on Highland Avenue sixty-one and twenty-four one hundredths feet (61 24/100), easterly on the westerly line of a passage way ninety-six and fifty-eight one hundredths (96 58/100) feet, northerly by the remaining portion of said lot numbered two (2) about sixty-one feet (61) and westerly by land now or formerly of Rollins, one hundred and forty-five one hundredths feet (145 1/100) or howsoever otherwise measured, bounded and described."

Said premises are conveyed subject to a mortgage for the principal sum of four thousand dollars ($4,000) given by Mary A. Downes to the Watertown Savings Bank, dated September 16, 1912 and to be recorded with said Middlesex South District Deeds. For my title see deed of Mary A. Downes to me to be recorded herewith.

Said premises will be sold subject to any unpaid taxes and assessments, $300.00 at the time and place of sale.

LOOSE—FROST

A notable social event of the past week in West Newton was the wedding on Saturday of Miss Eleanor Richards Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Frost, and Mr. Kenneth David Loose of New York, son of Mrs. David A. Loose of Tacoma, Washington.

The bride's residence on Chestnut street was decorated in a wedding color scheme of pink and white carried out effectively with pink and white chrysanthemums and roses. The spacious living-room which was devoted to the ceremony, was converted into a floral bower for the occasion and an improvised chancel was arranged at one end of the room. Large pink and white mums combined with festoons of southern smilax formed a floral canopy under which the bride party stood. An altar was formed by white pedestals joined with white satin ribbon and surmounted with clusters of white chrysanthemums, and as the bride procession assembled, Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Kanrich's Orchestra, and the Mendelssohn Wedding March was played as a recessional.

The ceremony was performed at four o'clock by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, and the bride was escorted by her father who gave her in marriage.

Her wedding robe was an exquisite creation of white chiffon velvet with silk embroidered bodice and skirt, which was worn by her mother and by her sister at their weddings. Her tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a full shower of white swansonia.

The bride was preceded by her little niece, Lois Wheeler Weeks of Chestnut Hill, as bridesmaid, who wore a dainty frock of pink chiffon cloth and carried a basket of pink sweet-heart roses, and the train-bearer was her cousin, Margery Fay of Brookline, who also wore pink chiffon.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Miles W. Weeks of Chestnut Hill, as bridesmaid, who was groomed beautifully in pink satin with silver lace; she wore a hat of silver lace combined with violet velvet, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and violets.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Roswell C. Tripp, of Port Chester, New York, as best man, and the ring bearer was a nephew, Mr. Miles W. Weeks of Camp Devens, Ayer, Mr. Donald F. Tripp of New York, Mr. Harold D. Walker, and Mr. Robert Boggs of Boston.

The ceremony was attended only by the relatives and a few intimate friends, but a large reception was held at half after four, and in the evening the bride and bridegroom were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Loose, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Jessie Loose of Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. Frost wore a handsome gown of gray velvet with trimmings of black fur, and carried a bouquet of violets and gardenias, and Mrs. Loose was attractively gowned in plum colored chiffon, and also carried violets and gardenias.

A wedding supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated in yellow, with clusters of pom pom chrysanthemums.

The orchestra played during the reception and also for the dancing which followed.

Over a hundred guests of social prominence were present from New York, Washington, Boston, Brookline and the Newtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Loose will reside at 123 East 53rd street, New York City, where they will be at home after January 1st, 1918.

BRAE BURN CLUB

Brae Burn was well represented at the Army and Navy Football and Athletic games at the Stadium and Harvard Stadium, about 300 members and their friends being present. Mr. William F. Garcelon and Mr. Harry L. Ayer, members of the Army and Navy Athletic Equipment Committee, were actively engaged in making it a success, and the sum of $9000.00 was netted, which will be used for the benefit of the Athletic Equipment Committee for men in the Army and Navy in camps in Massachusetts.

Among the members of Brae Burn who subscribed for tickets were Mr. Frank J. Hale, Mr. Edward B. Stratton, Mr. George Walker, Mr. Harry Dana Priest, Mr. H. P. Bradford, Mr. George J. Farrington, Mr. Howard Gilmore, Mr. Prescott Warren, Mr. E. Irving Locke, Mr. Donald M. Hill, Mr. H. C. Hopewell, Mr. George J. Loveley, Mr. William B. Merrill, Mr. F. E. Raymond, Mr. J. E. Rothwell, Mr. Clarence C. Smith, Mr. V. C. Stanley, Mr. William M. Flanders, Mr. J. B. Stiles, Mr. W. H. Thayer, Mr. S. G. Ward, Mr. Robert K. Johnson, and the office force at Brae Burn was among those who assisted at the Stadium.

Dr. George E. May of Newton Centre entertained about sixty physicians at a dinner and meeting at Brae Burn on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Howard Emerson of Montvale road, Newton Centre, is a guest for a few months at the Club.

Mrs. William H. Lucas has returned to Brae Burn for the winter season.

NEW ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

Governor McCall surprised the residents of this city by sending to the Executive Council on Wednesday the name of Mr. W. Lloyd Allen of Newtonville as an Associate Judge for the Newton Police Court.

Mr. Allen is a comparative newcomer to this city and has resided on Rossmore street for about three years. He was born January 20, 1888, and educated in the Boston public schools, and graduated from Yale college in 1909, the Boston University Law school in 1910 and admitted to the bar the same year. He is associated with the law firm of Saltonstall, Dodge and Carter. Mr. Allen is an instructor in the Boston University Law school a lecturer in the B. Y. M. A. Evening Law school, a director of the Newton Club, a member of the Haverly and Albemarle Golf Clubs, the Boston City Club, Boston Bar Association, the Masons an ad of the Sons of the American Revolution. He is also chairman of the Republican city committee of Ward 2.

State Guard Not Always Available

It is for this reason that the State Guard has been organized, one company of which has been raised in Newton. It is, however, well understood that the State Guard alone does not furnish protection equivalent to that which was available before the outbreak of the war. On this account it has been found necessary to establish auxiliary forces in the various cities and towns under the command of the municipal authorities, to supplement the State Guard and to furnish protection at home in case the State Guard is called to some other point in the state.

Place for Constabulary

It is as such an auxiliary force that the Newton Constabulary has been established. It is organized on military lines, but is under the command of the mayor and the chief of police and its members are sworn in as special police officers. They meet one evening a week, but attendance at every meeting, though desired, is not compulsory. The members are trained in the use of the weapons that they are likely to have to use, and are taught enough of the rudiments of military drill to enable them to act as an organized body. Each member, on joining the organization, agrees in case of emergency to perform such duties as he may be called upon by the Mayor to perform for the protection of the city. It is intended that the organization will be large that except in case of an extreme emergency the duties will be divided among the men of the different companies and that no man will be called upon for active duty for more than one day at a time.

Other Newton Villages Awake

The men of the other villages of Newton have appreciated the need of such an organization and have turned out in ample numbers. Newton Centre, Newton Highlands, Chestnut Hill, Waban, Auburndale, West Newton and Newtonville have all furnished well drilled, well armed and well disciplined companies and the men in the unit from our own village have had the humiliation of being outnumbered at parades and regimental drills more than three to one by the companies from less populous and it had been supposed, less enterprising villages. Various reasons have been assigned for Newton's poor showing, but the principal one is that the objects of the organization have never been fully explained to the people of Newton, and they have been allowed to suppose that its only reason for existence was to furnish an outlet for the military enthusiasm of its members, or, at most, to suppress possible outbreaks of German Americans, the danger of which has long since passed.

Newton Corner Men to the Front

It is probable that the existence of such an organization as the Newton Constabulary will in itself prevent any serious outbreaks in our city, but to keep it in existence requires the giving of some time and effort by its members; and if it is needed in actual cases it will be needed quickly and needed badly. Somebody has got to do the work, and it certainly seems that in view of the spirit in which thousands of our young men have offered the whole of their time and labor, and possibly their lives, to the government, and in which hundreds of the older men have given days, weeks and months to uncompensated public service in the present crisis, it is not asking too much of the men who are doing nothing else to help out during the present war that will interfere with such service to give up one evening a week to prepare themselves to take part in the protection of their own city and their own homes during the period of the war.

The Newton unit of the Constabulary has been re-organized and is proposed to take a fresh start and recruit the company up to its proper numbers. It is certainly to be hoped for the sake of the reputation of the people of our section of Newton for patriotism and willingness to make some sacrifice for the public needs that the effort will not fail.

DEATH OF MRS. NAYLOR

Mrs. Ethel A. Naylor, the wife of Dr. Leslie H. Naylor of Hunnewell avenue, Newton, died on Monday at the Newton Hospital after a few weeks illness, following the recent birth of a son. Mrs. Naylor was in her thirty eighth year and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Moore of Oakleigh road, Newton. She was a native and life long resident of this city. Mrs. Naylor was an active worker in the Immanuel Baptist Church and had many friends who will mourn her early death. Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter and two sons.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at her late home on Hunnewell avenue and the house was thronged with her many friends and bright with their floral offerings. The services were in charge of Rev. Harrie R. Chamberlin, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church and the burial was in Newton Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs Carl F. Stanley, Elmer L. Gibbs, Frank W. Chase and Dr. Henry C. Spencer of Newton and P. S. Cunniff and John W. Allen of Watertown.

CONCERT

A Benefit Concert in aid of the Honor Roll Boys of the Newtonville Methodist Church was held Thursday evening in the auditorium.

A very fine program was presented by the Glee Club Orchestra and choir which included, "On to Plattsburg" by the Orchestra and Glee Club; "Marching" by the Glee Club; "Contralto solo by Mrs. Jeanette Hall; "Souvenir" and Viennese Popular Song, by Mr. V. C. Brink; "Keep the Home Fires Burning" by the Boys Glee Club; "Carolina, Carolina" by the Boys Glee Club; "Winter Song" by the Glee Club; "Ghost Dance" by the Orchestra. Vocal selections by the Church quartet, Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. Hall, Mr. Whiting, and Mr. Somers. "Whistling Solo" by Miss Daisy Pillman; group of songs, "Tommy Lad" and "Mother Machree" by Mr. Ralph H. Somers. "Viking Song" by the Glee Club, and "Stars and Stripes" by the Orchestra. There was a large and enthusiastic audience.

NEWTON'S RED CROSS.

Newton Red Cross Knitters are reminded that there are still 6600 out of the 38,000 men at Ayer who have not been supplied with sweaters. As the days grow colder the need of sweaters by the men who have none is more and more keenly felt. Way back in the summer upon the people of Newton the need of a generous wool fund in order that all our men might be made comfortable before cold weather set in. The only thing to do now is to forward sweaters as fast as possible and for those who can do so to send in now contributions to the Wool Fund. Checks should be made out to George Royal Pulsifer, Treasurer of the Newton Red Cross, Newtonville.

The Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross has been asked to furnish 15,000 more Christmas bags and a limited number of bags for filling may be had of the Newton Branch of the Red Cross by applying at the headquarters at the Newton Club. The Metropolitan Chapter invites volunteers to the Chapter rooms in Boston to help in filling the bags.

If you are a knitter have you knit and sent in to the Red Cross a pair of socks? There is a great demand for them and they are being issued to the men who are to leave for France just as fast as they are received. Giving them out to the men on this side of the ocean saves the work of sending them to the other side and distributing them there. The call for socks is also another call for contributions to the Wool Fund of the Newton Branch of the Red Cross.

Every woman in every one of the villages of Newton is asked to help in making of surgical dressings. The call for them is more and more insistent. Find out where the work of making is carried on in your village and do your part to make the supply sufficient to meet the demand.

In the latest ranking of the branches of the Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross, Newton again stands first in the amount of work done and first in work and membership combined. In actual scoring Newton and Somerville are tied for first place but since Somerville is the larger city and Newton did more work though Somerville made the larger gain in membership, Newton is ranked first. Those who are not now members of the Newton Red Cross are urged to send in their dollar for membership and a Red Cross button in order that at the next ranking Newton may lead in every way. Send your dollar to George Royal Pulsifer, Treasurer of the Newton Branch of the Red Cross, Newtonville.

In a week or two the Newton Red Cross hopes to be able to make an announcement that will interest every member in Newton and every member in the Metropolitan district. Newton's Red Cross is planning for a busy and active winter.

THE PLAYERS.

That well known Newton amateur organization, The Players gave its 71st series of plays this week at Players Hall, West Newton, presenting the Harvard Prize play "The End of the Bridge" on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings to crowded houses. In the cast were Miss Helen Ganse, E. Irving Locke, W. V. V. Marsh, Waldo Glidden, Franklin W. Ganse, Miss Caroline L. Freeman and Mrs. Francis W. Davis. Ex-Mayor Charles E. Hatfield was stage manager, with Frederick F. Parker as his assistant. The ushers were Arthur G. Hosmer, Roland F. Gammons, Joseph B. Ross and Alfred T. Thayer.

NEWTON CHRISTIAN FORUM

Dr. Talcott Williams Gives Interesting Address on the German Government

The second meeting of the Newton Christian Forum was held last Sunday afternoon at Eliot Church, which was well filled by a representative audience attracted by the speaker, Dr. Talcott Williams of Columbia University, and his subject "Why we are at War with the Imperial German Government". While Dr. Williams gave a most interesting address on the German system of government, he hardly touched upon the reason why this country was at war. He said in part: "The emphasis, he said, should be placed on the 'Imperial German government' because it represents the principle of autocracy, being opposed by democracy. 22 kings, princes, etc., chose the German Kaiser, the people were not consulted. All power is vested in the Bundesrath, the upper house of the German empire, and its three score members represent the 22 kings who select them. It meets in secret and its debates are not published. The system means that the power of government is concentrated in the hands of a small ruling class, and the royal family of about 400 persons, thinks it is set apart with special rights and privileges. Such a system denies the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man and substitutes a group detached from all moral responsibilities. It deadens moral feeling and has led to the belief that Germany should be greater than free and that might makes right. It has led to the material growth of Germany in which the ruling class has had its share of profits, and the Kaiser is one of the shareholders in the Krupp works and has had his profits in the munitions and preparations for war. Germany had 12,500,000 rifles, ammunition and equipment when it entered the war and planned to be in Paris in one month. In London in three months and within a half a year to make America pay the cost of the war by seizing its ports. Nothing but the battle of the Marne and the troops of France and England has prevented the war from being on the Charles and on the Hudson.

This special privileged class made for unfair competition in trade because the governed class were sharing in the profits and they could be increased thru the use of political power. Germany saw France prosperous and free, the Balkan states were laying the foundations of liberty and Germany was the enemy of every movement for liberty in the world for it is impossible for an autocracy not to be predatory and whenever America interested itself in the government for liberty it found Germany in its path. The Armenian massacres were planned in Berlin and Germany prevented the other powers from policing that unhappy country. This war was planned not merely to extend its boundaries but to add to the personal profits of its ruling class, and the one place you never see their names in is the list of those killed in battle.

The two great English speaking peoples are now gathered for the death of autocracy and injustice, let no suffering or sacrifice be too great to ransom humanity.

The usual number of questions were asked Dr. Williams and his replies showed a wide knowledge of the subject. He stated that the U boat menace was not the cause of the war, but was merely the occasion for it.

He believed that German money was opening a path in Northern Italy and told how it had been used in Roumania last December. The Canadian government found $11,000,000 in German money in Canadian banks in 1914 and believed we would be appalled at the facts in this country if we knew them.

If the State Department had kept back any facts, he believed it had been done in the interests of peace for it would have been impossible to have restrained the people of this country, if some of them had been made known earlier.

The Democratic forces he declared are united in this war. He had addressed a body of drafted men recently in Danbury Conn., men of all nationalities and found that there were no men more anxious to help in the war than those who have come to us from across the water.

He said that the destiny of the United States was in the hand of President Wilson and that there never was a man more free from the corruption of all material things in this world. Washington is not controlled by the great corporations and has never done so much to curb and restrain great wealth.

Members of the Reichstag, the lower house of Germany are elected by manhood suffrage from districts which have not been changed since 1870. They do not represent the German people and have no power of government.

In answer to the query, that if the church allows lectures on war, where shall we go to hear the Gospel, Dr. Williams advised his audience to read 1st Samuel and the 10th chapter of Mark, which he said were the corner stone of democracy. He commended the last command of Jesus, when he told his disciples that if they hadn't a sword to sell their coat and buy one. He believed in a Peace society headed by General Pershing.

To a question as to the 10 Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount he advised the enforcement of the sixth commandment. "Thou shalt not kill" so that no nation should set the Commandments at naught and hope that when it was all over the United States should lead in the role of "Blessed are the Peacemakers."

He had reason to believe that food sent to prisoners in Germany actually reached them.

To the query if Germany could win, he replied that Germany could not win if America does its duty by freedom and justice.

Mr. Arthur L. Spring preceded Dr. Williams and made an eloquent plea for large contributions to the Red Triangle fund.

The next Forum will be held at Eliot Church on Sunday Dec. 9th, when Mr. Hamilton Holt will speak on "Commercialism and Journalism."

—The Tobacco Fund still needs a few more dollar bills. Send them to the Graphic office.

HOSPITAL WEEK

President W. C. Bray States the Work and Needs of the Newton Hospital

At a meeting held last week Thursday evening at the Brae Burn Country Club, at which about fifty representative men of the city were present, President William C. Bray gave an interesting report of the work of the Newton hospital and plans were made for obtaining contributions towards the expenses of this valuable institution.

Instead of the usual arrangement for contributions to be taken on Hospital Sunday, a thorough canvass of the entire city will be made during the week of November 18-25, when it is hoped that subscriptions at the rate of $4,000 per month will be obtained.

President Bray said:—

It is not necessary to tell a long story of the Hospital; conditions call for action rather than for words—and besides this, the residents of Newton are acquainted with its history. Reference will be made to some of the earlier days but only to throw light on steps which have been taken. Difficulties were evidently experienced thirty-five years ago as they are experienced today in securing adequate funds, and so the City was asked for help in 1887—$1000.00 was contributed. A like amount was given for three years, then $1500.00 for three years, then $3000.00, $4000.00, $5000.00, $7500.00 and finally $10,000.00. This last contribution was made in 1896. No further help has been received from the City and the decision that payments could not be legally made except for service rendered was a forerunner of the recent constitutional amendment.

At different times, by different bodies, the question has been considered as to whether or not the Hospital should be made one of the City institutions, but after each discussion only one conclusion has been reached—better service can be rendered through private control. The whole atmosphere of the institution would be changed if it were managed on a purely institutional basis.

During the years which have passed property which is worth about $275,000 has been accumulated and an Endowment Fund of about $220,000 has been created. Even in the years of greatest need the citizens as a whole have borne a very small part of the expenses. Of the twenty odd buildings only seven have been built by the Corporation. Nine stand to the credit of individuals, three to the City of Newton, and one to the Hospital Aid Association. Of the sixteen acres of land, seven have been contributed by individuals.

During the year ending August 31, 1917, 2406 patients were treated—an increase of 251 over any preceding year. This number does not include the out-patients or the children in the Orthopedic Clinic.

Of the 2406 patients about 1400 were treated in the public wards. The average amount paid in the general public wards was $8.63 per patient per week or $12.71 less than the actual cost. Of the 5146 weeks' treatment, 24 per cent was rendered free, 60 per cent at less than cost and on only 16 per cent was there a profit.

The Hospital was established because of an individual need and it is probable that there was little thought of any service other than that to be given to the sick or injured who were not in a position to meet the expense. As the years passed new lines of work were undertaken; the Training School for nurses became an important factor, and its influence has been felt in

The Local Exemption board has been busy this week arranging the 3430 registrants in this city according to marriage relations, place of nativity, and character of occupations. This work being preparatory to the new regulations which will govern the next selective draft.

The following names have been added to the Newton list:

3429 George W. Bakeman 1381A
3430 Donald Belcher, Harvard St. 1431A

John A. Urquhart, Oakwood avenue, has been examined by the board at Evanston, Ill., and his claim for exemption allowed.

John T. Mendenhall of Adams avenue, who was examined by the Swapsport board has also been discharged from service.

The following men have been found to be in the service:

2700 Paul Hatch, 123 Grant 718
3228 Edward Kelley, 308 Centre 709
The Local Board has acted on and allowed the following claims for exemptions:

2143 George L. Edwards, 31 Summer 733
2409 Harold J. Diekle, 429 Parker 737
3005 Clarence Tormine, 40 White 739

1415 James F. McGlinchey, Jr., 335 754
1059 James V. Martin, 185 Chapel 774

Dennis M. Cronin, formerly assistant train dispatcher at Boston for the Boston & Albany system, and who went to Camp Devens with the first 40 per cent of the draft from Newton, has been appointed 1st battalion sergeant of the 301st Field Artillery. He is also acting as stenographer to Col. Brooke and Capt. Sanderson, the adjutant. Mr. Cronin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cronin of 18 Nonantum street, Newton.

Lawrence R. Murphy, a former employee of the Street and Playground departments of this city, is now in the Quartermaster Department at Camp Gordon, Ga., having been transferred from Camp Devens, Ayer. He was one of the young men who left Newton in the second 40 per cent of the draft on Oct. 5, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Murphy of 91 Crafts street, Newtonville.

FOR THE WOOL FUND

An entertainment will be given this evening in Players Hall, West Newton by the pupils of the West Newton Music School for the benefit of the Navy Wool Fund. The entertainment is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Fyffe, with the dancing under the direction of Mrs. A. S. Woods.

Some fine Navy Posters will be sold at auction at the entertainment to be given by the West Newton Music School this evening, November 16. Mr. Arthur G. Hosmer will act as auctioneer. The proceeds will go to swell the sum it is hoped that the entertainment will bring, for free wool for Navy knitters.

Dancing after the performance. Come early and join in the Patriotic Songs at the beginning of the program.

NEW HOME

Newton Branch of Red Cross Changes Its Headquarters in Newtonville

Dr. George H. Talbot has made it possible for the Newton Branch of the Red Cross to have a home for its headquarters and also a place where its Newtonville activities may be housed under one roof. Dr. Talbot has given the use of his house at 306 Walnut street, Newtonville, to the Red Cross reserving for himself only the office.

The house is an ideal situation for the headquarters of the Newton Branch as it is centrally located, near the Newtonville station of the Boston and Albany railroad and also near Newtonville square where the street car lines that reach to all parts of the city connect with one another. The settling of the problem of a home for the headquarters will also enable the officers to give attention to the work of strengthening and coordinating the groups which are carrying on Red Cross work in different parts of the city. One other thing it does is to enable the society to make announcements that the exhibition of posters designed for it by Newton artists will be opened in the house probably on the first of December, though more definite announcement will be made next week. The headquarters offices will be under the charge of Mrs. Marcus Morton, who has accepted election to the secretaryship resigned by Mrs. Harry D. Priest, and by Miss Edith Fisher the assistant secretary and Miss Dorothy Clark the assistant treasurer, and Miss Gladys Cornish office assistant. The work of the Newtonville auxiliary to the Red Cross, which will be carried on in the house, will be under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden and all Newtonville women are invited to enlist as helpers as the calls for surgical dressings are becoming insistent demands.

MR. AUGUSTINE JONES.

Mr. Augustine Jones, of Lincoln street, was given a surprise by the members of his Bible Class on Wednesday afternoon.

Opening remarks were made by Mrs. W. D. Eagles, after which, in behalf of the class she presented a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums in appreciation of his faithfulness as a teacher and to commemorate his fiftieth wedding anniversary. An original poem, written for the occasion was read by the author, Mrs. Maria D. Wiswell.

After very touching remarks, Mr. Jones spoke of his recent trip West.

The dining room was prettily arranged, a beautiful cake decorated with orange blossoms being the centre of attraction. After refreshments were served the gathering closed by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The occasion is one that will long be remembered by the class.

Mayor Childs, in presenting the discharges to the boys, said in part:—That our value to society is largely determined by our willingness to serve. The need of work at home is equal with the need of men on the firing line, and it is said that in many respects the emphasis is shifted from bullets to bread, and the call it makes for workers. We honor the young men who answered to that call for they have done what they have in the spirit of a patriot. The same spirit that carried us thru the revolution, that sustained us in the Civil War and in the war of 1898, and the spirit that will win this present war to make the world safe for democracy. The call comes to all, to the man in purple, and to the man who knows not where he can find food for his family, and we all of us must be either slackers or patriots.

Honorable discharges were then presented by the Mayor to the following boys:

HONORABLY DISCHARGED

Newton High School Boys Commended for Summer Work on Farms

Seventy-five Newton High School boys were honorably discharged last Wednesday morning from the service for the state, during the summer, when they were mobilized for farm work at Camp Dean, Weston, Mass., Camp Newton, Walpole, N. H., and from individual farms thruout New England. Each boy received a formal discharge signed by Governor McCall and Mr. James J. Storrow, the chairman of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety.

The assembly hall of the Newton High School was crowded to the doors early Wednesday morning, with all the boys enrolled in the three High Schools. On the stage with Headmaster E. C. Adams, Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Sgt. U. G. Wheeler, Mr. William M. Flanders, chairman of the Food Conservation Committee of the Newton Safety Committee, Mr. Horace Kidger, and Mr. E. E. Williams.

After the singing of the national anthem, Mr. Adams read a highly commendatory letter regarding the two Newton camps from the executive secretary of the Mass. Committee, who expressed the hope that there would be 50 similar camps next year. Mr. Flanders was the first speaker and paid a high tribute to the work of the teachers as well as that of the students in food conservation. He was personally very proud of the splendid work that had been done at these camps, and believed that even if there had been no food produced the gain to ourselves had been well worth the effort.

Sgt. Wheeler said that it was easy to be a hero amid the inspiration and cheers of our friends, but every day tasks do not usually invite many thrills. You boys will not be asked to enlist, but it is your duty to prepare yourselves for what may be in store in the future. The slacker in war service is not popular, and the slacker in school work should be equally unpopular.

Mr. C. D. Meserve was received with great enthusiasm and his brief remarks were of great interest. He said that when the work on farms was contemplated, there was no thought of prizes, but Mr. Edgar J. Leonard of the High School class of 1899, had donated some money for the purpose and the committee had awarded prizes of ten dollar gold pieces to Warren K. Brimblecom of Camp Dean and Austin C. Eaton of Camp Newton for being the best all round and most generally helpful boys in each Camp, and to Mianese Gullian of Camp Dean and Albert M. Hunt, on the basis of general efficiency, helpfulness in camp and showing the greatest development during the camp life. The boys were given the school cheer after they had received the prizes.

Mayor Childs, in presenting the discharges to the boys, said in part:—That our value to society is largely determined by our willingness to serve. The need of work at home is equal with the need of men on the firing line, and it is said that in many respects the emphasis is shifted from bullets to bread, and the call it makes for workers. "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" "War Time Service."

There has likely never been a period in our history when above quotation was driven home more forcibly than now. The Government, Merchant, and individual have given and supplied generously, so that now (in many instances) we are facing a real shortage of food supplies in our home markets and the end of self denials and sacrifices is not yet in sight.

Any Merchant who seeks to make more than an honest profit, who capitalizes the Nation's difficulties, is pursuing a policy which lends assistance to the Enemy, and is a traitor to his Country's Needs. ECONOMY WITHOUT SACRIFICE

Just two ways, one is to use less of that which is expensive, the other is to use a less expensive article.

Jersey Sweet Potatoes 3c lb., 9 lbs. for 25c. Cheaper than regular Potatoes. Costs less than flour, buy plenty, use freely.

OLEOMARGARINE, NUT OLEOMARGARINE. Costs within 2-3 of Butter and may be used wherever butter has been, with same amount of nourishment. Every ingredient of Oleomargarine is a food used daily in its original form on the tables of every family on the face of the globe.

It is made from Oleo Oil (beef fat) the kind that appears around the under side of a Porter House or Sirloin Steak—that which you call for your Suet Pudding, Nutral (the best grade of pure leaf lard) Peanut Oil (pressed from the selected nut), Cream from pastured and inspected milk. Nut Oleomargarine minus the animal fat. Include a pound in your order; know its value and goodness.

Many of the Cheaper Cuts of Meat contain more nourishment than so called best cuts and when properly prepared and served just as palatable and attractive. Boneless round (solid meat) 22-25-28 lb., Shoulder Clods 18-22-25 lb., Face rump 28-30-32 lb., Beef 20-25-30 lb., Soup or Stock Marrow bones 3c lb., Beef Shanks 2c to 15c lb., Stew Beef 18-22c lb.

Colder Weather Suggests More Soups, Stews, Pot Roasts, Etc. VEGETABLES ARE LOW and warrant a New England boiled dinner once a week. Our corned beef is so good that many are now skipping Thursday (regular N. E. boiled dinner day) and ordering for Sunday when all are home to the noon meal to enjoy it. Flanks whole 12-14c lb., cut 15c, Thin rib, Navel Ends 10-18c lb., Middle rib, Boneless stickers 20-22c lb., Briskets, Thick Plate, Lean Ends 15 to 30c lb., E. Cure, cut and made on the premises.

OUR NOW POPULAR SIRLOIN ROLL tenderloin (no waste) 30-32-35c lb. We will have enough to go around Saturday, last week demand exceeded supply.

Legs Winter Lamb 25c lb., Fore Quarters Winter Lamb 16c lb., Spring Lamb sides 28c lb., Spring Lamb hinds 30c lb., Spring Lamb loins 30c lb. Economy and Nourishment in a Fore Quarter Spring Lamb 25c lb., solid meat for roast, bones-trimmings for Stew, Rump and legs of Veal cut any size 18 to 28c lb.

MARKET LOWER on Fowl, Chickens, Pork, Fresh and Smoked Shoulders. A SUGGESTION to any who found it difficult to "get in" over our lines last Saturday. Anticipate your order Friday and call it in. Open until 6:15 P. M. Friday.

Mothers Appreciate

Having the Children's Pictures taken at home—and by a woman. It is far easier than taking the children to the Photographer. After the nap is the best time for little ones. They come down stairs rested, and are fresh in their little dresses, to play with their new friend who seems to know how to go about playing in just the way that helps to get the kind of pictures the family have always wanted.

If you will talk with MISS FOLGER over the telephone at N. N. 1245-W, or personally at 429 Centre St., Newton, she will help you plan for the best time to have the pictures taken.

Now Not Two Unavoidables but One Taxes at Death

Inheritance taxes are upsetting all the carefully laid plans of men of means.

Their dilemma is this:

Shall bequests to children, mother, friend, or cherished philanthropy be decreased or Shall special funds in ready cash be provided?

Some men of insurable age are choosing life insurance.

Others regardless of age or insurability are solving their problems by the purchase of annuities for present legatees.

Fifteen minutes by appointment might help you to decide whether either method is useful for you.

Science and Art Have Given the World a New and Greater Phonograph—The AEOLIAN-VOCALION

"You may PLAY this wonderful phonograph. Each delicate, true tone is your own—you may mould it, shade it, as you will."

SILVER tones, golden tones, velvet tones ring from the throat of this AEOLIAN-VOCALION—limpid, pure—truest replicas of the glorious sounds that left their images graven upon the record.

No tone so big, none so full-colored, no whispering pianissimo so exquisite but may find their perfect repetition in this new musical instrument, product of music's art and music's science.

Science alone has never been able to achieve the perfection of the phonograph. For a quarter century the talking machine has been slowly taking form in the laboratory. But science has its limitations. Science may analyze a Stradivarius, a mellow-colored painting, a Kipling tale—but it cannot re-create them. That is the task of art, and it has remained for art to give the talking machine its final form.

This Company, as the world's largest makers of musical instruments, has been ideally equipped to bring the new and perfecting element into the development of this wonderful machine, and we have created—as a result of this combining of art and science—an absolutely new instrument, a true musical instrument—THE VOCALION, a phonograph of novel and greater powers.

We want you to know this beautiful instrument and we invite you to come in to see it—to play it—to enjoy and become acquainted with its remarkable musical capacity. A visit to the VOCALION Salons entails no obligation. You are always welcome regardless of whether or not you come with the intention of purchase.

THE MARVEL OF COMPLETE TONE-CONTROL

It is too much to ask of you to analyze and appreciate in advance of personal experience the delightful pleasure of using the exquisite VOCALION tone virtually as if it were your own voice. Through the Gradual—the revolutionary VOCALION expression device—every tone responds to your thought, to your desire.

The pleasure of the musician as well as the pleasure of the listener—ALL the pleasures that music can give—are placed within your grasp by this marvel of complete tone-control.

Mrs. Alvin Henry Clifford, president and the officers of the Newton Woman's Club gave a delightful reception to members and their friends at Mrs. Clifford's home on Centre street, Newton, Thursday afternoon. In the receiving line were Mrs. H. A. Young, Mrs. O. Ohlson, Miss Rudick, Mrs. F. B. Jenkins, and Mrs. Frederic Graves.

The ushers were Mrs. Paul Clifford, Mrs. D. H. Chamberlin, Mrs. Cressy, Mrs. W. H. Allen, Mrs. E. C. Anthony, Mrs. Ratcliffe, and Mrs. Wheeler presided in the dining-room and were assisted by Miss Jones, Miss Charlotte Baker, and Miss Margaret Jenkins.

The Club has given each year a substantial sum toward a scholarship at Wellesley College for the benefit of a Newton girl. This year the donation will be for War Relief and the Club has plans for a very active year with this object in view.

NEW DISTRICT MANAGER FOR TELEPHONE COMPANY

In accordance with the policy of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in establishing closer public relations with its subscribers, a new district, to be known as the West Suburban District, comprising the following exchanges of the Metropolitan Division: Brighton, Brookline, Jamaica Plain, Bellevue, Cambridge, Newton South, Newton North, Newton West, Needham, Watertown (as included in Newton North) and Wellesley, has been established by the Company. John C. Carragher, a practical telephone man with a wide knowledge of the telephone business, particularly along commercial lines, has been appointed as West Suburban District Manager. Mr. Carragher received his education in the public schools of South Boston and in the Boston Latin School. He entered the employ of the Telephone Company in 1904, and during his thirteen years of service has had experience in practically all departments.

MR. CROSSETT IN NEWTON

A big patriotic meeting will be held in the Eliot church, next Sunday evening, at 7:30, the five local churches cooperating. The meeting is in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. campaign for $35,000,000. Newton people will have an opportunity to hear the thrilling war story of Mr. Lewis A. Crossett, who is to be the speaker. Mr. Crossett's description of life and service in the trenches is one of the most graphic and fascinating reports that has been given. Mr. Crossett is a member of the Executive Committee of the War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., and went to France several months ago to study conditions and get information for use in the present campaign. His own exhausting work in the interest of the campaign, since he returned to this country, and his personal gift of $50,000 to the fund leaves no doubt as to his self sacrifice in the interest of his great and necessary work to its end of winning the war.

COPLY THEATRE—The coming of winter finds "The Man Who Stayed at Home" as popular as ever at the Copley Theatre.

Steadily has it grown in public favor since its opening week last June. Each month has brought more and more people to see it and to be pleased with its stirring incidents of life in an English seashore village at the beginning of the war, and to enjoy the many comedy moments with which its more exciting scenes are varied.

Next Monday "The Man Who Stayed at Home" begins its sixth month at the Copley Theatre. It is rapidly breaking all records for Boston runs. No play, however, has had as it has had, such a career that has included the summer months. Its success is due partly to its timeliness, partly to its thrilling plot, and partly to its acting by the Henry Jewett Players, who are giving it one of the most finished interpretations of a play ever seen on the Boston stage.

EIGHT WAYS TO SAVE GASOLINE

Automobile clubs are getting after the "gasoline slacker," and the following eight rules have been prepared for the guidance of motorists who wish to be economical by Mancius S. Hutton, laboratory engineer of the Automobile Club of America:

1. Do not allow the engine to run idle, except when absolutely necessary.
2. Run the car on a lean mixture.
3. Prevent leaks in the gasoline line, and shut off gasoline at the tank whenever possible.
4. Keep the motor free of carbon. A carbonized motor is a large consumer of fuel.
5. Change gears more frequently in order to run the engine at high, economical, and efficient speed.
6. Keep the moving parts well lubricated.
7. Keep tires properly inflated.
8. Use kerosene for cleaning instead of gasoline.

THE RED TRIANGLE FUND

The Newton campaign for the Y. M. C. A. War Work is in full swing, every part of the city being covered by the canvassers. Yesterday afternoon a report from some, but not all, of the villages showed a total then subscribed of $41,270. Some of this was from money subscribed in Boston by Newton people, but credited to this city. In this connection it may be well to remind those who give through trade organizations or otherwise in Boston that upon request the amount so given will be credited to Newton. As this city has been allotted $75,000, it is important that it receive credit for subscriptions by Newton people wherever and however made.

Last Sunday was generally observed by the churches throughout the city as Red Triangle Sunday and the cause was commended by the clergymen. Red Triangle literature and pledge cards were generally distributed. Practically every gathering of men and women in Newton this week is addressed by some one in favor of the cause and the response is cordial and widespread, the women being fully as much interested as the men.

Some people are giving a portion of the Liberty Bonds for which they subscribed to the Y. M. C. A. One man, for instance, who had two bonds, remarked that he would go "50-50," keeping one himself and turning the other over to help the boys in the army and navy.

The city is beginning to realize that to contribute to this fund is to join in the fight against evil and loneliness in camp and trench and to take a part in keeping our own boys well and contented. Viewed in this light it seems hardly possible for any one to withhold any help that he can give.

In most of the villages the canvassing is being done by committees organized especially for the purpose; but Newtonville is trying the experiment of doing it through the local co-terminous company and all the members of the latter have taken hold of the work with enthusiasm and that village is being combed with a fine tooth comb.

The girls and the teachers at Lasell Seminary have raised about $1,750 for the cause, which certainly speaks for their patriotism and generosity. If any one wishes to give and is missed by canvassers, he can obtain full information by telephoning the Secretary of the General Committee, Mr. F. L. Richardson, at the Newton Trust Company.

DEATH OF MRS. EDDY.

Mrs. Georgianna Winslow Eddy, widow of Caleb F. Eddy, died on Tuesday at her home at No. 400 Cherry street, West Newton, at the age of seventy-four years, following failing health throughout the past year. She had been for the past half century a resident of West Newton, where she was well known. Mrs. Eddy was born in Fall River and her maiden name was Georgianna Winslow. She was a descendant of the family of which Governor Winslow of early Massachusetts history was a notable figure.

Miss Winslow was married in Fall River to Caleb F. Eddy, who died about six years ago. In West Newton, Mrs. Eddy had been a member of the Second Congregational Church, and outside of its affiliations she devoted herself to her home life in the bringing up of a family of twelve children, all of whom survive her. They are: George W. Eddy, of West Newton; Mrs. Breck, wife of Dr. Samuel Breck, of Boston, who formerly was Miss Louisa M. Eddy; Mrs. Henry L. Whitteley, of West Newton, who before her marriage was Miss Lillian G. Eddy; Clinton L. Eddy, of West Newton; Fred W. Eddy, of Chatham, Frank S. Eddy, of Wellesley; Miss Bessie Eddy and Miss Bertha Eddy, of West Newton; Clifford R. Eddy, also of West Newton; Mrs. Robert A. Dean, of Fall River, who was Miss Marion Eddy; Mrs. Thomas Almy, also of Fall River, formerly Miss Katherine C. Eddy, and Miss Ruth W. Eddy.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at her late home on Cherry street, the Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church, officiating, and the interment was at the Newton Cemetery.

CHAMBERLAIN-BOUYE.

Miss Mildred Bouye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Chamberlain, of Newton Highlands, was married on Friday evening, November 9, to Mr. Ralph T. Chamberlain, son of Mrs. H. C. Chamberlain and the late Dr. Chamberlain, of Pittsfield, Mass.

The wedding took place at the bride's home on Plymouth road, which was made most attractive for the occasion with floral decorations of yellow chrysanthemums and palms. The ceremony was performed at half after seven by the Rev. G. Phipps.

The bride was gowned in white satin and chanted lace and carried a bridal bouquet of bouvardias and white roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. L. Marsh, of Boston, as matron of honor, who wore lavender taffeta combined with black silk net and carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Mr. A. P. Chamberlain, of Camp Devens, Ayer, as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Kenneth Bouye, of Amherst College; Mr. J. L. Marsh, of Camp Devens, and Mr. C. T. Ford, of Fort Banks, Winthrop.

After the ceremony a reception was held and the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Bouye and Mrs. Chamberlain. Music was furnished during the reception by Miss Blake's Orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain left on a wedding trip by motor and on their return will reside at Hinsdale, Mass., where they will be at home after January 1.

TRINITY CHURCH SERVICE.

The third of the evening services at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, under the auspices of the Men's Club, will be featured by the first of a series of remarkable sermons about the Great War, entitled "God's Hand in the War." These sermons will be delivered by the rector, Mr. Edward T. Sullivan.

The first of the series, Sunday evening, November 18, at 7:15 o'clock, will be on "Kitchener: Two Years After. What England's 'Man of Iron' Did for Britain and the World."

—Mr. C. F. Whitney of Central avenue is a director in the recently incorporated firm of Whitney, King and Barney of Boston.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thursday morning the entire school was addressed by Mr. Palmer of the English Department of the Technical High School. Mr. Palmer spoke in the interest of getting high school students to make scrap books containing cartoons, drawings, and clippings for the soldiers in France. The covers of these books are to be made by the Art Department and the clippings are to be collected under the supervision of the English Department. It is expected that every pupil will make at least one scrap book.

The high school is doing its part toward saving food by having two meatless and two wheatless days a week in the lunch room.

George Scott has been elected captain of next year's tennis team.

About 50 freshmen reported for the class football team and are now practicing faithfully for their annual game with the sophomores.

The sophomore football team has elected Herbert Garrity captain and Willis Bell manager.

The call has been issued for candidates for the class basketball teams. A series of games have been arranged between the classes for the championship of the school.

By beating Lynn Classical High 33 to 0 last Friday Newton showed clearly that she has one of the fastest teams in the state. Lynn, considered one of the best teams in Greater Boston, was absolutely unable to stop the rushes of the Newton boys.

Monday morning the boys of the three high schools met in the assembly hall of the Classical High. The purpose of the meeting was to present to the boys the work of the Y. M. C. A. in Europe and to obtain funds for this work. Mr. C. C. Robinson, Boys' Secy., told how any money received would be used and why it was so necessary to have this money. He said he hoped that 500 Newton boys would subscribe ten dollars each which they themselves had earned.

Mr. Withey, Boys' Secy., of Lawrence, told the ways in which a boy could earn his ten dollars before the first of January. Mr. Adams has appointed a boy to canvass each room.

Wednesday the Winthrop girls' hockey team beat Newton 4 to 0 at Cabot field. The juniors won the championship of the school by beating the sophomores.

DEATH OF MRS. MACPHEE

Mrs. Annie Macphee, wife of Alexander Macphee of Newton, passed away Saturday, Nov. 10th, after a lingering illness extending over a period of nine months.

The deceased is survived by her husband, one son, Mr. Harry Macphee of Allston and a sister, Miss Katherine Moore, who cared for her devotedly during her illness.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at her late residence on Washington street. Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot Church conducted an impressive service at half-past two, and was assisted by Rev. Robert L. Rae, pastor of the North Congregational Church.

Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem of a large circle of friends.

The burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

D. A. R.

For the November meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., the members assembled at the residence of Mrs. James Richard Carter, at West Newton.

The Regent, Mrs. Frederick J. Fessenden, presided and read a letter from the State regent, urging the chapter to do its share in the three great aims of the organization—knitting and raising $100,000 for the purchase of Liberty Bonds and $50,000 for the restoration of the town of Tillotay in France. The regent reported good progress in the knitting and announced that Mrs. Blanche C. Martin would give a dramatic reading of "If I Were King" for the benefit of the chapter's contribution for the French town.

It was voted to send the usual annual scholarship to the Berry School in Rome, Georgia.

The first Vice Regent, Miss Lucy Ellis Allen, gave a most entertaining talk on Japan. Miss Allen has just published a little book entitled "West Newton Half a Century Ago," which she has dedicated to the Lucy Jackson Chapter.

As has seemed most fitting in these times of stress, the chapter is enjoying its social hour without serving refreshments.

NEWTON-WALTHAM FOOTBALL

There is considerable interest being taken in the annual football game between the High Schools of Newton and Waltham, to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Waltham. The Newton team has suffered but one defeat this year and expects to win. The record of the games between these teams shows that the last three years have been ties, while Waltham was a regular winner for the four years preceding.

Newton will have the following lineup tomorrow: Doherty, r. e.; Galian, r. t.; McGrath, r. g.; Slater, c.; Spaulding, l. g.; Champagne, l. t.; McCoy, l. e.; Nutting, q. b.; Ryan, l. h. b.; Hughes, r. h. b.; Garrity, f. b.

WOMAN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Robert P. Gilman opened her home to the members and friends of the Auburndale Review Club Tuesday, November 13.

The program of the day consisted of papers by Miss Jessie J. MacMillan, Miss Cora F. Stoddard, and Mrs. Robert P. Gilman.

Miss MacMillan spoke particularly of German folk songs of which she gave three illustrations on the victrola.
Miss Stoddard treated the folk songs of other nations, and the spontaneous, changeable folk song that contains only melody with art song that contains also harmony. She gave illustrations of Indian, Hawaiian, English and Scotch folk songs with victrola records.

Mrs. Gilman told most interestingly of the four great song writers, Schubert, Schumann, Franz, and Wolf, Schubert, "the father of German art song," Schumann, who became a composer of wonderful songs because a crippled hand prevented his becoming a great pianist, Franz, whose songs are most adaptable to the voice, and Wolf, "the dreamer who talked with a thousand voices." Several examples of the songs of these composers were given.

The program was one of the most interesting thus far in the club's study of music.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Mrs. Sherwood Eddy in an informal and intimate talk to members of the Chilton Club last Monday afternoon gave her personal experiences at the Y. M. C. A. Huts in France during the spring and summer of this year. "You women could do no better service than to send the right sort of women over there. The boys are homesick and need the woman's sympathy which they can get in no other way. They have their anxieties over home affairs which they will confide to a woman, but would never think of doing to a man, and more than a few have been kept straight by the influence of these women." Mrs. Eddy stated that 30,000 British women are on duty at these Huts giving their services. Just one item of expense may be judged from the fact that the head of one Hut told her that two tons of stationery are used every month. Anyone who has heard Mrs. Eddy or Mr. Lewis E. Cross, who speaks at Eliot Church on Sunday evening, can have no doubt of the invaluable part which this work is playing toward winning the war and will not with hold any money for it that can possibly be spared. So don't forget the Red Triangle Drive. Every little will help to make up Newton's quota of $75,000.

Local Announcements

"With the French at the Front," by Dr. W. T. Porter, is the announcement for the meeting of the Waban Woman's Club on Monday at the home of Mrs. George M. Angier of Pine Ridge road.

Next week's meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will be held with Miss Webster of Chester street.

On November 19, Mrs. C. S. Parker will be hostess for the meeting of the Monday Club of Newton Highlands.

A whist party will be held at the W. Newton Woman's Club on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. B. Whittemore, 64 Washington street, Newton, on Nov. 19th.

Mrs. Belle Armstrong Whitney will speak before the Bethlehemstone Club on Nov. 19, on "Women and Children in France."

Prof. Bliss Perry will address the Newtonville Woman's Guild at its meetings on Tuesday, Nov. 20, subject, "Alexander Hamilton." The annual exhibition of the Needlework Guild will take place the same afternoon.

On Fridays from 9 to 1 o'clock the Guild members are working in the New Church parlors for the French wounded.

The first of a series of Home Talent Days by the Auburndale Woman's Club will occur on Tuesday next. The program for the afternoon will be "Heroines from Grand Opera" portrayed by club members. Interpretative solos by Miss Sallie Turner. Dramatic Episode, violin and piano. A food sale in charge of Mrs. Henry S. Dawson will follow.

Rev. Charles W. Wendte, D. D., will address the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning, subject, "A Christian Patriot of California, Thomas Starr King." Guests may be invited.

At the Monthly meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 22, Prof. Bliss Perry will speak upon "Ralph Waldo Emerson."

Local Happenings

The regular meeting of the West
Newton Women's Educational Club on Nov. 12th gave the members an opportunity to hear a very interesting and instructive paper by Mr. Warren F.
Gregory on "The Use and Growth of the English Language." Two fine violin solos were given by Miss Forte of the West Newton Music School, accompanied by Miss Martha Gifford of Newton.

A tender tribute was paid to the memory of Mrs. Mary R. Martin, long a member of the club, by Mrs. George G. Phelps, who was closely associated with Mrs. Martin for many years. Mrs.
Emma Dimond also in a few words recalled the splendid service of another member who will be greatly missed, Mrs. Susan M. Dimond of Newton Highlands. Both were loyal club members and as such were an example and an inspiration to all. A collection, which will be a feature of the meetings for the present, was taken for the Red Cross work in this community. A social hour over the teacups closed the afternoon.

At the third meeting of the Travel Class, held at the home of Mrs. Darling, a very interesting paper on the extraordinary character of Peter the Great, was presented by Mrs. Holbrook. Petrograd was described and many items of interest on the present conditions in Russia were brought in by the members. The class has accepted an invitation from the president of the Auburndale Woman's Club to attend the meeting of the club on Dec. 4th, when Russia will be the subject.

Miss Bacall was in charge of the meeting of the Newton Highlands C.
L. S. C. on Monday afternoon. She continued the study of "Our National Parks" by telling of the Yosemite, Sequoia, General Grant, Crater Lake and Mount Ranier parks. The trees, plant life and water falls were described as the greatest in the world. She spoke of the General Sherman tree as the largest tree on earth and it may be the oldest living object that has a place in the sun. Switzerland, the playground of Europe, is not to be compared in attractiveness with the High Sierras of central California.

Nothing in the Alps can rival the famous Yosemite Valley. Readings from the books of John Muir, Enos Mills and Herbert Jump were given.

On Tuesday afternoon the meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands was in charge of the Civics committee, Mrs. George Q. Hill, chairman, who introduced Miss Gertrude Barnum as the speaker. Her subject was, "Americanizing the Americans and the Aleuts." America was sung with fine spirit. Mrs. F. H. Stewart of Newton Centre presented the work of the Y. M. C. A. Huts in France and in response to her appeal the club voted to give $50 to the Red Triangle Fund. Mrs. A. L. Pratt reported the conference of the Sixth District held recently at Stoneham.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning Mrs.
Mary Schenck Woolman spoke upon "The Ethics of Shopping," in which she emphasized certain abuses of privileges, which are common among shoppers, and which the Boston Chamber of Commerce is trying to rectify.
The abuse of the charge account, the taking of things out on approval and returning them in unsaleable condition and of the free delivery. She urged her audience to carry small parcels and thus free many men for service. Attention was called to the cards displayed in many department stores at present, signed by the Commercial Economy Board and designed to aid in the elimination of waste.
Much interest was shown in the talk and many questions were asked. Mrs.
F. W. Ganse made an appeal for the Y. M. C. A. Fund and a collection was taken. Mrs. C. Q. Tucker was chairman of the morning.

Patriotic Bazaar

Newton women when once their interest is aroused never do things by halves. This was particularly true of the Newton table at the Patriotic Bazaar held at the Copley-Plaza the first three days of this week. Most favorable comments were made by all who saw it, as being one of the most attractive of the smaller ones and it certainly was lovely with its remarkable display of beautiful and dainty dolls. Mrs. F. W. Webster, Jr., of Newtonville took the prize doll, one beautifully dressed by Mme. Higgins of Boston. Another which attracted much attention was dressed by the young ladies of Lasell Seminary and there were hosts of others. The proceeds of this table alone will reach if not exceed $450.

Welfare Bureau

A goodly number of members of the Welfare Bureau met on Tuesday evening at the Newton Club for the annual meeting. The president, William H. Rice, in his report noted the gift of an automobile for the use of the secretary, which had greatly added to the facilities for getting over the city. With the increased work of the past year has come increased expense for maintenance and also increased expense for relief work.

Miss Margaret E. Rich, the executive secretary, in her report noted the upward trend of prices, comparing the cost today of groceries, such as they are accustomed to send families needing relief, with that of one and two years ago. This upward trend of prices has been responsible for many of the problems. One hundred and sixty-one new families have applied for aid this year. Although there has been an increase of wages throughout the city, it has not been proportionate to increased cost of living. There has been a falling off in the number of arrests for drunkenness, but so long as liquor is sold in nearby towns, just so long will we have a liquor problem. The dental clinic and the baby clinic were mentioned. The work she said, has brought many new problems.

Hon. Frederick P. Cabot, Judge of the Boston Juvenile Court, was then introduced. He gave a wonderfully fine and clear exposition of the functions of the court of which he is justice. In the first place we must remember that it is not law, but rather education, a department of the state is trying to educate the boys and girls to take their proper places in society.
Reformatory institutions are not resorted to until all other agencies fail.

The question to be answered is, What does the child need to restore it to its normal place in the community.
The judge must use supreme wisdom, get at the facts and show the parents the reasons. The vital part of the court is the probation officer. Girls' cases are all handled by a woman.

Judge Baker started the idea of a clinic to make a special study of particular cases with a physician in charge. Since his death as a memorial to his work the Judge Baker Foundation has been established with Dr. Healey in charge. He is studying the element of growth and the capabilities of these children and in conference with the judge is determining the need of the particular child offender. Let any should think that these children receive no punishment for their offenses, Judge Cabot assured his audience that there are plenty of cases where it comes in. He cited a number of instances and told how they have been worked out.
Judge W. F. Bacon, in opening the discussion stated that there are less than 100 complaints a year in Newton. He felt that the primal thing to do is to make the parents realize their duty in training their children.
The need for this may be instanced by the fact that at the present time nearly 50 per cent of the boys at Lyman School are under thirteen years of age.

Mrs. Arthur Wellman, woman probation officer, spoke briefly of her work.
These officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, William H.
Rice; vice-presidents, Albert P. Carter, Mrs. Bertrand E. Taylor; treasurer, John F. Lothrop; clerk, James
B. Melcher; directors for three years, Albert P. Carter, Mrs. W. E. Gill, Arthur Kendrick, Dr. Laurens MacLure, Dr. Donald Macomber, Mrs. Louis H.
Marshall, James B. Melcher, Mrs.
James P. Tolman, E. E. Wakefield, Jr.; Nominating committee for next year, George M. Angier, Arthur Kendrick, Mrs. W. E. Gill, Mrs. Irving O.
Palmer.

An account of the Fall meeting of the Federation will be published next week.

CHANGE OF HEADQUARTERS

The Newtonville Special Aid is changing its headquarters from the Vocational High School to Dr. George H. Talbot's house, 306 Walnut street, and Temple Hall, and will work under the same roof with the Red Cross.

The sewing rooms at the Talbot house will be open every week day except Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., and on Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 5.

Both work rooms will be ready for use on Wednesday, Nov. 21.
Since its organization, March 28, 1917, the Association has turned in $556 Surgical Dressings, 11,414 pieces of sewing, 1683 knitted articles. The Surgical Dressings have been sent to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and the other articles to the Special Aid,
Red Cross, American Fund for French Wounded, Navy League, Charlestown Navy Yard, Pershing's Army, a destroyer in the North Sea, Newton Committee of Safety and Mr. Murray for Farm Boys.

WEBBER-GRAY

The wedding of Miss Jane W. Gray formerly of Newtonville, and Mr.
George Randall Webber of the U. S.
Naval Reserve took place on Saturday, November 10th at the home of the bride in Augusta, Maine. Miss Gray who was a popular nurse in Newton, was a graduate of the Newton Hospital Training School.
Mr. and Mrs. Webber left on a wedding trip and will reside at 25 South
Ritten avenue, Rockaway Park, New York.

WEST NEWTON MUSIC CLUB

The West Newton Music Club gave an enjoyable musicale Monday evening in Players' Hall, West Newton, an interesting program being rendered by Miss Bernice Keach, Mrs. Ethel Keach Ferrin, and Mr. Ralph Somers, soloists, Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley Hastings, violin, Mr. Albert L. Walker,

CHANNING ALLIANCE

Mayor Edwin O. Childs addressed Channing Alliance on Tuesday afternoon on "Our Duty to Our Foreign Born Citizens." He reminded his hearers that we were all immigrants at some time and therefore the immigrant is no new character. In these later years they have been coming in vast numbers, settling for the most part east of the Mississippi and north of the Potomac and Ohio rivers. Eight per cent of all who come have settled in Massachusetts, so that at present 66 per cent of the population is foreign born or the children of foreign born. It is our duty to give these people, especially the children, a chance. We must make them good citizens and in attempting to do so we must blend the best ideals of the old country with the best of the new. We must teach them English and civics and the rights and duties of citizenship, the right use of the ballot, and we have the special obligation of befriending them upon arrival in this country.

Mrs. F. H. Stewart made an appeal for the Red Triangle Fund. Miss Grace M. Burt, who was sent as delegate to the New England Associate Alliance meeting at Keene, N. H., in October, gave a report of that meeting. Mrs. Harry N. Milliken, who is in charge of the Exchange table this year, made a special plea for assistance.

NEWTON SOUTH ALLIES' RELIEF ASSOCIATION

The second annual meeting of the Newton South Allies' Relief Association was held on Friday, November 16th, at Trinity Church Parish House, Newton Centre.

The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. G. M. Stuart, with appropriate remarks.

The reports of all the officers were read. The Treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Hyde reported that eight thousand dollars has been disbursed by the Association during the past year. The Secretary, Mrs. Henry E. Williams gave a description of the many different ways that money had been raised. The public was duly thanked for supporting this Association which being an independent organization has been able to send goods to where ever they were most needed.

Shipments having been made to Belgium, France, Serbia, England, also to Camp Devens and to the Navy League. These goods have consisted of:

Surgical dressings, 197,106.
Bandages, 97,122 yards.
Pajamas, 497.
Night Jackets, 486.
Flannel bed-shoes, 884.
Felt slippers, 2,532.
Knit Articles, 6,165.
Comfort Bags, 511.
Personal property bags, 949.
Books, 5,000.
Miscellaneous, 7,511.
Blankets value, $125.
American Fund of French wounded, $250.

British Red Cross, $250.
In addition the Association has sent and maintains an Ambulance which at present is in service in France running from Bar-le-duc. It is being driven by Mr. George Macnamara, a medical student from Cornell.

Reports were also made by the purchasing agent, Mrs. George H. Melton, and Mrs. G. A. Pierce, chairman of the work committee, also by the directors of the several departments, viz:

Pajamas, Shirts, etc., Mrs. A. E. Alvord; Felt Slippers, Mrs. J. E. Smith; Compresses, Mrs. W. A. Ogg; Coussinet, Mrs. D. T. Kidder; Draw Pads, Miss Emma Porter; Coussinet bibs, Mrs. J. D. Thompson; Coussinet Gaze, Miss Charlotte Flanders; Bandages, Mrs. James Liddell; Knit Goods, Mrs. G. M. Stuart.

This Association is the oldest for War Relief in Newton—for over two years has worked summer and winter unceasingly. Now the need of surgical dressings and comforts is greater than ever. It most earnestly pleads to the public for continued support in order that the work can continue.

Contributions large or small will be thankfully received by the Treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Ide, 28 Summer street, Newton Centre.

Dr. T. P. Cahill, Hopkinton, Mass., is now at the Sherman building, 93 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, daily continuing the practice of Dr. McIntire, who has been called to the colors. He solicits his former Watertown and Newton patronage, respectfully. Tel. Back Bay 71708.

COUNCIL NATIONAL DEFENSE

The Newton Unit of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense held its first meeting in the rooms of the Newton Public Safety Committee on Friday morning, November 9, with twenty-one women present.

This is not a working Committee, but is a one federal organization for uniting all groups of women that are doing any kind of war work; it is a sort of clearing up house, preventing duplication of effort and conserving energy.

Present the Newton Unit consists of 30 women, representing 19 organizations of various kinds. 6 sub-committees have been formed, the chairmen being members of the Unit. Registration, Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell; Food Conservation, Mrs. H. A. Wentworth; Education, Mrs. Ellery Peabody; Liberty Loan, Mrs. F. E. Stanley; Child Welfare, Mrs. C. S. Cook, Jr.; Hospitality for Soldiers and Sailors, Miss Flora MacDonald.

The reports of the Chairmen showed much valuable work already accomplished. The advantages of one centralized organization for all the various activities were clearly demonstrated.

The following officers of the Newton Unit were elected: Chairman, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer; Vice-Chairmen, Mrs. F. E. Stanley and Mrs. H. V. Jones. Secretary, Miss Margaret E. Rich. Treasurer, Mrs. George Angier.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

America's foremost portrayal of American character, the inimitable William Hodge, will appear at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, next week, beginning Monday, November 19, in a new play. This time Mr. Hodge will have as his vehicle, a four act comedy drama. It has the unique title of "A Cure for Curables." Mr. Hodge always conjures with the names of his plays, and this one is the latest, and perhaps the most remarkable. Mr. Hodge will appear in an entirely new role this season in this play. He will portray the character of James Pendergrass, a young Kentucky physician, who suddenly falls heir to his Uncle's sanitarium. It is the type of a young, virile, resourceful American. It is a long swing from his earlier characterizations, but is an up-to-the-minute American just the same. The part of a physician, gives versatile Mr. Hodge playground for his work that is quite refreshing. It is filled with quaint humor and yet there is the opportunity that comes to all physicians, for sympathy, pathos and understanding. The story is exceptionally unusual. Interwoven in its many angles of interest is a love story, sweet, sensible and calculated to delight all who witness it.

MUSICALS

Mrs. James Lorin Richards, Secretary of the Newtonville Branch of the Special Aid Society, opened her beautiful residence on Kirkstall road, Newtonville, on Wednesday afternoon for a Musical for the benefit of the Society.

A large company of guests of social prominence assembled at three o'clock and enjoyed a rare musical treat.

The rooms on the lower and upper floors were opened to the public on occasion, and the spacious hall made a capital auditorium. The artists appeared on the lower landing of the broad stair-case, adjoining the sun parlor, which was decorated with chrysanthemums. Along the circular balcony which extends the entire length of the upper floor, seats were also arranged for the guests.

Before the opening of the program, Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson of Newton Highlands gave a short but impressive address relative to the Y. M. C. A. Drive for $25,000,000 to carry on Red Triangle War Work.

Mrs. Hutchinson said it was a fitting time, for hand in hand with the Red Cross and Special Aid which are doing so much for the wounded, should be the Red Triangle Work, as this work creates a Christian home on the "firing line," bridging the big gap between the home here and the camp abroad.

We are fortunate to have this Association, and of great importance is the Bureau of Personnel selecting the leaders, both men and women. Mrs. Norman Hall is already over in France and Mrs. Margaret Deland is soon going over. When we consider that we are spending 50 million a day for the war, 35 million does not seem such a great amount to raise. Mrs. Hutchinson closed with the quotation from Henry Van Dyke, "It is because America is convinced that the cause of the Allies represents ideals, that she has so boldly and firmly entered the war at their side. Call her a dreamer if you will; at least her dreams belong to the spirit of Christianity, and the human and democratic work of the Y. M. C. A. has helped, and will help to make those a reality."

At the close of the address four exceptional artists presented a program of excellent musical and dramatic merit which was both varied and entertaining.

Mr. Thomas W. Cotton, baritone soloist, in the opening number, "Vision Fugitive," was very enthusiastically received; other selections which were highly pleasing were "For You Alone," "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," "Sunshine of Your Smile," and "La Spagnola," a Spanish song of such fascinating melody that the singers were repeatedly encored.

Mr. Cotton's singing is of that fine quality which appeals irresistibly to the lover of good music, as he possesses a voice of unusual refinement and volume. In the duet, "In Questo Sulo," with Miss Laurel Z. Wood, who has a lyric soprano voice of wide range and beauty, their voices blended most harmoniously.

Miss Wood was also heard in several groups of songs, among them, "Rose Softly Blooming," "Rosary," "At Dawning," "Jean," and others which were most pleasingly rendered.

Miss Beatrice Talmes, reader, in her recitation of "The Child Imperiled," led the qualities of a finished artist. In all her monologues she shows the close observation that makes her figures seem true to life, and there is a strong note of humor and pathos in her work. She appeared in "For Love of Mary Ellen," "Her First Call on the Butcher," and "The Child Imperiled." HOSPITALITY TO OUR DEFENDERS

Newton Centre inaugurated a plan for entertaining enlisted men, on Saturday, November 3rd, when eleven sailor lads from Commonwealth Pier arrived at the station on the invitation of a group of well-known women.

They were guests at Oak Hill homes and began their good time with tennis and football on the courts and fields on Dudley road.

In the evening Mrs. Addison C. Burnham opened her home on Brace bridge road, for an informal party in which several girls joined. Games, folk-dancing, and charades made the time pass merrily and quickly.

The men thoroughly enjoyed the relief from receiving ship routine and ended up their good time with a Sunday night supper around the camp fire in Mr. Kennard's woods.

It is proposed to invite a party every fortnight and any one wishing to share in the patriotic pleasure of entertaining these boys who are ready to do and die for us, is asked to communicate with Mrs. William B. Merrill, Lake terrace, Newton Centre.

Those who would like to have boys come for dinner on Sundays or any convenient day are also asked to send their names by mail.

Thanksgiving dinner invitations are now in order.

DEATH OF MR. LEVI

Mr. Robert Levi, a resident of Newton Highlands for about thirty years, died last Monday at his home on Chester street after an illness from apoplexy for two months. Mr. Levi was born in Newfoundland and was 78 years of age, and for many years has been employed as a bookkeeper in Boston. He is survived by a widow, one son, Mr. Frank E. P. Levi, and two daughters, Mrs. Wilfred L. Reilly and Miss Elizabeth of Newton Highlands. A requiem mass was celebrated yesterday morning in the Church of the Sacred Heart at Newton Centre and the burial was at Forest Hills Cemetery.

FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
In the Graphic of last week I stated that I was raising some money with which to buy Christmas gifts for the Newton Corner men who are in the 101st regiment, Field Artillery, now in France. This appeal met with a most generous response. I also solicited contributions from the business men of Newton Corner, and in nearly every instance something was willingly given to me for this fund. A total of $175.25 was contributed. With this money I made up twenty-four boxes, one for each man in the regiment from this part of Newton. Each box contained 20 first class cigarettes, one-half pound of S. S. Pierce mixture pipe tobacco, a pound of best candy, two cakes of toilet soap, one tooth brush, one face cloth, one can of shaving powder, one package of gum and one of mints. These were packed in corrugated boxes, wrapped in tan paper and tied inside with Christmas ribbon. In each box was a card with an appropriate verse and a typewritten list of the donors. All of these goods were bought at wholesale prices. Some money came in after this fund was closed and the purchases made, and I am taking the liberty of turning it over to the Regimental Auxiliary for the Yarn Fund of Batteries A and B. Expenses.

Paid S. S. Pierce Co., cigarettes tobacco and candy.....$122.16
Paid Arthur Hudson, toilet articles.....18.00
Paid Stone & Forsyth, boxes and wrappings.....7.05 Cards and ribbon.....3.60
Postage.....17.28

Check for Yarn Fund.....$168.09
Total.....$175.25

The list of contributors will be given next week.

I am sure the boys will appreciate your kindness to them.

DR. M. E. GLEASON.

DEATH OF MR. F. W. COLE
Mr. Frederick W. Cole, one of Newton Highlands' stalwart sons, died at his home, 123 Floral street on Sunday afternoon, aged 55 years. His death will leave a gap in a family circle knit by bonds of unusual strength; his many friends will feel his loss a personal bereavement, and the community has lost a rugged, true-hearted, gentleman and thinker.

For many years Mr. Cole was consulting engineer and expert of the Gamewell Fire Alarm and Telegraph Company. He was an inventor of much ability and many of the devices used in the Gamewell system were evolved by him. He was a member of Dalhousie Lodge, A. F. and A. M., an Odd Fellow and a member of the Highland Glee Club; the Men's League of the Congregational church and the St. Paul's Club of Newton Highlands.

He leaves a widow and two sons, Frederick A. Cole of Newtonville and William Morton Cole, of Newton Highlands, and one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bremer of Englewood, N. Y.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in his home at 123 Floral street, Newton Highlands, with many friends and associates in attendance. Rev. George T. Smart of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church officiated and there was singing by Albert O'reutt and Samuel Williams, both of Dorchester. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery. The bearers were two sons, Frederick A. Cole of Newtonville and William Morton Cole of Newton Highlands; two stepsons, Dr. Leroy Wylie and George Wylie, both of Harrison, N. Y.; a brother, Elmer J. Cole, of Elms, Me., and a son-in-law, Arthur Bremer of Englewood, N. J.

NEWTON MAN ASSAULTED.
Mr. Thomas A. West of Peabody street, Newton, the postmaster and assistant superintendent of the American National and Twine Co. of Cambridge was assaulted Wednesday afternoon and robbed of a leather bag containing $3600.

Mr. West had drawn the money from a Boston bank and was leaving a taxi cab at the entrance to the Company's office, when he was struck on the back of the head and rendered unconscious while the two men who had assaulted him ran to an automobile standing near and escaped.

Mr. West suffers from two deep cuts and numerous bruises on his head and left hand.

GREEN STOCKINGS

"Green Stockings" is the title of a 3-act comedy which will be presented by the Eliot Guild on Saturday evening, November 24th, at the Hunnewell Club, Newton.

The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Surgical Dressings work and other War Relief. After the play there will be dancing.

TREMONT THEATRE—"Turn to the Right," now in its eleventh week at the Tremont Theatre, Boston, has reached the warmest place in the heart of New England with the happiest, homeliest, humanest love story of motherhood that ever came to the American stage. Lovely Ruth Chester, who plays the role of the sweet little old lady in the famous comedy by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazard, is fairly bringing the old home and the endearing ideal of the best mother in the world back to every grown-up in the audiences that crowd the Tremont; for she embodies "a presence to touch an answering heart string" in every mother's son and daughter, in a play packed full of romance, laughter, and clever, quick-fire incident and surprises, beside.

"Turn to the Right," in the third month of its Boston run, is still the most important offering of the season for the whole New England public and making new records for popularity with hosts of theatre parties from nearby towns, all taking their way to the Tremont Theatre. There will be a special matinee for Thanksgiving Day.

A LIBERAL RESPONSE

Newton Residents Nearly Double the Expected Quota for the Red Triangle Fund

Newton has responded most liberally to the call for subscriptions to the Red Triangle War Fund and the committee of which Hon. Seward W. Jones is chairman, and Mr. Frank L. Richardson is treasurer, and particularly the Newton committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Oliver M. Fisher, are to be heartily congratulated on the success of their efforts.

The total this morning, which is approximately correct, is $133,361.60, nearly double the quota of $75,000 which was assigned to this city.

The contributions by villages are as follows:

Newton	$62,648.21
Newtownville	8,934.25
West Newton	20,004.75
Auburndale	3,053.32
Lower Falls	334.50
Upper Falls	1,315.25
Highlands	3,144.15
Waban	2,363.13

Centre	8,609.25
Oak Hill	1,325.00
Chestnut Hill	19,938.00
Anonymous	1,691.79

The chairman of the village committee were as follows, Newton, Mr. O. M. Fisher, Newtownville, Mr. W. Lloyd Allen, West Newton, Mr. W. F. Chase, Auburndale, Dr. G. M. Winslow, Lower Falls, Mr. G. M. Heathcote, Upper Falls, Mr. H. E. Locke, Waban, Mr. Lawrence Allen, Highlands, Mr. Howard Whitmore, Newton Centre, Mr. H. H. Kendall, Oak Hill, Mr. Jas. W. Spring, Chestnut Hill, Mr. A. Winsor Weld.

In addition to the above amount, there are 240 boys in the city who have pledged themselves, under the direction of Mr. R. W. Angier, to earn ten dollars each for this fund.

NEWTON BEATS WALTHAM

First Victory in Football for Many Years

Newton High School won its first game in football from Waltham High for many years last Saturday afternoon, the score being 22 to 13. Newton went over to Waltham with high hopes for an easy victory, but Waltham played way beyond the class it has been showing during the present season, and at the end of the second half was in the lead, 13 to 9. Garrity got into the game with a vengeance and by plunging through Waltham's line, carried the ball over for a goal, making the score 16 to 13. Good playing by Newton and a poor forward pass by Waltham gave Newton another touchdown in the fourth period.

After the game there was a little trouble near the barge holding the Waltham players, but it was checked by the police. Saturday evening a number of Newton boys paraded through Waltham streets to celebrate the victory, and there were a few minor scraps, but no serious trouble.

NEWTON'S RED CROSS

Monday the Newton Branch of the Red Cross and the Special Aid moved into the Dr. Talbot house at 306 Walnut street, Newtonville, and the Red Cross flag that stands as an invitation to all to come in and help along in the work for our soldiers and sailors now flies every day in front of the new headquarters.

Tuesday there was announced the gift from Mr. Charles W. Leonard of $500 to be used for war work as the officers of the Newton Red Cross think best.

Wednesday the workers of the Special Aid and of the Red Cross began work in the sewing rooms on the second floor of the new headquarters. In the rooms are five sewing machines, two of them run by motors, and there is also a complete equipment of tables and chairs. The work of making surgical shirts, convalescent robes and pajamas is to go on in the rooms every day from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 5, and is to be under the charge of two directors, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

The Temple Hall activities are to go on as before. Every weekday, except Saturday, the Red Cross makers of surgical dressings will work from 10 until 1. The Special Aid Surgical Dressings workers will make dressings in Temple Hall on Mondays from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 5 and on Wednesdays from 1 to 5. The Red Cross Thursday Afternoons for Children will continue to be from 1 to 4 on Thursdays.

The long-deferred exhibition of posters designed for the Newton Red Cross will be opened at the new Headquarters' House on Saturday, December 8. Besides the Newton Red Cross posters, there will be exhibited also a number of other war posters, and the whole exhibition will be one well worth attending.

TO FILL VACANCIES

Local Exemption Board Sends 12 More Young Men to Ayer

Thirteen more Newton young men left yesterday morning for Camp Devens at Ayer on call of the Local Exemption board, to fill vacancies made in the quota of previous drafts.

The men were:
454 Arthur R. Stubbs, 80 Jewett
692 Edward H. Bell, Jr., 11 Russell 433 Jos. J. Ridge, Pearl St.
1103 Vito Palladino, Adams St.
2749 Joseph L. Murphy, 725 Walnut
2331 Calvin J. Stata, 40 Hale
1505 Philip W. Carter, 10 Balcarras
2546 James E. Smith, 18 Aberdeen
1347 Rosario Guzzi, 11 Oak
8 Horace Bellis, 300 California
Lionel J. Sadler, Jefferson
175 Michael J. Quinn, 236 Pearl
3214 Robert J. Holmes, 50 Grasmere
694 Philip W. Carter was designated as leader of the squad, which took street cars to Waltham and the 1147 train from that place to Ayer.

The men assembled at Police headquarters at nine o'clock and were presented with sweaters, socks and comfort kits by Mrs. S. H. Mitchell of the Public Safety Committee. A delegation of Grand Army Veterans were also present with the post flag. Mayor Childs made a brief but eloquent address to the men who were then given an opportunity to bid farewell to their friends.

Edward Legge whose claim for exemption was refused by the Local Board has entered an appeal to the District Board.

Carey S. Lord of Belmont street, who was ordered to appear for examination on Tuesday, failed to do so.

It is not known when the last 15 per cent of the first draft quota will be called.

MR. WARD DEAD

Samuel Ward, president of the Samuel Ward Company of Boston, who had been engaged in the stationery business in Boston since 1868, died at his home on Crescent avenue, Newton Centre last evening.

He was born in Newton, December 31, 1845, the son of John and Mary Kingbury Ward. After attending the local public schools he went to High School and Amherst College, from which he was graduated with the degree of A.B. in 1867.

He was married twice, first to Sarah G. Woodworth at Hartford, Conn., in 1872, and then to Mary C. Barstow at Yarmouth, Me., in 1901. He was a member of the First Church of Newton, the Boston Chamber of Commerce, Boston City Club, U. O. G. C., Boston Congregational Club and the Neighborhood Club.

He is survived by a widow and three daughters, Mrs. Paul Ward of Medford, Mrs. M. D. Dunning and Mrs. F. A. Lombard of Japan, and nine grandchildren.

He was the last male descendant of his family, which settled in Sudbury, Mass., in 1644.

The funeral will take place Sunday with services at 2:30 at the First Church, Centre and Homer streets.

BRIEF MEETING

Little Business for Board of Aldermen to Transact

The meeting of the aldermen on Monday evening lasted less than a half hour. President Early presided and Aldermen Clark, Kendrick, McCarthy, Harriman, and Tuttle were absent.

No proposition was made to petitions of the Edison Company for a pole on Norwood avenue, ward 6, to the Newton Garage and Automobile Company to increase its gasoline capacity on Brook street to 2000 gallons, or to gasoline permit, requested by J. A. Karnheim on Hampshire road.

Miss Florence Maynard favored and Messrs. W. C. Holbrook and G. B. McKinney opposed a sewer in Pilgrim road, Waban.

Mayor Childs sent in requests of the School Committee for $1550 for salaries in the Vocational Evening School, $600 for fuel in Fire Department, $150 for flags, $8000 for proposed changes in the City Hall, and $750 for heating the library room in the Hyde School house. He also sent in the invitation of the Newton Centre High School to attend a shoot at the Riffe Club on November 24th.

The Street Commissioner reported the completion of Howland road, cost $2412, Bonad road, $3227, and Colbert road $1143.

The assessment of C. Fred Smith on Waban Hill road, was apportioned into ten parts. Petitions were received from Nicholas Tocci for a pool room license on Oak street, from N. Lipschitz for a wholesale junk license, from the Edison Company for attachments on Bowers street, Lakewood avenue, and Oakland avenue, and from H. L. Felton to enter sewer on Chestnut street at 1 per cent grade.

On recommendation of committees, claim of the Edison Co. for $6746 was approved, hearings assigned for December 3 on concrete sidewalk on Central street, and for sewer in Moulton street. Licenses were granted to A. M. Leonard as auctioneer, Witold Lomer for pool tables on High street, Masten & Wells Co. for fireworks on Needham street, James D'Angeli for common victualler, Adams street, B. D. Childs, as second-hand dealer, Centre street, and Archie Bros. to sell gasoline near Bridge street. Leave to withdraw was granted on the proposed extension of Adams street, for abatement of assessment of G. J. Jackson on (Continued on Page 8.)

A NOTABLE OCCASION

Dalhousie Lodge Presents 24 Members with Identification Jewels

One of the most notable affairs in the history of Masonry in this city was the meeting Wednesday evening of Dalhousie lodge, at which identification medals were presented to 24 of its members who are enlisted in the service of the United States. Only five of the men were present, the remainder, some of whom are already in France, being represented by proxy. The presentation was deemed of so much importance that the Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts, Most Worshipful Leon M. Abbott, with a distinguished suite visited the lodge to make the presentations in person. Following the presentation of the medals, Most Worshipful Melvin M. Johnson presented the lodge with a handsome service flag bearing 24 stars.

Previous to the meeting a banquet was held in Temple hall at which over 200 members and guests were present. W. M. Edwin F. Ripley was toastmaster. Grand Master Abbott gave a most inspiring and patriotic address, which was received with great enthusiasm. Remarks were also made by District Deputy Horace A. Carter and Past Master Albert L. Harwood.

The identification jewels are of silver, bearing on one side the Masonic emblem, with the initials U.S.A., and on the other side an appropriate inscription.

The jewel was presented to the following persons:

Lieut. Frank F. Farwell, Co. F, 106th Inf.

Ralph F. Barber, Co. A, 101st Engineers.
Clarence H. Clapp, U.S. Ambulance Co., Allentown, Pa.

MR. HINCKLEY APPOINTED

Mr. Benjamin S. Hinckley of Newton has been named to assist L. A. Sneed of the apportionment and distribution section of the United States Fuel Administration in all matters relating to the supply of coal and coke for New England.

"I have named Mr. Hinckley as my assistant in order to bring New England into close relations with my office and to make him a direct connecting link between the Fuel Administration and New England," said Mr. Sneed.

"I have selected Mr. Hinckley as a man eminently qualified for the position. He is, I understand, a graduate of Tech and is a railroad man of valuable experience. I expect from him practical work and great results. We are working hard to relieve the New England situation and the priority of lakes shipments will be suspended in a few days, which will help New England."

Benjamin S. Hinckley of 177 Park street, Newton, is a very well known railroad man. He was born in Charlestown, and was graduated from Technology in 1899. He was for six years in the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and for the last six years has been purchasing agent of the Boston & Maine. He entered the coal business last year.

Mothers Appreciate

Having the Children's Pictures taken at home—and by a woman. It is far easier than taking the children to the Photographer. After the nap is the best time for little ones. They come down stairs rested, and all fresh in their little dresses, to play with their new friend who seems to know how to go about playing in just the way that helps to get the kind of pictures the family have always wanted.

If you will talk with MISS FOLGER over the telephone at N. N. 1245-W, or personally at 429 Centre St., Newton, she will help you plan for the best time to have the pictures taken.

THANKSGIVING—TURKEY

We mortals will likely find many things to be thankful for, but how about the Turkey?

It is a little early to forecast the price and quantities of this doomed bird, but the fine open fall weather that this country has been blessed with would suggest that his majesty had been able to run until now, this being true, plumpness and sizeable fresh killed birds for this season will likely be scarce. However, there will be without a doubt plenty to go around, as many who have heretofore demanded a fresh killed turkey will be so well pleased with the appearance of the Cold Storage article (and the fact that every bird has been carefully inspected by our Federal Pure Food Officials) will lessen the demand for "fresh killed." The price also will be a determining factor as Cold Storage Stock (which will be meaty) will in all likelihood sell for 5 to 10c a lb. less than fresh dressed.

In line with our other products our poultry will not carry the burden of the MIDDLEMAN'S TRIBUTE.

See our stock—know our prices—look over the market—then "Come Home" and buy.

Market conditions on Beef, Lamb, Smoked Meats, etc., are practically same as last week. A few barrels of our hundred barrel purchase of Sweet Potatoes left. While they last 9 pounds for 25 cents.

Those who wish may leave their order now for Turkey, and in so doing feel assured of proper attention.

ARMENIAN-SYRIAN RELIEF
Tomorrow and Sunday have been designated as special days for contributions to be devoted for the relief of the peoples of Armenia and Syria. It is reported that there are more than two million destitute survivors in those countries including over 400,000 orphan children. Contributions can be made directly to the Red Cross or to the American committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York City.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE—"The Melting of Molly," which will be presented at the Plymouth Theatre next week, beginning Monday evening, November 26th, is under the management of the Messrs. Shubert and Frederic McKay. It is a dramatization by Maria Thompson Davies of her novel of the same name, which is taking rank as one of the six "best sellers" of the last two or three years. As those who have read the book recall, its theme is now agitating this country from end to end, and is generally referred to as eat-and-grow-thin. All of the scenes are situated in New York City, and the gowns of the women represent "the last cry" in smart designs.

The title role will be played by Alma Tell, one of the two beautiful and talented Tell Sisters, and Mr. James L. Crane, who recently scored in "The Pawn," will play the leading masculine part.

BELL-ROSS
A military wedding of interest took place on Saturday, November 10, in Atlanta, Ga., when Miss Mary Lamar Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pierce Billups, became the bride of Capt. Louis Hemenway Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bell of Sylvan avenue, West Newton. The officiating clergyman, the bridegroom and the ushers were all officers of the Reserve Corps in service at Fort Oglethorpe or at Camp Gordon.

The ceremony was performed at half past eight, by Rev. Joseph W. Conklin, a Unitarian minister of Atlanta, who left his pulpit for the Reserve Officers' Training Camp, when the War broke out.

A floral border decorated with white roses, white chrysanthemums, palms and southern smilax, was devoted to the ceremony, and an improvised altar was arranged, over which hung the American flag.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful wedding gown of white satin combined with lace, veil of Duchess lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Courtenay Ross of Atlanta, as maid of honor, who was gowned in white tulle over satin and carried white roses and violets.

The bride's maids, Miss Mary Heiskell of Tennessee and Miss Mary Hemenway of Massachusetts were gowned alike in white tulle fashioned over satin and carried bouquets of white mums tied with infantry blue tulle.

Mr. Bell was assisted by Captain A. Heath Outhart of Arlington, Mass., best man and the group of ushers included Captain Horace H. McCall of Atlanta, Ga., Lieutenant Chauncey R. Dickinson of Macon, Ga., and Lamar Hill, R. O. T. C. of Atlanta. All the young men were in uniform, and at the conclusion of the ceremony the National anthems were played by an orchestra.

An informal reception, attended only by kinsfolk and most intimate friends was held after the ceremony, and the bride cut the cake with her husband's sabre.

The bride is a member of a noted Southern family; a great, great uncle was Mirabeau Lamar, president of the Republic of Texas in early days. Her great uncle, L. Q. C. Lamar was Confederate Ambassador to France and Russia, and was also United States Senator, Secretary of the Interior in Cleveland's cabinet, and a Justice of the Supreme Court, whose eulogy of Charles Sumner was said to have been a factor in reconciling the differences between the North and South.

Monday, in a close and well-played game, the girls' field hockey team was defeated by Arlington 3-2. The boys from the three high schools have made about 5000 trench candles. These candles are made by rolling a number of newspapers together, cutting the outer edge, and then cutting the roll in pieces about two inches long. These pieces are boiled in paraffine, after which they are dried and are then ready to be used. One of these candles, well made, will burn brightly for an hour without giving any smoke.

Wednesday the girls of the school were addressed by Miss Helen Game of Newton and Mrs. Frank Stewart of West Newton on the subject of what the Y.M.C.A. is doing for the soldiers in the training camps at home and in Europe.

Harold Tucker has been elected manager of the hockey team. The assistants are Wilson Palmer, Ferris Allen, and Herbert Maloney. Clarence Wyatt has been appointed manager of the track team.

The last two football games of the season will be played within the next week. On this afternoon Newton plays Cambridge Latin, and should have no difficulty in winning, but on Thanksgiving day Brookline is sure to give a lot more trouble. Brookline always plays its hardest against Newton, and the game is sure to be full of thrills. This game marks the last appearance for Newton of several of her best players. Garrity, Macomber, Slater, Hughes, Spaulding, Chapman and Davidson will be lost through graduation.

Mr. F. E. Murray, Director of the Vocational School, has been granted leave of absence for the period of the war. Mr. Murray has received a commission as Major in the Sanitary Corps of the United States Army, and will be one of the directors of the vocational training of wounded and crippled soldiers.

TO SING THE "HOLY CITY"
The choir of Eliot Church will sing Gull's "Holy City" Sunday afternoon, November 25, at four o'clock. This is the first of the regular choral services which are held the last Sunday of each month during the winter months.

Mr. Everett E. Truette is organist and choir master. The solo quartette consists of Miss Josephine Knight, soprano; Mrs. Adelaide Briggs Bowman, alto; Mr. J. Garfield Stone, tenor; and Mr. Frederick W. Cutter, bass.

CLAPLIN GUARD VETERAN CORPS
The regular drill of the Claplin Guard Veteran Corps will be held Monday evening, November 26, 1917, in Hibernian Hall, Newton. Any past member of the Claplin Guard, or anyone interested in military drill is invited to be present.

OPEN MEETING OF THE SPECIAL AID SOCIETY

The Special Aid Society of Newton met in Channing Church parlors last Friday afternoon, Mrs. H. H. Powers presiding.

Mrs. F. E. Stanley, chairman of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee, read letters from Mr. Alken, chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee for New England and Mr. Seward M. Jones, chairman of the Committee for Newton, expressing appreciation of the work of the women's committees in the last campaign.

Mrs. E. M. Moore, chairman of the Work Committee, reported 161 garments and other articles completed in October, and in addition 235 knitted articles which were distributed among the Red Cross, Navy League, Special Aid Headquarters, and Newton Public Safety Committee. Mrs. Moore made the following requests:

1. Odds and ends of bright colored wool for use by the girl scouts in knitting afghans for the French hospital.

2. Pieces of flannelette in any size and shape to be used for patchwork blankets made double—these also to be sent to France.

3. Pieces of bright colored cottons, cretonnes or strong gingham, to be used for collars, cuffs, and pocket bands on dull grey shirts.

4. That as the price of wool is high, we should contribute to the wool fund. "If you can't give, knit; and if you can, do both."

5. Fifty helmets with earholes, and 50 pairs of gloves are wanted at once for Lieut. Com. Ware.

The wool, needles and directions are ready. Work for the aviators has been started through the energy and initiative of one of our Newton members, and the General Committee of the Special Aid has entered into the work with enthusiasm. Many of the 108 branches will help in making the 1500 outfits which should be ready by January 1. An aviator's outfit consists of 7 knitted articles and a comfort kit. Special directions have been printed and the work is ready.

There has been so much misunderstanding about the aviators' outfits that it has been thought best to state that the government does not provide them with knitted articles. It is far from the truth that all the men in this branch of the service are rich. Many have left excellent positions to go into aviation, and many have dependents. The knitted articles which they need cannot be procured in France at any price.

Miss Lathe, chairman of the Social Service Committee, reported entire receipts from the summer canning work, $57.79, expenses $64.68. A donation of canned goods has been sent to Pomroy Home, and there are 132 quarts still in the store-room. This committee will now work with the Food Conservation Committee to make a complete canvas of this village for the signing of the State cards. A little later this committee expects to establish Food Thrift centers in the different villages with literature and demonstrations.

The Surgical Dressings Committee reported Miss Emery, that during the summer they had become affiliated with the Red Cross, and are making large numbers of special new dressings, to which they can turn more quickly than the larger organization.

Mrs. S. L. Powers, chairman of the local Red Cross, reported for October 318 knitted articles and 283 garments and Christmas bags.

Mrs. William E. Jones, who has been interested in hospitality for soldiers and sailors, has consented to act as chairman of the Entertainment Committee for the Special Aid Society.

A vote of thanks be sent to the crew of Lieut. Com. Ware's ship for their beautiful silver loving cup. Mrs. Powers spoke of the greater grain which we are conserving in our homes being used in breweries, the product being a great menace to our boys. Women's organizations will unite between now and the first week in December to demand national prohibition for conservation.

H. R. Chamberlin was named as chairman of the committee on the estate of Mrs. W. H. Lathrop, chairman of Civil Relief for Division S. E. of the New England Red Cross then spoke. She likened the growth of the Red Cross to the expansion of a crossroad grocery store to one like Marshall Field's. The Red Cross has called into its service some of the biggest men in the country. Mrs. Jones reported commissions to Serbia, Russia, England, France, Belgium, and Italy, and each commission has had as advisers on the ground, Americans of long residence. One of the French commissions investigated the appalling increase of tuberculosis. Other commissions to France have to do with infant welfare, with rebuilding devastated villages; with lumber units to build up ruined sections; with the development of canteen service. Still another is working with the Rockefeller Institute to develop a department of medical research. The Red Cross has given enormous sums for antiseptics, has given one and a half millions for the families of French soldiers. It has a canteen station with American women and men in attendance, and a place to bathe and rest wherever the army is.

The American Red Cross is now organized in 13 divisions, the heads in each receiving reports from all sub-ordinate, through in Miss reporting directly to Washington.

Mr. Robert Hollowell, in charge of all camps and training stations in this district, has had word that all the men in these camps and stations have been provided with sweaters, 52,000 having been distributed since September. It is estimated that the women of New England have knitted between 75,000 and 80,000 sweaters in three months, a larger output than from any other section. Still we haven't done half enough. One million sweaters are needed in France today.

In speaking of the work of Civilian Relief, Mrs. Lathrop said that this will be the final test of the Red Cross. The result of the separation of men from their families is shown in Montreal, where there has been an increase of 41 per cent. in juvenile delinquency since the beginning of the war. Families must be kept together. It is hoped that not a single added child will be placed in a day nursery or orphan asylum on account of the war. Lonely mothers and wives must be helped and advised. To meet the greatly increased demand for volunteers for home service work, the usual two year course for social service workers is being compressed into six weeks.

In closing, Mrs. Lathrop urged us to do not our bit, but our utmost. "The boys are ours, the trust is ours, the cause is ours."

Christmas remembrances will be sent to the Newton Special Aid to the crew of Lieut. Com. Ware's ship. 500 gifts are desired of not more than 25-cent value. A handkerchief, pack of cards, jackknife, cigarettes or anything else which may suggest itself as being attractive to a sailor, should be wrapped in white paper, tied with red with a Christmas card, and the name and address of the donor enclosed, and sent to Channing Church by the first week in December.

Mr. Sladen and members of the Grace Church choir have kindly offered to give a benefit entertainment for the Special Aid Society of Newton to be held in Channing Church parlors on the evening of December 7 at 7.45.

Venice

The eyes of the world are now centered upon Venice. Her history has been turbulent and romantic from the very beginning when her first towns were settled by fugitives fleeing before the ravages of Attila. For the past half century calmness and quiet have been hers, but now we see her once more in the grip of a great conflict that calls to mind the vicissitudes of her youth. Some of the most important of the histories of her earlier struggles are:

For most persons the great interest in Venice is for her incomparable beauty. In these days when "Time is busy turning old glories into dreams" we read of the treasures that the Italians are working so earnestly to save and remember "Other cities have admirers; Venice alone has lovers."

The AEOLIAN-VOCALION
WE invite you to hear this superb new model of the Aeolian-Vocalion—the latest and greatest of all phonographs. In depth and richness of tone, in structural beauty, and in the wonderful new phonograph privilege it gives you of your own personal expression, this new model far surpasses any phonograph hitherto produced.
Exclusive Features
The Sound Box, which produces a richer, deeper tone than any other phonograph possesses.
The Symphonic Horn eliminates all phonograph stridency and preserves the beautiful tonal characteristics of all instruments and voices.
The New Automatic Stop. With two simple movements it "sets" a record to stop and also starts it playing.
The Revolutionary Gradualia, which gives you the privilege of expression control—lets you play the phonograph, in fact. This is a feature which you can use or ignore on different records as you see fit.
All Models are sold on Very Easy Monthly Payments
We invite you to our store to hear the Aeolian-Vocalion whether you ever purchase one or not.

Tomorrow the Newton Centre unit will hold an all day shoot from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., with 38 calibre revolvers at Kingman's field, Fisher avenue, Newton Highlands. A prize handicap shoot will be held during the day.

A schedule of drills in police duty will be probably announced in the near future.

The officers of the Chestnut Hill unit are Freeman Hinckley, captain, A. Winsor Weld, 1st Lieutenant, Chandler Hovey, 2nd Lieutenant.

Private Alden D. Wheeler, Jr., of the Newton Centre unit has been appointed regimental ordnance sergeant.

The Newton Highlands Company of the Constabulary is equipping with shotguns and sixty of the men already have them.

Sergeant Mitchell, of the Newton Highlands Company, has been promoted to Second Lieutenant of the company.

Nine men from the West Newton Company have recently joined the Newton State Guard Company.

The men of the Newtonville Company have been active the past week on the Y. M. C. A. canvass, the same men working on this that worked for the Liberty Loan.

The Newtonville Company, now drilling in the High School gym, is to give some attention to athletics, especially fitted to men between the ages of forty and fifty, and may hold some contests in these events.

The Waban Company is now holding drill in the High School gym on Friday evenings.

Captain Fulton has a little competition in the manual of arms at the end of the drill and will later in the season run off a prize drill, for which prizes have already been offered.

The members of the Waban Unit will attend service at the Union Church on Sunday evening at seven o'clock. The men will attend in uniform, and the Rev. Brewster Eddy will speak of his tour through the British, French and American army camps.

Lieutenant Bryant of the Newtonville Unit entertained the officers and non-coms of that company, at the Newton Club, after drill last Monday night.

The Newtonville Unit has organized a glee club that is creating quite a sensation.

A large number of the Constabulary engaged in shooting practice last Sunday at the B.A.A. grounds, Riverside.

BENEFIT MUSICAL

To aid the work of the Newton Branch of the Special Aid Society, of which she is an active member, Mrs. Francis Edgar Stanley will open her residence on Centre street, Newton, on Wednesday afternoon, November 28, for a musicale, which promises to be a very charming event socially as well as financially. Mrs. Stanley is always among the first in events of a charitable nature, and her popularity will undoubtedly make this musical a signal event of the season in Newton.

Newton society is always ready to come to the fore, and when national problems are to be worked out, such as our War Relief at the present time, it always does its share with alacrity.

A most successful musicale for the Newtonville Branch was given last week at the residence of Mrs. James Lorin Richards, the secretary of the Newtonville Branch.

The Special Aid is doing splendid work in the Newtons, due wholly to the activities of its women, who have a strong "get together" spirit which is most commendable.

Special talent has been engaged for the musicale on Wednesday, and the artists will give their services free for this worthy object.

It is hoped that all will avail themselves of an opportunity to enjoy an afternoon of fine music, and thereby do their bit for the war.

WHIST AND DANCE

The first whist party and dance of Division 40, Ladies' Auxiliary of Hi-Bernians, was held in Norumbega Hall, Auburndale, Tuesday evening, and was largely attended. Many out-of-town people were present.

The ladies' souvenir was given to Mrs. Gavin of Waltham; second, Mrs. Franey; third, Miss Annie Connelly; fourth, Miss Twomey; consolation, Miss Nellie Rooney.

First gentleman, David Moan; second, Frank Cunningham; third, Henry Hartley; fourth, Mr. Webster; Clarence Edmunds, gentleman's consolation, a handsome Angora kitten.

This new division holds weekly card whists on Thursday evenings at members' homes.

STATE GUARD WANTS RECRUITS

The following extracts from a recent letter from Capt. John C. Mills, captain of Company A, 11th Inf. State Guard, to General James G. White, chief of the Newton Constabulary, will be of some interest.

"The Newton Company of the Massachusetts State Guard, which, as you know, is the FIRST Company of the State Guard, (known officially as Company A, 11th Regiment) in its strivings to reach the highest degree of efficiency has concluded that in addition to being trained as Infantrymen in the use of the rifle, we should likewise train ourselves in machine gun work and thus be the better equipped to serve our City and State if the emergency arises. This idea having been approved by higher authority, we have been told to secure the needed recruits to provide for a Machine Gun section to be added to our Company. To bring our Company up to the maximum previously authorized I am hereby providing for the contemplated Machine Gun section, we need fully 35 more men.

"Bearing in mind what so many of the Constabulary have remarked from time to time, in effect that they felt that one of their primary duties was to serve as a feeder for the Newton State Guard Company, we are naturally turning to that body through you, realizing the spirit that prompts their service therein as one of duty they feel not alone to the City but to the State.

We are permitted now to enlist men from 18 to 45 (single or married)."

EDITORIAL

Recent resolutions in the board of aldermen in regard to overcoats and revolver practice by the Newton Constabulary have created a feeling of amusement among many persons who are unaware of the excellent work now being done quietly and systematically in this city. When 1000 men of this city, rich and poor, alike, show their interest in the need of preparing for the future by devoting their time and money to the work and drill of the Newton Constabulary, there is evidently something worth while in the movement. The city is to be congratulated that it has a body of citizens of this size who see the need and are ready to fill it when necessary.

In these busy days when there are loud and insistent calls for money for all kinds of patriotic and philanthropic objects, the residents of Newton should not forget the absolute necessity of supporting the Newton Hospital. This institution needs no eulogiums, for it speaks and has always spoken for itself in deeds and not merely in words. While we contribute thousands of dollars to other causes, let us not forget that the sick and helpless in our own community need just as much care and attention as ever before. Send your contributions to Geo. R. Pulsifer, treasurer, Newtonville, Mass.

THE CITY ELECTION

The time for filing nomination papers for the city election closes this afternoon, but the situation is fairly clear this morning, and indicates that Mayor Childs will have the unusual honor of a third election without an opponent. Alderman John W. Murphy will return as ward alderman in Ward 1, and Alderman Henry I. Harriman, now representing ward 7, will take the place of Alderman Charles N. Pitts, who retires. Alderman William Price and Hubert L. Carter will return from ward 2. Mr. Price as ward alderman. Aldermen Herbert M. Cole and Justin A. McCarthy will also come back from ward 3. Alderman Arthur W. Hollis will take Alderman Winslow's place as alderman-at-large, and Mr. W. J. Spaulding will succeed Mr. Hollis as ward alderman. Alderman G. M. Angier will be returned as ward alderman from ward 5, and there are three candidates to succeed Alderman P. W. Cobb, who retires. They are Mr. Harry L. Cook, Mr. Herbert L. Rogers and Mr. Walter A. Hodgdon, and this will be the only opportunity to exercise the preferential voting plan now in force in this city. In ward 6, Alderman R. M. Clark has been persuaded to return as ward alderman, and an incipient contest as his successor has been thereby averted. In ward 7, Alderman Arthur Kendrick and B. L. Goodwin will succeed themselves, and Mr. Philip Nichols will take the place vacated by the removal of Alderman Harriman to ward 1. For school committee there will be no opposition to the election of Mr. Joseph N. Palmer, ward 1, Charles E. Valentine, ward 4, and Everett E. Kent, ward 7.

BOOK REVIEWS

Rev. J. Edgar Park, pastor of the Second Church at West Newton, has just published a neat pamphlet entitled "The Bad Results of Good Habits," and like all of Mr. Park's writings, it is well worth reading. Mr. Park states that it is a little book of wisdom, modified by a new process, so as to be assimilated by the weakest intellects. The proceeds of its sale will be used for the Soldiers' Aid of West Newton.

Another West Newton publication is entitled "West Newton Half A Century Ago," and Miss Lucy Ellis Allen is the author. The book is dedicated to the Julia Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., and gives interesting reminiscences of the men and women just after the Civil War, and includes many famous names.

To the Editor, Graphic:
Coal costs $95 per ton in France and warm bed-clothing is therefore urgently needed in the Hospitals there.

Many young people are willing to knit small squares to be made into afghans.

As all who knit sweaters of any color or texture have small balls of yarn left over, may I ask that they send these remnants to the undersigned, who will see that they are promptly used for this good purpose.

A NIGHT EN ROUTE

The Auburndale Unit of the Newton Constabulary, in the role of "The Dusty Singers," made its initial bow to a Newton audience on Wednesday evening, and presented "Night En Route," in Norumbega Hall, Auburndale.

It was a most entertaining show and the men gave a splendid demonstration of their excellent military training as well as their ability as singers and actors.

The following cast was received with great enthusiasm: W. J. Spaulding made an admirable "King Hobo"; C. B. Floyd as "Dusty Rhodes," happy though light-fingered, was a "winner"; Mr. L. W. Gore made good in the role of "Abner Perkins," town constable, and L. D. MacNutt, as the Jefferson Booth, a broke-down actor, was certainly cut out for the part. Mr. G. P. Brophy as Mr. Johnson, was the personification of a lazy colored gentleman except when the band played, and Mr. E. A. Hancock made a "hit" as "Weary Willie."

Others who scored a success were Mr. P. A. Crosby as "Ambling Andy," a gentleman tramp; Mr. W. B. Lane, as "Tired Tom," and Mr. James Dunlop as "Shiftless Sam."

The picturesque scene was laid in Korney's Woods. The Drill Squad, which did some fine exhibition work, included Sergt. Edwin Denty, Corp. D. B. Williams, Private W. B. Berry and Private H. B. Giles.

Mrs. Lowell D. MacNutt was a most efficient accompanist. The show was well staged under the direction of Mr. D. D. Williams, and was given under the direction of Mr. H. J. West.

Mr. J. A. Furish was chairman of the committee, which included Messrs. H. L. Goodman, J. A. McDonald, M. S. P. Smith and D. D. Williams.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

A very successful entertainment for the benefit of the Wool Fund was given Friday evening in Players Hall, by the pupils of the West Newton Music School.

The opening number represented a wood scene and an orchestra of 33 children appeared on the stage, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Fyffe, director of the school. The selections were excellently rendered, and little Miss Gwendolyn O'Neill accompanied the orchestra on the piano.

The second number included a group of patriotic songs by the full chorus of the Music School, assisted by the Girls' Glee Club and the Orchestra of the Vocational High School.

In "America's Message," the audience joined in singing the national anthem in the third verse.

A very pleasing feature was the appearance on the stage of the color bearers, Master Philip Sidney Carter, wearing the khaki uniform of an American soldier, and carrying the American flag, Miss Betty Tower, representing France and bearing the tricolor, and Master William Hope Bacon, Jr., who appeared as an Englishman and carried the flag of Great Britain.

A piano solo by Gwendolyn O'Neill, and a violin selection by Arthur Bloomendale were finely rendered, and the Belgian Folk Dance, which was given so successfully under the direction of Miss Edith M. Blake, was sung admirably by Viola Burns, Alice Foley, Dorothy Greeley, Ruth Paul, assisted by the full chorus, and the audience showed its appreciation by enthusiastic applause.

That popular favorite, Miss Irene Forte, demonstrated her mastery of the violin by some charming and difficult selections and received generous applause, and a group of Auburndale girls, dressed in white with streamers of red, white and blue bunting gave a very clever exhibition of dancing, under the direction of Miss Ruth Allen.

The Cantata "Indian Summer," under the direction of Miss Edith M. Blake, was sung admirably by Viola Burns, Alice Foley, Dorothy Greeley, Ruth Paul, assisted by the full chorus, and the audience showed its appreciation by enthusiastic applause.

That popular favorite, Miss Irene Forte, demonstrated her mastery of the violin by some charming and difficult selections and received generous applause, and a group of Auburndale girls, dressed in white with streamers of red, white and blue bunting gave a very clever exhibition of dancing, under the direction of Miss Ruth Allen.

Following the program was an auction sale of War posters in which Mr. Arthur G. Hosmer, assisted by Miss Marion Childsey disposed of their entire stock and realized $437.50 for the cause, the proceeds of which now amount to $200.

Mr. Henry Fhitmore gave a forceful appeal for the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle Fund, and told of the wonderful work that is being done by the Association among the men at the front.

YOUNG MUSICIANS' CLUB

The Young Musicians' Club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Eleanor Richmond, Otis street, Newtonville.

A large number of friends and members were present and enjoyed the well-rendered program given by some of the members. Work was done for the soldiers and sailors, and representatives of the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds gave short but interesting talks.

The following "America" selections were given: "America," solo by Genevieve Tolan, one of Miss Allen's pupils was extremely well done and greatly applauded.

The program included works by Karl Kleber, Behr, Beethoven, Mozart, Schaefer and others. The pupils who took part were: Sally Wright, Esther H. Stiles, Lindsey Cummings, Marion Stickney, Kenneth Cummings, Susanne Dearborn, Edwin Kidder, Dorothy Filene, Eleanor Tracy, Jennette Martin, Marion Burgess, Elsa Haase, Eleanor Martin, Marion Maxim, and Hazel Cunningham.

CITY HALL

The following bids were recently received by Buildings Commissioner for making additions and alterations in the City Hall. John Hagedorn, $7,043; D. A. Ferguson, $7,443; C. G. McMullin, $7,631.04; J. S. Wilson & Co., $9,612; A. I. English, $7,000; and J. W. Duff, $8,002. It is proposed to make a one-story addition on the east side to provide additional room for the City Treasurer and City Engineer, and to remodel the old patrol stable in the rear to provide quarters for the Forestry and Playground departments.

Street Commissioner Stuart reports that from the homes of 33 Street Department employees, 41 young men have entered the U. S. service, 31 having enlisted and 10 having been drafted.

—Mrs. Charles E. Kennedy of Central street is pleasantly located at Orlando, Florida. Mr. Kennedy leaves this week for Cuba. Their daughter, Miss Heloise Kennedy has entered the Cathedral Seminary.

—Miss Mary Baker of Brookline has been a recent guest of Miss Gertrude Wightman of Maple street. Miss Baker is at present engaged in raising funds for the Community War Work, and promoting pleasure for the sailor boys of the Commonwealth Pier.

—There will be an interesting entertainment at Norumbega Hall, Auburndale, on Saturday night, December 1. It will be given by enlisted men of the Navy now stationed at Charlestown, and will be under the auspices of the Lawrence Club, Church of the Messiah. The proceeds of the evening will be devoted to the Welfare Fund of the navy boys. The woman's local Home Hospitality Committee, of the Council of National Defense, Mrs. Arthur Lane, chairman, is also co-operating in making the visit of the navy boys more enjoyable by arranging hospitality for them over the week-end.

ANNUAL RECEPTION

A very delightful social event on Friday evening in Newtonville, was the annual reception to the pastor, Rev. A. J. Musgrave, and Mrs. Muste, in the parlors of Central Church. There was a large company of members of the congregation and friends present, and Mr. and Mrs. Muste received from 8 until 9, and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey W. Waldron. Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Zeigler, and the choir.

A fine musical program was presented, which included violin selections by Mrs. George H. Hastings; piano solo by Miss Cotton; duet by Mrs. Augustus L. Wakefield, contralto, and Mrs. H. Belden Sly, soprano; and two beautifully rendered selections by the quartet, Miss Florence Hale, soprano, Miss Marguerite Harding, contralto, Mr. Everett M. Clark, tenor, and Mr. Franklin G. Field, bass.

An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of a set of Mark Twain's works to Mr. Chauncey W. Waldron, former superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr. H. Philip Patey made the presentation speech. At the close of the program refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. George A. Edmonds, assisted by the ladies of the church.

CONSTABULARY NOTES

The Waban Company disposed of the Friday evening drill last week and instead had drill on the drill ground at Waban, Saturday afternoon, the time being given to open order formations and the program will be repeated tomorrow afternoon.

The Newton Constabulary Company has equipped a range at Cold Spring Swamp at a cost of three hundred dollars and tomorrow afternoon will hold a shoot in which members of the other units may compete.

Waban

—Don't forget the Newton Hospital. —Mr. Harry H. Ham is treasurer of the Young Glass Co. of Boston.

—Auburndale Co-Operative Bank. New shares on sale, pays 5%.

—The Newton Fur and Feather Club has contributed fifty dollars to the work of the Waban War Relief Committee.

—Mr. Donald M. Hill is at the head of an energetic committee which is this week raising funds in Waban for the Newton Hospital.

—A service of Praise and Thanksgiving will be held in the Union Church on Thanksgiving Eve—Wednesday evening next, at 7.45 o'clock.

—Considerable personal property recently stolen from the residence of W. R. B. Whittier on Upland road was recovered this week by the police department.

—Next Tuesday afternoon, November 27th, the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet at the home of Mrs. John White, Waban avenue.

—Captain Herbert Kimball of Pilgrim road has been called to the colors and left Wednesday evening for Washington. His duties will probably be with the Ordnance department.

—Twenty-four boys of the Waban troop of Boy Scouts in charge of Scoutmaster Joseph Bartlett and Assistant Scoutmaster Harry Tilton, enjoyed a trip to Mount Monadnock, N. H., last Sunday, leaving at 8 A.M. and arriving home at 7.30 P.M.

—The Ladies' Circle of the Union Church is to fill forty bags with Xmas gifts for the soldiers at Ayer who would otherwise have no remembrances. It is hoped that any interested in this work will send gifts of money or suitable articles to Mrs. J. Earle Parker, Mrs. Effie Clark, or Mrs. A. E. Snyder.

—About twenty-five members of the Men's Club of the Church of the Good Shepherd, with ladies, visited the Sailors' Haven in Charlestown last Thursday evening, and enjoyed a pleasant evening with the sailors. The band from Commonwealth Pier furnished music, and the sailors and visitors assisted in entertaining.

—Mrs. Herbert Kimball was chairman of the committee of ladies in charge of the November supper, held in the Union Church Vestry Wednesday evening, following an excellent supper. The gathering of two hundred enjoyed a very pleasing rendition of "Peg O' My Heart" by Florence Close Sale, Reader, with incidental music by Miss Frances Paynes, Pianist.

—The men of the Union Church enjoyed a talk on Labrador by Mr. Albert Gould last Thursday evening. Mr. Gould at one time Secretary to Dr. Grenfell, very entertainingly described Labrador life, assisted by many illustrations on the screen. Mr. Tongue proved an excellent instructor and director and before the evening was over had an excellent chorus of men's voices singing French trench songs. Refreshments were served.

—A number of sailors will be entertained in Waban this week at several houses. This sort of work should continue till the end of the war. The Home Hospitality committee for sailors and soldiers is Mrs. Charles H. Porter, Mrs. Earle E. Conway, Mrs. Dana M. Dutch, Mrs. Charles E. Stevens, Mrs. J. Earle Parker. Any who can entertain boys over a week end are asked to notify Mrs. Charles E. Stevens, 102 Windsor road, at least six days in advance.

—The Patriotic Service in the Union Church last Sunday evening was very inspiring. Mr. Brewer Eddy told of some of his observations in the war zones of Europe and ended with a spirited appeal for patriotic effort by those at home. Mrs. George Angier described and explained the work of the Waban War Relief committee, which is now campaigning for funds to enlarge the scope of its work. Men of the Waban Company of the Constabulary occupied the choir loft and led the singing, which was joined in heartily by the rest of the company and audience.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

A woman of middle age writes from central New York since the recent election, "To think that I am soon to vote! What would my parents say to have a daughter vote! It will be a new experience, but I shall try to do my duty." That is doubtless the spirit in which the question will be met by many more women of that state, women who had not sought the ballot, but having it granted them will exercise it to the best of their ability. In this way, too, will it be met in Massachusetts when the time comes. One way to hasten that time will be for all registered women to vote at the next election. Until they do, the public will remain unconvinced that the women are in earnest. How many club women know when the next election comes? Find out, if you don't, and go to the polls and show that you mean business.

Tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, November 24, will be Children's Day for the children of the Newton Highlands Monday Club in Odd Fellows' Hall.

Mrs. C. Peter Clark will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands C.L.S.C. on November 26.

Before the Brighthouse Club on Monday afternoon Mrs. Mabel A. Crawford gives the monthly current events lecture.

The Newton Parliamentary Law Club meets on November 27 in the Newton Library at 10.15 A.M.

On Tuesday, November 27, the Auburndale Review Club meets with Mrs. Guy M. Winslow of Woodland road.

The first current events lecture of the season by Mrs. Leila C. Pennock before the Newtonville Woman's Guild occurs on Tuesday morning.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club, Newton Highlands, November 27, will be in the evening, at eight o'clock, when Miss Mary Boyle O'Reilly will lecture on "The Women behind the War."

The regular meeting of the Social Science Club will be omitted on November 28.

On Saturday the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club meets with Mrs. H. W. Drew of Dedham street, when Mrs. W. E. Moore will be in charge of the quiz on Acts I and II of King Henry IV, part II.

The tragedy selected for study this season by the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club has been "King Lear." At the meeting last Saturday held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Lewis of Erie avenue, Mrs. Harry N. Milliken was in charge of the general review of the play, handling the characters in a very able manner. The club is planning an entertainment to raise money to meet the payment upon its Liberty Bond next month. Mrs. H. W. Drew is chairman of the entertainment committee.

On Monday of this week the members of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. were entertained by Miss Adelaide R. Webster. The topic, "Our National Parks," was given by Mrs. Edward G. Swift. Her description of the Rocky Mountains, Mesa Verde, Casa Grande, Platt, Hot Spring, Wind Cave and Sully's Hill parks was both forceful and entertaining.

Monday afternoon the Christian Era Study Club met at the home of Miss Susie Johnson on Grove street. The relation of Cortez with Mexico was treated by Mrs. H. H. Longfellow, and that of Pizarro to Peru by Mrs. H. G. Bissell.

Members of the Brighthouse Club, who attended the meeting on Monday, were much thrilled by Mrs. Belle Armstrong Whitney's account of the Women and Children of France. Mrs. Whitney has crossed twenty-one times in the last three years, so was able to speak with authority. The need for clothing has so greatly impressed her that she determined to see if she could not do something about it. So she approached a garment maker in New York who, upon being furnished the cloth, gave his machines and operators for 30 days and also interested other manufacturers to do likewise. As a result when she crosses next, which will be in a short time, she is to carry with her 100,000 finished garments for the needy of France. She urged her audience to adopt war orphans. A silver collection was taken for the purpose.

Miss Hamilton, chairman of the music department, rendered a group of songs, and the program closed with the salute to the flag. A food sale was held at the close of the lecture.

It is hoped that the remodeled club house will be completed before the next meeting, and it is planned to make that a housewarming.

of Newton Highlands, November 19, held with Mrs. C. S. Parker, interesting reports were given from the State and City Federation meeting, and ten dollars was voted to the Fathers and Mothers' Club for their work at Reading. The program consisted of piano solos by Mrs. M. S. Wallace, and readings by Mrs. W. M. Mick, and Mrs. S. L. Eaton, comparing the Myths and Legends of other countries with those of New England.

The Waban Woman's Club held its second meeting on Monday at the home of Mrs. George M. Angier, with the president, Mrs. Charles H. Porter, in the chair.

A brief business meeting was followed by interesting talks by Mr. Farrell of Trinity Church, Boston, and by Madame Aino Walenberg of Helsingfors. Mr. Farrell explained the great necessity for providing the right kind of recreation for our soldiers and sailors during their training periods here in this country, as well as the tremendous need for Y.M.C.A. huts in France and England. He urged that the private homes around Boston be hospitably opened to the men for week-ends, and emphasized the craving for home life and the need of mothering that all these boys have. A club is about to be opened, he said, at the old Boston City Club, under the auspices of the women of Trinity Church, where the sailors and soldiers may go at any time.

Mr. Farrell was followed by Madame Aino Walenberg who, dressed in native costume, spoke most interestingly of conditions in Russia. She stated that in this country it is very difficult for us to understand the true conditions in Russia, and that the present revolution is a culmination of fifty years of struggling, and is not an overthrow of twelve hours' preparation. The uprising in 1905, which resulted in the establishing of the Duma and the framing of a constitution, was led by a group of social revolutionists, one of whom was Kerensky. At that time he was too young to continue the struggle, but twelve years later, with enthusiasm and experience, and a personality that appeals to the Russian nature, he comes to the front once more. Madame Walenberg does not think, however, that Kerensky, notwithstanding his intelligence, his emotional appeal, or his absolutely honest and above-board intentions, is a strong enough man to sway the Russians.

Lenine, she thinks, is also absolutely honest, in spite of the fact that many of his opinions have a pro-German flavor. Lenine has swung over to his side two of Kerensky's portfolio, the secretary of agriculture, Tchernoff, and the secretary of war, Savinkoff, two of the strongest men at present in Russia, and the famous Katharine Breshkovsky is working with him as chairman of the peasants' union.

But the task of leading the Russian people, 80 per cent. of whom are illiterate and all of whom are starving and have been starving for three years, all of whom want peace, a separate peace or an entire peace, is beyond the power of any man who has yet come to the front.

At the regular meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club last Tuesday evening pictures, "Heroinas from Grand Opera," were portrayed by the following Club members: Mrs. Herman Goldberger, Madame Butterfly; Mrs. Austin Fisher, Marguerite, from Faust; the Misses Silvia Sweet and Marjorie Winslow as Hansel and Gretel; Mrs. J. W. Buckman as the Witch; Mrs. C. A. Robbins, Tosca, from La Tosca; Miss Muriel Duffers, Elizabeth, from Tannhauser; Mrs. L. Perine, Joan of Arc; Mrs. Edward Legge, Carmen; Miss Louise Peloubet read the dramatic episode, and Miss Sallie Turner rendered interpretive solos, accompanied by Mrs. L. D. MacNutt.

The pictures were arranged with much care and thought by Mrs. C. A. Smith. The afternoon's performance was the first of a series of home talent days.

Mrs. H. S. Dawson conducted a food sale at the close of the meeting. An opportunity will be given club members to entertain Thanksgiving Day, or the following week-end, some of our sailor boys from Commonwealth Pier, and it is hoped many will respond by opening hearts and homes to boys, many of whom are far from home and mother.

On Tuesday, November 20, the Newtonville Woman's Guild voted to give $250 of their housing fund to the Red Triangle drive. The members listened with great interest to the scholarly address of Prof. Bliss Perry of Harvard on "Alexander Hamilton." Even in these days of "high finance," the speaker considers Hamilton the greatest financier of them all, and by far the ablest of Washington's generals. At the close Mrs. A. L. Wakefield sang the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the club joining in the chorus. The exhibition of the Needlework Guild was held afterwards and a simple "war tea" was served by the Charitable committee.

At the Social Science Club meeting on Wednesday morning, Rev. Charles W. Wendte, D.D., gave an exceedingly interesting lecture upon "A Christian Patriot of California, Thomas Starr King." In reviewing the incidents of his life, Dr. Wendte said that he was born in Charlestown, that he was a man of great personal charm and became an eloquent preacher. Upon receiving a call to San Francisco he decided to accept, thinking of the opportunity for good ahead of him. Once there he found a large majority of the people on the side of the South and secession. Mr. King immediately threw himself into the cause of the Union and it was through his efforts that the state was saved for the Union. This did not mean an easy path, and the great effort put into it resulted in an early breakdown and death at the age of forty. Dr. Wendte, who had found in Starr King a kind friend and counselor in his youth, gave many personal and intimate touches to his lecture that were full of interest, and the whole was greatly enjoyed by all who heard him.

The same afternoon, Mrs. Herbert G. Pratt, chairman of the Social committee, opened her home for the annual "At Home" of the club. The president, Mrs. Sterling Elliott, the two secretaries, Mrs. Harry Lutz and Mrs. John H. Chase, the chairman of directors, Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, received the members as they arrived, while in the dining-room other members of the board of directors were on duty in relays during the afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Breck, Miss Fanny C. Adams, Mrs. Curtis Nye Smith, Mrs. Sydney Harwood, Miss Grace Weston and Mrs. Henry Tolman acted as ushers. There was everywhere evidence of the friendliness and kindly co-operation of the members to make the affair a pleasant occasion and an agreeable relief from the strenuous war work in which so many of them are engaged. The Social committee had general oversight of the whole.

Prof. Bliss Perry lectured before the Newton Centre Woman's Club at its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, and a simple tea followed.

The two morning meetings, which have intervened since the last monthly meeting have both been full of interest. Miss Helen Louise Johnson spoke upon "The Right Kind of Conservation," under the auspices of the Home Economics department, while last week Miss Della I. Griffin, director of The Children's Museum, under the topic, "Why a Museum for Children," described the institution with which she is connected. It is located on Jamaica Pond in a building belonging to the Park Commission. Here may be found all the kinds of things common to ordinary museums, but with cases, etc., adjusted at a height adapted to children. The idea originated with a group of teachers in Boston, who desired a place to take their scholars, the large museums not welcoming groups of small children. The speaker told many incidents connected with the work and said that invariably the children ask the question, when seeing specimens of the animals, "What do they eat?"

SAWYER-BOSSON

A notable social event of the past week in Newton Centre was the wedding on Saturday of Miss Ruth Bosson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bosson, and Mr. Edmund Read Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick B. Sawyer of Laconia, N. H., which took place at the bride's residence on The Ledges road.

The rooms were opened en suite, and elaborately decorated for the occasion with a profusion of beautiful flowers from the Newton Rose Conservatories. A bower was arranged in the living-room which was devoted to the ceremony. The bride, passing through an aisle formed with white pedestals joined with streamers of white satin ribbon and surmounted with vases filled with Ophelia roses, stood under a floral arch festooned with southern smilax and with a background of palms and ferns. On either side were tall vases filled with large white chrysanthemums, and masses of Ophelia roses were arranged on the mantles. The hall was done in green and white, with palms and white chrysanthemums, and the broad staircase was festooned on the sides with southern smilax. In the sun parlor yellow predominated, and pompom chrysanthemums were arranged about the fountain, with ferns and potted plants, and the mantles and fireplaces were banked with the yellow blossoms; and with the electric lights glowing amid the flowers, the effect was most artistic.

The ceremony was performed at half after eight o'clock by Rev. George T. Smart, D.D., pastor of the Congregational church at Newton Highlands. As the bride party assembled, Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Handley's Orchestra. The bride was escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, and she looked very charming wearing a beautiful wedding robe of ivory with satin with point lace and tulle and court train. Her tulle veil was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a magnificent full shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Flora Marshall Bosson, as maid of honor, who was gowned attractively in orchid pink satin and tulle with bead trimmings, and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses and maidenhair fern.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Lew K. Perley, Dartmouth '12, of Laconia, N. H., as best man, and the group of ushers included Mr. L. K. Perley, Dartmouth '12, Mr. Spencer S. Kingman, Harvard, of Newton Highlands, Mr. N. Joy Harriman, State of N. H. College, of Laconia, Mr. Robert W. Van Kirk, Mass. Institute of Technology '18, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. T. Edward Bosson, cousin of the bride, of Hartford, Conn.

Only the relatives and intimate friends were present at the ceremony, but a large and brilliant reception was held from 8.30 until 10, and the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by their parents.

Mrs. Bosson, the bride's mother, was beautifully gowned in French blue chiffon velvet with fancy bodice, and carried a gray ostrich feather fan, and Mrs. Sawyer, mother of the bridegroom, wore a handsome gown of gray satin with white lace and silver trimmings, and carried a bouquet of violets and orchids.

After the reception the guests adjourned to the diningroom where refreshments were served, and the bride cut the cake. Miss Rhoda King, a Wheaton College friend of the bride, got the ring, and Miss Vera Demeritt, another college friend, got the thimble.

Pink marked the festive occasion in the diningroom, and the decorations were carried out effectively with pink Killarney roses. An exquisite floral piece arranged with the roses in combination with maidenhair fern, centered the table.

The bride is a graduate of the Newton schools and a member of Wheaton College, Class of 1918, and Mr. Sawyer is a Dartmouth man, Class of 1912, and is principal of the Burnham and Fox school at Haverhill.

During the reception Handley's Orchestra rendered a delightful program of music, and the bride and bridegroom departed amid a shower of rose leaves and confetti. There were about 275 guests of social prominence present, from Laconia, N. H., Orono, Maine, Hartford, Conn., Chicago, Springfield, Worcester, Boston and the Newtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer will reside at 18 Byron street, Bradford, Mass., where they will be at home after February 1, 1918.

LADIES' NIGHT

Newton Lodge of Elks held a most enjoyable ladies' night on Tuesday, and there was a large attendance of members and guests.

The more serious part of the program included an eloquent address by the Exalted Ruler, Mayor Edwin O. Childs, an interesting talk on the phases of the war by Alderman Henry I. Harriman, and a heart-to-heart talk by Richard Cooley of Newtonville, who has just returned from service in the French army, and wore his uniform.

The entertainment consisted of singing by the de Koven quartet, Mr. Ben Rodden, tenor; instrumental music by Claire Leonard, pianist, and King's orchestra; and some amusing sketches by Mr. Franklin Collier, the cartoonist. Dancing and refreshments concluded the evening.

The affair was in the hands of a most competent committee consisting of George E. Stuart, chairman, George P. Flood, John Gordon, George R. Stratton, Dr. Edward J. St. Coeur and Fred C. Green.

Lieut. Henry G. Chambers, with a number of fellow-officers from Camp Devens, and Ensign Lancaster Martini, of New Orleans, with several fellow-officers from the battleships in Boston harbor, added a decidedly military color to the affair.

Messrs. McKenney & Waterbury Co., 181 Franklin street, corner Congress, Boston, Mass., are showing a great variety of Lighting Fixtures in the new Evenite Glass, and recommend it highly to those requiring Lighting Fixtures for their homes and public buildings.

Fall Meeting

Not even the multiplicity of war activities seems to hinder the club women when it comes to attending the meeting of the State Federation, "Brookton Fair" was the comment of the conductor who assisted the Club Editor from the train at South Braintree on Wednesday morning, as he surveyed the crowd of women which filled four or five cars. Scarcely have the arrangements for the comfort and convenience of the guests been more carefully worked out, so that everyone had plenty of room and to spare. At the noon hour the delegates were scattered among several churches and the basement of the Town Hall, while the members of the executive board and speakers were entertained at a luncheon provided by the domestic science class of the high school in that building.

The greeting of the hostess president, Mrs. Walter A. Poore, was simple, direct and hearty, sprinkled with humor which captivated the audience. Scarcely had the word of greeting met with the enthusiastic response on the part of the delegates as did that of the president of The Philergians at the meeting on Wednesday.

In her response Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, president of the Federation, said that never was there a time when it was so difficult to know how to say or how to do just the right thing. We must not put ourselves forward, yet there must be no lagging behind. We must learn how to create for ourselves a spirit of peace, which is not weakness. We must be full of divine truth, of divine power and divine love.

The roof of the great Town Hall fairly rang with the singing of "America the Beautiful," led by the glee club of the Philergians. A thousand women singing together with all the power they possess make a profound impression.

Miss Harriet Broad of the Y. W. C. A., was the Federation's delegate to the conference of the Fostick Commission in Washington, held recently and her account of that conference was listened to with much interest.

A plea for the Consumers' League was made by Mrs. W. H. H. Tracy in which she said the League had been "a voice crying in the wilderness for many years." It was the first organization to take action against child labor. The investigation of bakeries and the coming Restaurant Week in December were referred to. Upon the women rests the burden of making food safe for the people.

Dr. Fernald, who had been announced upon the program and the substitute whom he had provided both were too busy to come as had been anticipated, so Miss Amy Woods of the League for Preventive Work presented the subject of "The Care of the Mentally Defective as a War Measure." Those making a study of the conditions and engaged in the care of the mentally deficient are anxious that a State Commission similar to the Commission for the Insane, may be created, that the care of these people may be taken from private agencies and placed under State control. Not all types are a menace to the community, for if they are given the right they are very likely to go right and serve a useful place in the community. It has already been found that many of them can perform very well indeed simple tasks which require no initiative.

The chief speaker of the morning was Mrs. M. J. West, executive secretary of the Immigrant Educational Bureau of Rhode Island, his subject being, "New Americans and the Community Center." With subtle humor and a very human attitude the speaker captured the audience at the very outset and fixed their attention upon the very vital problem. He pointed out the folly of those who have pinned their faith upon naturalization and the teaching of English, as the chief methods of Americanization, and stopped there. Loyalty, he said, is not a matter of "lingual facility." These ought not to be the chief program of Americanization. Certainly, other things are more important. There should be some instrument for giving them a permanent human influence. That is what Tammany has done and that is why Tammany won at the last election. The redemption of their leisure should be the program. He fears the success of prohibition would be one of the better. Similarly, we shall never understand our foreigners until we know them better and have the real human touching of elbows. We must keep the old and add to it the moving life of today. We must make them realize that the things which are theirs to give are the things which we need. We must get at their hearts. The school buildings are the places best adapted for doing it.

In closing he referred to the immense activity for the Red Cross and other agencies and ventured the fear that it was only because of the war. Are we going to keep the impulse in peace time?

At the afternoon session two new clubs were presented, the Dorchester Dames, and Swampscott Fortnightly, and two organizations for affiliated membership, Massachusetts Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Department of Massachusetts Woman's Relief Corps.

Miss Mabel Blake of the Woman's Patriotic League gave a brief account of work for girls and announced an Institute for training workers with girls, which will be held from Nov. 28 to Dec. 21.

John Collier of the School for Training Community Workers of the People's Institute of New York treated the question, "Can Social Work be Democratic?" As it is now carried on, he fears that it cannot be. He agreed with the speaker of the morning in attributing the result of the election in New York to the fact that the splendid social work, which is being done by that city, is not understood by those for whom it is intended, that it seems to them something imposed from above and not something of which they themselves have felt the need.

"Most of our work, social and governmental, has to do with people. About three-fourths of the peacetime activities of Government have to do with people, human, vital material. Have we not applied to them the same methods of efficiency, which we have applied when developing passive inert material? Is it possible in peace times, under normal conditions, to bring it about that the average man shall be conscious of what society is doing at, shall realize the social ideal which now only the expert realizes?"

A resolution asking Congress for an amendment to the Constitution to prohibit legalized liquor traffic was adopted unanimously. After the usual courtesy resolutions the meeting closed with the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The music provided by the hostess club in the songs of one of its members, Mrs. Mabel L. Kinna, and the singing by the glee club were enjoyed by all present.

MRS. GERTRUDE EAGER WEST

The passing of Mrs. Gertrude Eager West to the great beyond deserves more than a kindly notice.

Mrs. West was born in West Newton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eager. She passed her childhood and early school days in West Newton, and after graduating from the High School she attended the Bridgewater Normal School from which she graduated in June, 1890.

Her first school in the same year was taught in Chilmark and the following winter term in Lambert's Cove, where she left many friends to teach on the mainland until her marriage.

She was married at her father's home at West Newton, November 24, 1892, and left Massachusetts for an unusual bridal tour: Arriving in San Francisco, she cruised on the bark California, sailing down the Pacific coast as far as the equator, then to Sandwich Islands, stopping at Honolulu, and back to San Francisco. The next voyage she visited the Marshall Islands and the Caroline Islands, where they visited the American Board of Foreign Missions; Mortlock Islands, Hall's group, Las Marianna's, from there to Bering Sea visiting Point Barrow, the highest point north in North America, she being the second white woman to step on shore, returning to San Francisco in November, covering a distance of 35,000 miles. Mortlock was a cannibal island at the time, and Mrs. West did not go ashore until two years later. She made two voyages in the bark Horatio to Japan, visiting many places of interest. On these voyages she experienced three typhoons. She sailed North in 1902, and later attended the San Francisco Navigation School, with Captain West, and graduated when he did. She sailed on the steamer Corwin for ten years, up and down the coast from Seattle to Nome and northern points of Alaska, covering 180,000 miles in Alaskan waters.

Mrs. West was regularly shipped as a member of the crew and performed various duties. I have heard the captain say he would rather have her on the bridge in charge of the ship than any officer he ever had. Her home when on shore was for some years in Edgartown, until they purchased the farm at Chilmark, where she died October 8.

Mrs. West was a woman of refinement and culture and her genial and retiring disposition made many friends wherever she went. She was a member of the Congregational church in Edgartown, a loved and valued member of the Martha's Vineyard Chapter D.A.R., an active member of the Edgartown Woman's Club, and also a member of West Tisbury Grange, serving on the literary committee, and a member of the American Geographical Society.

She leaves her husband, Capt. Ellsworth L. West, a father and mother, three sisters and two brothers.

The funeral was held in the Congregational church at West Tisbury, conducted by Rev. Alfred Fairbrother, the Grange attending in a body. Interment was at Vineyard Haven. Beautiful floral tributes from the different societies and friends expressed their love and sympathy.

COPYRIGHT THEATRE—Only three weeks more of the run of "The Man Who Stayed at Home" at the Copyright Theatre. Ever since last June it has been satisfying our playgoers with its stirring scenes, its picturesque characters and its clever acting. In it the Henry Jewett Players have found their greatest triumph, and when its run ends three weeks hence it will have made the extraordinary record of twenty-seven weeks of consecutive performances. As acted by the Henry Jewett Players it has proved itself one of the greatest successes on the Boston stage in recent years.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEWTON

Early in February I announced my intention of becoming a candidate for Mayor of Newton in the interest of a better administration. When the war broke out I immediately gave up all activity in this direction in order that I might aid in solving the problems that would arise. The war has continued such an all-absorbing problem, I have given but little thought to the city election which comes on December 11.

During the past two weeks I have received a great many enquiries from individuals, newspapers and various organizations as to whether I am to be a candidate. To all these enquiries I wish to say that I shall not be a candidate for Mayor at the coming election.

Having reached a decision I wish to make this statement. That I am as much interested in a business administration today as I have been for the past five years; that I believe the economy and retrenchment made necessary by the war is bound to make business efficiency a real issue two years hence; that in consulting influential men throughout the city I find that every one is interested in matters pertaining to the war and not in local politics. In view of this attitude of the public mind on civic questions, I do not wish to precipitate a contest which would in any way tend to disorganize the political, social and fraternal forces which are working together for the successful prosecution of the war.

BUTTS—MIRICK

Lieut. Frederick M. Butts of the United States Ordnance Department in Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Butts of Newton Centre, and Miss Lydia L. Mirick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Mirick of Worcester were married Saturday night in the home of the bride by Rev. Charles P. Wellman, pastor of South Unitarian Memorial Church.

Private Chester C. Butts, a brother of the groom, who is stationed at Camp Devens, was best man; Mrs. Warren S. Shepard was matron of honor, Albert Wilde of Boston, ring-bearer, and Miss Marcia Mirick, flower bearer.

Shortly after the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Butts started for Washington.

FALL MEETING

The Civic Club will hold its fall meeting at the Newton Club, Newtonville, on Tuesday evening, November 27, when the evening will be devoted to informal talks on the Newton Public Safety Committee, the Local Emergency Board, the Constitutional Convention, and City Finances. All candidates in the coming municipal election have been invited to be present.

WAR RELIEF FUND

Mrs. Blanche C. Martin will give a dramatic reading of "If I Were King" next Monday evening in the Peabody School gymnasium under the auspices of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R.

ANNUAL FAIR

The Annual Fair which was held Tuesday by the society ladies of West Newton was a most gratifying success and a substantial sum was realized for the benefit of the West Newton Day Nursery.

The Unitarian Parish house was decorated most elaborately for the occasion and attractive booths were arranged on either side and artistically festooned with laurel and adorned with groups of flags of the Allied Nations.

In accordance with the spirit and demand of War times the articles on sale were for the most part of a useful and practical nature. Household necessities of various kinds were offered and jellies, canned goods, fruits, and vegetables were disposed of in large quantities.

The Household table was presided over by Mrs. William A. Young, assisted by Mrs. Harry L. Ayer, Mrs. Frederick L. Felton, Mrs. Thomas Baxter, Mrs. Ellery Peabody, Mrs. Francis Newhall, Mrs. Henry Whitmore, Mrs. Orris W. Nelson, Mrs. Sumner Robinson, Mrs. William T. Safford, and Mrs. Estabrook.

The fancy table was under the direction of Mrs. Frederick E. Jones, assisted by Mrs. W. B. H. Dowse, Mrs. Sidney B. Thomas, Mrs. Leon B. Rogers, and Mrs. Robert H. Gross.

The preserve table was under the direction of Mrs. George Hatch, assisted by Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. Gile, and Miss Dora Allen.

Mrs. George R. Whitten presided over the Fruit and Vegetable table which deserves special mention as being one of the most attractive features of the fair. Occupying the centre of the hall, with the stage as a background, it was effectively decorated with hedges and heavily laden with vegetables and fruits, the latter arranged in baskets and hats of straw, and it was a very pretty sight. Mrs. Whitten was assisted by Mrs. Henry Day, Mrs. Charles E. Hatfield, and Mrs. Robbins.

The Five to Twenty-five Cent table was in charge of Mrs. Grace Rice assisted by Mrs. C. Sinclair Weeks, and other members of the Auxiliary of the Day Nursery, and Miss Dorothy Dowse and Miss Margaret Dowse efficiently managed the Candy Table which was well patronized.

The tables were covered with green and white and the festoons of laurel in combination with the brilliant coloring of the flags gave an arbor effect which was quite picturesque.

A delicious luncheon was served to about 300 under the direction of Mrs. Horatio N. Glover, assisted by Mrs. Fred W. Albree, Mrs. Louis J. Balliett, and Mrs. Henry W. Robbins.

The entire amount of luncheon tickets were sold out, and there were two tables, one at 12.30 and one at 1.30 and there were 150 at each table.

The tables were decorated with chrysanthemums and quantities of various colored potted mums were arranged at the windows.

The tables were waited upon by the young ladies of the Auxiliary of the Day Nursery and among the other ladies who assisted at the luncheon were Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Crimmins, Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. Herbert Felton, and Mrs. Clapp.

After the luncheon a very interesting address on Patriotic Food Conservation was given by Miss Darling.

Mrs. George A. Frost, president of the West Newton Day Nursery Association was chairman of the committee on arrangements, and Mrs. Sidney B. Thomas served as treasurer.

The decorations were under the direction of Mrs. Harry L. Ayer and Mrs. Frank B. Witherbee, assisted by Miss Nancy Adams and Mrs. Frank Cutler.

The report of the treasurer and the amount netted at each table will be printed in next week's issue of the Graphic.

Omar terrace, and on an Edison pole on Fairview street. The Telephone Co. was granted attachments on Highland avenue, Bullough park, and Crafts street, the Edison Co. was granted a pole on Homer street and attachments on Bennington street.

The Finance committee reported no action necessary on the resolution that the Mayor direct the Chief of Police to provide revolver practice for the Newton Constabulary, on the ground that the Chief of Police already had ample authority to take such action. The committee also recommended reference to the Mayor of the resolution that $5000 be appropriated for overcoats for the Constabulary while on duty.

The report that it was inexpedient to purchase the furnishings of the old Second Church was taken from the table and accepted.

Various small appropriations were authorized and the board adjourned at 8.14 P.M.

MEN'S CLUB

The annual meeting of the Men's Club of West Newton was held Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Second Church at 6.30, and there was a large attendance.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mr. Henry Whitmore, president; Mr. Ernest F. Lovejoy, vice-president, and Mr. Edward G. Perry, treasurer and secretary.

Following the business meeting Dr. W. F. Porter of Dover, Mass., spoke on the subject, "With The French at the Front."

Dr. Porter, who is a Harvard man was sent to France by the Rockefeller Foundation Institute mainly to study the effect of shock on the soldiers. He was in the trenches, even practically on the "Firing Line" for several months, and his address, which was full of very vivid interesting information, was certainly one of the best addresses on the subject of the war, that the Club has enjoyed.

At the close of the address 92 members sat down to a very enjoyable dinner which was served by Caterer Paxton of Newton. The meeting adjourned about 10 o'clock.

A meeting on Friday, November 23, at 3.15 P. M., in the Methodist Church, Newton Centre, will be addressed by Mrs. Henry W. Peabody. This is part of the nation-wide campaign to inform our people and enlist them in the aid of the passage of the National Prohibition amendment that is to come before the House of Representatives next month. The amendment has already passed the Senate of the U. S., and quick and enthusiastic support of the measure by all Christian Americans will insure its final success.

Similar afternoon rallies are being held all over Eastern Massachusetts previous to the big rally on December 5th, at 4.30 P. M., in Tremont Temple which is to be addressed by Bishop Hughes and Mr. Poling, and from which telegrams to our Senators will be sent in great numbers.

In all the states of the Union this plan of gathering together the people in small and big towns is under way and a big wave of righteous patriotism is calling the people to lift the amendment over. Come and hear and help.

GENTLEMEN'S NIGHT

The W.C.T.U. of West Newton observed Gentlemen's Night Monday evening at the home of Mrs. B. E. Hoar, Webster Park.

The rooms were festively decorated and the social spirit predominated to an unusual degree. Mrs. Helen Foster, State Recording Secretary, traced the growth of interest which resulted in the purchase and opening of the White Kibbion Home for War Welfare work at Ayer. The Home will be open for inspection Thursday, the dedication exercises will take place Friday, November 23, at 3 P. M., and on Saturday it will be ready for use by the soldiers and friends. Extensive alterations are being made on a building upon the estate which will provide a room seating 300, and a dormitory of 13 rooms.

Several readings were given by Mrs. Annie L. Nisson of West Roxbury in response to hearty encores. Mrs. Nisson has been interested in temperance organizations for a long time, and it was a pleasure to listen again to her renditions which are always given so naturally. Refreshments were served by the Union and plans formed for a party of twenty to attend the dedication at Ayer. Several gentlemen present joined, and became honorary members of the Union.

THE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE

Mr. H. W. Orr, President of the Newton Board of Trade has been appointed by the Mass. A Man in Demand

The Bay State leaves a broad, bright streak behind. Here, he makes a house or barn sparkling new; there, a boat, bike or what-not is put in the pink of condition. Then he's off to his next job, in double-quick time.

When you buy paint see that the label says "Bay State," in big, bold letters. Don't let the dealer quibble; remember—"Bay State."

We've a book about this "man in demand" and his paints. Send for it—it's free.

HOLDS FALL MEETING

Civic Club Hears of Work of Public Safety Committee and Local Exemption Board

The fall meeting of the Civic Club of Newton was held Tuesday evening, at the Newton club house, and an interesting and instructive program was heard by a small attendance of members and guests.

President A. Farwell Bemis presided and addresses were made by General James G. White, vice president of the Newton Public Safety Committee, Dr. George L. West and Alderman Bernard Early of the Newton Exemption Board, and Mr. James A. Lowell and Dr. Guy M. Winslow, two of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

General White paid a high tribute to the work of Mr. William F. Gannon, president of the Safety Committee and told of the work and organization of the committee. The committee raised about $16,000 for its work and had endeavored to equip all Newton men in the service with sweaters, socks and other articles for comfort not furnished by the government. Over 2000 articles had thus been provided. They had also aided the families of men in the service who needed assistance. Public meetings had been held, automobiles listed and provided for service, physicians secured to assist dependent families, an Information Bureau had been established to keep records of every Newton man in service, weekly trips were being made to Ayer by the secretary, General White especially commended the work of the Food Conservation committee. This committee had obtained a census of available land, furnished fertilizer and seed potatoes, provided 1800 dozen jars of canning, arranged for 200 school boys to work after school hours, arranged for High School boys to work on farms, increased the number of gardens from 1206 in 1916 to 3390 in 1917, and land cultivated from 236 acres in 1916 to 1,067 in 1917. Nature study in the schools had been succeeded by garden work and 3000 children had received practical instruction on this line and 1400 home gardens were cared for by the children. On military lines, the committee had brought Co. C of the 5th regiment up to its full war strength, furnished the first company for the Mass. State Guard and were now assisting in recruiting enough men to handle a machine gun section for this company. It had furnished the former Co. C with a motor cycle, and a motor truck, part of its equipment and given $900 to the Company fund before they had gone abroad.

DOCKET CLEARED

Local Exemption Board Now Await Further Orders

The Local Exemption Board has cleared its docket of pending cases by granting the following claims for discharge.

329 George W. Hubbard, 32 Jewett 708
1932 Richard S. Sanders, 246 Lexington 711
557 Henry J. Gammons, 729 10 Washington
622 James E. Odell, Jr., 35 Rossmore 730
2401 Donald D. McKay, 22 Aberdeen 761
2617 William S. Schmitt, 180 Carleton 787

The claim of William M. Danner, Jr., of Moreland avenue for exemption was refused and Mr. Danner has filed an appeal to the District Board.

The board has been informed that the following men have enlisted in the U.S. service.

In the Naval Reserve
Henry J. Linn, Parker street
Leo J. Desrosiers, Faxon street
Chas. B. Jefferson, Crescent street
Daniel P. Murphy, Court street
Ralph A. Morrison, Crescent street
Joseph O. Muse, Green street

In the Aviation Corps
Daniel A. Willard, Austin street
John E. Nelson, Washington street
Walter Farquhar, California street
In the First Naval District
Hughes Richardson, Marshall street
Chas. B. Jefferson, Crescent street

The board has been notified that the New Orleans board has examined and disqualified J. Edward Halloran of Walnut street.

Mr. Carey Stevens Lord of Belmont street was examined this week and disqualified from service.

Messrs. Samuel L. Powers, George R. Pulsifer and Elias B. Bishop have been appointed as an advisory board to have charge of lawyers who will assist the men in the draft to fill out the questionnaire as to classification.

To the Lawyers of Newton:
The undersigned have been appointed under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May 18, 1917 as the Legal Advisory Board to the Local Board of Registration for Military Service and to all who are obliged to register before that board.

Within a few days the Questionnaire of some fifteen pages and several hundred questions will be sent to every person in Newton who is subject to the draft. This Questionnaire will be sent not only to those whose numbers have not as yet been reached, but also to those who have been reached and have been exempted. It is obligatory on each person to return the questionnaire within seven days from the time it is mailed to him. There are in Newton over 2400 persons to whom this questionnaire will be sent and a great majority of these persons will need assistance in filling out the questionnaire and answering the questions. This is a service for which members of the bar are peculiarly fitted and it is hoped that all members of the bar living in Newton will without exception volunteer for the purpose of advising registrants of the true meaning and intent of the Selective Service Law and of assisting registrants to make full and truthful answers to the questionnaire and to aid generally in the just administration of the law.

For the purpose of explaining the law and regulations a meeting of all the lawyers in Newton is called for Tuesday evening, December 4th at 7:45 o'clock at the Newton Club. All lawyers should regard it as a duty to attend this meeting and if a sufficient number offer their services, the work can be so arranged that it will not take a large amount of time on the part of any one man.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Rev. Oscar B. Hawes Honored by Men's Club of Newton Centre M. E. Church

About two weeks ago, Rev. Oscar B. Hawes, pastor of the Newton Centre Unitarian Church, told his friends that he had been accepted by the Examining Board of the Y.M.C.A. and was going abroad with a regular commission under army control.

His going is in no sense a resignation, but he has been given a year's leave of absence. At his last pastoring in Philadelphia, Mr. Hawes was very successful in organizing and administering social work in Philadelphia, and he has had experience along the same general lines in which he will work now. Denominational lines seem to be entirely forgotten in the realization that the work Mr. Hawes is about to engage in is of a practical sort for the sons and brothers of the people of this village.

The idea of giving him a farewell reception originated in the Methodist church, and on Wednesday evening, under the direction of the Men's Club, an informal reception was held, to which the pastors and congregations of the neighboring churches were invited.

At 8 o'clock a number of friends and clergymen assembled in the parish rooms, which were decorated for the occasion with American flags.

Rev. J. E. Wagner, pastor of the Methodist Church, presided; Rev. Emory W. Hunt, pastor of the Baptist Church, led the prayer, and the speakers were Mr. James Butler Studley, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Unitarian Church, Mr. Frank H. Stewart, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Congregational Church; Mr. H. H. Kendall of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Edward M. Noyes, pastor of the Congregational Church, who spoke for the ministers of all the churches.

All referred in the kindest terms to the great sacrifice Mr. Hawes is making, in leaving home and friends to go abroad and engage in the Y.M.C.A. work.

A number of the State Guard were present in uniform, and Mr. Hawes was also in uniform. During the intermissions patriotic songs were sung, with accompaniments by the organist, Mr. Leon A. Morrell.

Mr. Hawes will sail December 1 for "somewhere in France."

NEWTON BOYS AT AYER

Interesting Events in the Military Life at Camp Devens

Camp Devens, Mass., November 19th, 1917.
Editor Newton Graphic:
No doubt many of your readers will be interested to hear a little news in regard to the boys who have been called to duty at this Camp from the Garden City. The life which we have been leading up here certainly has been an interesting one and a great many changes have taken place in the line of transfer, etc., which might prove of interest to the people of Newton. The second forty percent. is the group of Newton men who have been dealt the hardest blow on the transfer question.

I am quoting below for the information of your readers, the list of Newton men who have been sent from this camp to Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., there to join the forces of the National Guard units which have been stationed at that point, which units had not been filled up to war strength at the time the Newton men were drafted:

2853 Vincent Zielenieczuk, 14 Lyman	465

In the second forty percent from Newton we had a George W. Smith of 28 Bowen street, his profession before the draft being that of an actor. He has been prominent in such productions as "Fair and Warmer" and other large productions. He also did a large amount of stock work. He has been shipped to the Aviation Base at Mineola, L. I., where he is acting in the capacity of clerk. Latest reports from George indicate that he is enjoying life in Long Island, his only regret being that he is so far removed from his home.

The Newton men who were originally assigned to the Batteries and Headquarters Companies, that is, the first forty-five percent, are practically unchanged. There are only a few of the second forty from Newton left in this Camp and the following is the list of those men who have been retained in the 35th Company, 9th Battalion Depot Brigade:

3006 Paul W. Atwood,
2394 Washington	435
2011 Roger E. Plant, 427 Chestnut	524
2536 Winthrop Bancroft, 672 Chestnut	538
1712 Chester E. Bonney, 80 Crescent	557
1510 William B. Carey, 32 Washington	528
1229 Giuseppe Castagnino, 84 Border	557

Over the Top for Christmas

NEVER has the world experienced just such a Christmas as this of 1917—possibly never again.

Economy being the spirit of the times—gifts of utility should be considered.

A plate glass top for any or all furniture in the home—a beautiful art mirror for the hall, den or reception room are sensible, attractive, and lasting.

It matters not how expensive or how cheap the furniture or to what period it may belong—it can be improved and protected by the plate glass top.

We are pleased to have requests for prices and information. We can fit any style top.

NEW GARAGE

The new garage which Mr. Crawford is having erected for him is progressing rapidly. The building sets back six feet from the street; is 60 feet wide and 150 feet long. The garage is entirely fireproof construction, steel window frames everywhere except on the Elmwood street front; steel trusses and reinforced concrete roof.

The interior of the building is lined with light brick so as to give the maximum amount of natural and artificial light, and without a post anywhere in its floor space, thus making it vastly superior to any of its competitors in this line.

The office and supply room are next to the street, and Mr. Crawford's undertaking business will be appropriately cared for in the most up-to-date manner. Both Mr. Crawford and the public are greatly to be congratulated on this handsome and up-to-date building, which will add so much to the usefulness of this section.

FUNDS WANTED

Many boys from Newton are now in France with the 101st regiment, U. S. Field Artillery, eighty-one in Battery B. The Ladies' Auxiliary, which meets at the Allston Armory, is working in the interest of this regiment. Funds are greatly needed. Contributions will be much appreciated and gratefully acknowledged. Lillian M. Stuart, Secretary and Treasurer, Auxiliary, 101st Regiment, U. S. Field Artillery, 122 Cabot Park, Newton, Mass.

CITY HALL

Mr. Walter T. W. Terrio of Pearl street, Newton, who has acted as paymaster since last spring, has enlisted in the Naval Reserve and reports for duty today.

DEATH OF MR. COLESWORTHY

Mr. George Ide Coleworthy, a resident of Newtonville for twenty-two years, died Monday night at his home, 26 Page road, after an illness of many years. He was sixty-two years of age and a native of Nantucket. For thirty-six years he was associated with the North Packing & Provision Co., and for a part of that time had been one of the district managers. He is survived by a widow and one daughter, Miss Helen N. Coleworthy.

Private funeral services were held yesterday at his late home, Rev. Mr. Waldron officiating, and the interment was at Nantucket.

The Board of Directors of the Watertown Co-operative Bank have declared the usual quarterly dividend at the rate of 5 3/4 per cent. on un-matured shares and 5 per cent. on matured share certificates for three months ending December 27, 1917. This bank has increased its assets during the fiscal year $355,368.18; they now amount to $1,635,873.66. There are 31,383 un-matured shares in force held by 2938 members. There are outstanding 1453 matured shares represented by certificates, amounting to $290,600. These are in the possession of 209 holders. The bank has no real estate on hand and no borrower is more than six months in arrears. A new series of shares is now being offered. Herbert E. Mayo, President, and Ulysses S. Young, Treasurer.

FORGOTTEN SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

The list of the savings banks' depositors who have made no deposit, or withdrawn any part of their deposits or interest for twenty years, published in another part of this paper, offers food for reflection.

Read the list carefully. Even if you are not acquainted with the depositors you may know someone who is. The list will interest, and may offer the opportunity to serve a friend.

THIS IS FOR YOU SMOKERS!

By E. E. Harriman

(Written for "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund")

Editor's Note.—This newspaper will receive and turn over to "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund," all contributions to pay for tobacco for the soldiers. Each dollar pays for four packages, with a total retail value of at least $1.80. In each package is placed a postcard bearing the name and address of the contributor. The soldier receiving the package agrees to send a message on the card to his unknown friend back home. You get your thanks from an American soldier in the trenches.

I read the appeal to the women of Great Britain taken from the Win-the-War Cookery Book and printed with the Vigilante stuff. I have read a lot about making the women economize in the kitchens and it is good stuff. It is needed in many kitchens all over the land, but listen, you fellows, how hard have you listened for the appeal to you? Well, cock your ear now and hearken, for here it comes.

Down in the deep mud of the Flanders trenches and the cold rains of autumn and winter, soon will be standing thousands of our boys. They will suffer from trench feet and colds and pneumonia and cramps and every other ill that is induced by wet and inclement weather. When a soldier boy has stood in icy water till his feet are numb and the horrible numbness is creeping upward to his vitals, when the muscles on his thighs knot with cramp and his throat is beginning to gather a raw soreness and the night seems endless, you can do something to help him wait with patience.

What? Why you can split fifty-fifty with him. Not in standing grimly ready to fight, not in watching the hell fires of battle, you can not grip a rifle with a sharp bayonet attached to its muzzle and race with him to the other trenches and rip up a Boche who screams horribly as you do it. Oh no, not that at all. You will be in your office or your bed while he is doing that, which makes your part seem all the smaller. What you can do, and you should do it right now, is to make an estimate in generous figures of the money you spend for tobacco every month. Let the estimate take in all your own smokes and the box of cigars you gave your brother-in-law last Christmas and those you hand out to business associates and others with whom you wish to curry favor.

Then, when you have made the estimate, and are sure you have not fudged the thickness of your thumb-nail, then split that amount in half and say to your soul, "Soul, rest content with the half portion which is your portion hereafter. The other half goes to the boys in the trenches, every month as long as the war lasts. God bless them. Because they are there, I may escape getting into a trench on this side, and I don't begrudge the sacrifice."

Then smoke one cigar where you smoke two now and give to your friend one cigar where you formerly gave two and tell him just why you do it, that he may go and do likewise. And by the doing you will attain great merit, which you will feel as a warm spot in the left breast, and your health will improve, for, it is well known to your wife that you smoke too much now. Furthermore, the frosty nose of some poor devil in a trench will grow warm over the smoke you denied yourself and his prayers will go up for you every time he bites the tip off a new one. And just to set the ball rolling and show that your heart is in the idea along to every good fellow whom you see blowing smoke as a whole blows mist. And we can call ourselves The Art and Art Society.

REAL ESTATE

Thru the office of Alvord Bros., the following sales have been made: H. C. Bourne and E. H. Gratto have sold to George Taylor, the large new cement house on Bullock Park facing Bullock Pond. There are about 12,000 square feet of land and garage. The property being new is not yet assessed, but is valued at about $15,000. C. C. Streeter and C. D. Young have sold to George Taylor lots of land on Bullock Park adjoining the above property, containing about 5300 square feet.

Leases: The Stearns house 27 Stearns street, to A. E. White. Apartment in the new stucco house 14 Ransom road, to Pearl S. McCranie. 72 Oxford road, corner Brownbridge road, to S. B. Phillips. THE NEWTON BLUE BOOK

A canvass is now being made for the Newton Blue Book, which due the last of December. It makes its appearance annually about the same time and proves a welcome guest to its many patrons. It will contain lists of the principal residents, street directory, societies, clubs, etc., diagrams of principal Boston theatres. The subscription price $2.00 brings it within the reach of all who are interested in a book of reference. It is published by the Boston Suburban Book Co., Old South Building, Room 1013, Boston, 2t.

Notice Is Herely Given that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Frank F. McLeod late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon itself that trust by giving bond a direct law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY, Adm. (Address) 148 State Street, Boston. November 28th, 1917. Nov. 30-Dec. 7-14.

moved from the heart of New York City. Of course George would like to run over and see how the latest Broadway productions are coming along.

Herbert Goodrich Thompson of 209 Walnut street has been given a great deal of praise by the boys of the 35th Company. He came to camp with the rest of the "Second Forty" and was only here a short time when he underwent an operation in order to fit himself for service. His operation was very successful. He had taken an examination for the Aviation School and after coming out of the hospital was pleased to receive his notice of transfer to the Aviation Base in Texas, where he is located at the present time.

James S. Dwyer of 17 Park street, a prominent garage owner of Newton has been transferred from the 35th Company to the Quartermaster Corps where he will act as a chauffeur.

Chester E. Bonney of 89 Crescent street has been transferred to the 35th Company, 9th Battalion, the battalion headquarters, where he is acting as a clerk to the Battalion Commander.

Joseph H. Goodman of 339 Lowell street, formerly a sergeant in Company C, 5th Regiment, National Guard from the City of Newton, while skirmishing with a squad from the 35th Company during the past week sustained an injury to his right leg, injuring a cartilage in the knee. He is now in the Base Hospital receiving treatment. The boys have missed "Joe" since he went into the hospital as he has kept the music rolling for the crowd since he came into camp.

John Stringillo of 374 Watertown street, is doing the honors as the Company carpenter, and is receiving a lot of praise for his work as a cabinet maker.

Philip D. Woodbridge, of 281 Otis street, who was before the draft medical student at Harvard Medical School, has been transferred from the 35th Company to the Hospital Unit and is now stationed at one of the infirmaries in the camp.

Ernest J. Chadd, one of the first five per cent., is, I understand, a mess sergeant, while Francis J. Martin of the same quota, is, I understand, is located somewhere in England, having been one of the men who were shipped to Westfield and then overseas.

Shortly after the boys arrived in the camp the Liberty Loan drive was making headway and there are very few soldiers in the camp who at the present time are not having five, ten or fifteen dollars per month deducted from their pay to cover bonds which they purchased in Camp. The majority of the boys have allotments running covering bonds in the amount of $100. Another thing that the boys have taken a great deal of interest in is the new system of war insurance. The amount of insurance sold to the soldiers in the camp has been tremendous, the figure being untabulated to date. Needless to say, the Newton boys did their share by buying policies as high as possible, many of them having policies in the amount of $10,000. It is a system of insurance which is somewhat similar to the Workmen's Compensation Insurance. Each soldier automatically insured in the amount of $4500, which is payable to his dependents in installments. After deducting the various allotments which the boys have made from their monthly pay of $30, they have but very little left.

Orvil Hickox is attached to the colonel's office at the 301st field artillery and is acting in the capacity of clerk. A piece of news which might be of interest is that the steam heat has been turned on in full blast up here and there are not very many nights when we have to suffer with the cold. The hot water shower baths are monopolized each evening, and the boys are "ticked" now with all the conveniences which they have at hand. As a whole the boys from Newton are enjoying life in Camp Devens immensely, and are learning fast all the drilling which goes to make up a real soldier. No doubt your readers have noticed a considerable change in the make-up of the boys from Newton who were drafted and are now wearing Uncle Sam's uniform.

FUNERAL OF MR. WARD

The funeral services for Mr. Samuel Ward, who died last week Thursday at his home on Crescent avenue, Newton Centre, were held Sunday afternoon in the First Church, Newton Centre, and were largely attended.

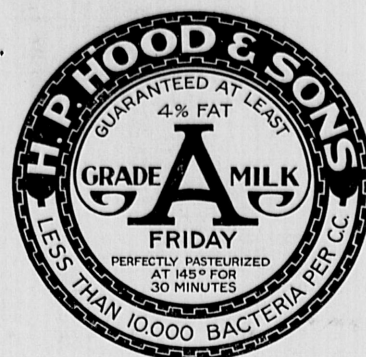

Rev. Edward M. Noyes, conducted the services, introduced Rev. William E. Huntington who spoke feelingly of his long association with Mr. Ward. Chas. C. Kelsey, Superintendent of the Sunday School spoke of Mr. Ward's work in the church, and Mr. George S. Smith recalled Mr. Ward's high standing in the business community, his sincere, honest and careful attention to all details of business life. Rev. William H. Cobb, of college classmate of Mr. Ward offered the closing prayer.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John T. Lamond, president of the Samuel Ward Manufacturing Company; James R. Carter of West Newton; Rev. William H. Cobb; Dr. Ezra S. Taft of Cambridge, another of Mr. Ward's classmates; Arthur C. Walworth and Burton Payne Gray, both of Newton Centre. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

HEAD OF RESERVE BANK

Mr. Charles A. Morris, of Chestnut Hill, treasurer of the Simplex Wire & Cable Company, and a director in the Federal Reserve Bank, has been elected governor of the bank to succeed Alfred L. Aiken, who has held the office since the opening of the bank. Mr. Morris is expected to take office before January 1, relieving Mr. Aiken so that the latter may enter upon his new duties as president of the National Shawmut Bank. Col. William A. Gaston will continue as head of the Shawmut, although his resignation has been accepted, until Mr. Aiken takes charge.

The Richest Milk

Massachusetts Standard Milk contains 3.35% fat, and as long as it contains this can be sold. Hood's Grade "A" Milk must contain at least 4.00% fat. Every one-tenth of one per cent. of butter fat that milk contains more than the law requires makes it worth more money; it is a richer food.

The fat percentage of Hood's Grade "A" Milk is stamped on the cap of the bottle. Look at the seal above. The milk must contain at least 4.00% fat or it would be mislabeled. Hood's Grade "A" Milk is clean milk and it is rich milk; one of the cheapest foods you can buy, easily digested, containing no waste and guaranteed by the seal on the jar. Hood's Grade "A" Milk is the ideal food for children and grown-ups.

AN INVITATION

WE are anxious that all music lovers shall know by personal experience what the Vocalion can do. We cannot translate into words its tonal qualities. We therefore invite you and your friends to visit our store between nine A.M. and five P.M. Hear, in a private room, any records you desire—to be played for you. Convenient, we suggest that you bring with you one or two of your own familiar records.

Perhaps play the Aeolian-Vocalion yourself. Hear how sweetly it brings out the buried beauties that records were not known to possess. You need not feel the slightest obligation for this really amazing experience. Consider it rather a favor granted us—in spreading the knowledge of the Aeolian-Vocalion among music lovers.

You are welcome today, or any day.

LOWE—MEAD

At noon, November 24, at Allentown, Pa., Miss Rose Chapin Mead was married to Mr. Carlos B. Lowe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. D. Huber in the Selbert Evangelical Church, corner of Ninth and Liberty streets.

Mr. Lowe is enlisted in the Wellesley Unit of the United States Army Ambulance Service, now training at Allentown. He was attended by Mr. Robert Gilman, also a member of Unit 605.

Miss Mead was given in marriage by Miss M. L. Stone, a teacher in the Manual Training High School of Brooklyn, N. Y., with whom she had made her home while completing the course in that school. The maid-of-honor was Miss Helen W. West of Trenton, N. J.

The bride wore a fur-trimmed suit of taupe broadcloth and pan velvet, with large black hat, and carried white chrysanthemums and ferns; the maid of honor wore a broadcloth gown in two tones of brown with hat to match, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Stone wore a dark traveling suit with a close hat in shades of dahlia red.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. William Tomlinson, of West Newton, Mass., the former being a cousin and business partner of Mr. Lowe; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benner of Allentown; and Mrs. Huber.

The strains of the Lohengrin wedding march announced the arrival of the wedding party. The groom and best man proceeded to the altar by the south aisle; the maid of honor led down the north aisle followed by the bride leaning on Miss Stone's arm.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Hotel Allen. The party was seated at a round table in a private diningroom. The decorations were yellow and white.

Mr. Lowe was born in Newfane, Vt., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Lowe, and for the past ten years has been in the hardware business in West Newton.

Mrs. Lowe was born in Hinsdale, N. H., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Mead. After finishing high school she completed a course at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia. She taught in the Stroudsburg, Pa., High School, and is now teaching in the New Jersey State Normal School at Trenton.

Because of the uncertainty of Mr. Lowe's transfer to foreign service and the shortness of his furlough, a quiet wedding was decided upon, and no cards were issued.

Mrs. Lowe will spend a short vacation in Allentown, and will then resume her teaching in Trenton.

AUBURNDALE REAL ESTATE

Agreements have been signed through the office of E. Burnard Squire for the sale of the new colonial cottage at 156 Melrose street, together with 13,000 feet of land owned by Mary E. Edmunds. Property is not yet assessed, but is valued at $4700.

USE WOOD

James J. Storrow, the State Fuel Administrator, urges the Newton Committee on Public Safety to encourage the use of wood for fuel whenever possible.

This request is, of course, made to conserve as much as possible for industries connected with war work, and to allow vessels and other means of transportation to be used for purposes other than carrying coal.

The Newton Committee on Public Safety hopes that Newton citizens will heed this request.

A GOOD PLAN

To meet the present war conditions the retail coal dealers of Newton have voluntarily agreed to sell any size coal they have on hand in 100, 200, or 300-pound lots at their yards without cost of delivery at a price not exceeding at any time the ton price of same coal delivered.

This will make it possible for small buyers of coal to be sure that they are paying no more for their coal at the yard than the dealers are charging their customers for the same coal per ton when delivered to their customers.

We trust this will materially help our people through the Winter without suffering.

The Fuel Committee of Newton.

The Newton Fuel Committee has received complaints that Newton coal dealers are not supplying the size coal which is desired. The Fuel Committee has no jurisdiction over matters of this kind and the local dealers are doing all in their power to provide coal of some size, and consumers should be thankful that they can get coal even if it is not the size desired.

The B. S. Hatch Co., offers the valuable suggestion that consumers ought to give the coal dealers a reasonable time, say 48 hours in which to make deliveries, and not wait until the last possible moment before actually needing the coal. Labor conditions are such that time will be needed in order to fill coal orders.

NEW TELEPHONE BOOK

The new Boston telephone directory, now being distributed, is printed four columns to the page, after the style of the New York directory, whose typographical arrangement was determined under the direction of Prof. J. W. Baird of the Psychological Laboratory of Clark University, Worcester.

The bulk of the new book is still further reduced by printing as a separate directory what was known as Part 2 of the old book. It was found that only a comparatively small percentage of calls was made between subscribers in Part 1 and those in Part 2, and that these two parts could well be made two separate books and large economies effected if arrangements were made to provide both books to such subscribers as needed them.

The change is the result of a study made because of the scarcity of white paper, and in connection with requests for paper economies made by the Federal Trade Commission and the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety. The Boston directory, with upwards of 800 pages, was fast growing cumbersome and unwieldy, and with approximately 300,000 copies per issue was a heavy consumer of paper. The proposed changes in the directory, while adding to its convenience as a reference book, will effect a paper saving of 120 tons, per issue.

The type of the new book is set 11 lines to the inch, instead of 12 as in the old, to effect a slight contraction in the width of the column. There is also a marked change in the binding. The use of wire staples has been abandoned, and the new book lies flat no matter at what page it is opened, thus making it easier for the user to find a desired number.

This fall and winter directory was delayed more than a month because the paper mill which makes its cover stock was temporarily commandeered by the government in connection with special war needs, and private orders had to wait.

REAL ESTATE

Edmonds & Byfield report the sale of the property No. 472 Dedham St., Oak Hill, Newton Centre, for Adelaide Ovington, to Mary E. Fisher of Arlington, who buys for a home. The estate consists of ten acres of land with modern dwelling and out-buildings, all valued at $15,000.

The Lauriat Company is now holding a preliminary gift-book sale that is giving early buyers a chance to choose from a wonderful collection of the leading gift-books of the past few seasons, at just half of the ordinary net prices. This sale will last only a few days as the lot will be quickly sold out. The company's annual holiday catalogue is in process of mailing and patrons may receive copies free by calling or sending address for mailing. The catalogue will be found of a great deal of practical assistance in choosing books for young or old.

EDITORIAL

While the city election is two weeks away, the voters of the city ought to consider the question which will be on the ballot, in regard to the tenure of office of the Chief of the Fire Department. If adopted, it will rescind the provisions of the present pension act applicable to Newton firemen, so far as the chief himself is concerned. The present law provides that permanent members of the Fire Department retire from active service at the age of 65 years, but that the chief may be continued in office by the annual and favorable action of the aldermen. The proposed act will rescind this provision and prevent the retirement of the chief except under charges made by the mayor, or through physical disability. No one has the slightest intention of doing anything detrimental to our present chief of Fire Department, who has been an able and most satisfactory official for many years, but it does seem advisable to retain the special act drawn for this city and not abandon it for a general law applicable to the entire Commonwealth. Vote NO on this measure.

After the careful investigation of claims for military exemption made by the local board, the action of the District 5 board in reversing 75 per cent. is not complimentary to the discernment or the judgment of the latter. Incidentally, it might be well for the War Department to take a hand and see if the District Board ought not to be reversed itself.

Newton young men are to be congratulated at the showing they have made at the Plattsburg camp just closed. The number of commissions credited to residents of this city is decidedly flattering, and indicates the calibre of the youth of this city.

The first Thanksgiving many of us have ever known under war conditions. God grant that it may be the last as well.

LAWRENCE CLUB TO ENTERTAIN

Enlisted men of the Navy, from Charlestown, will give an entertainment at Norwoburg Hall, Auburndale, on Saturday night, at 8 o'clock. The entertainment will be held under the auspices of the Lawrence Club, Church of the Messiah, and the Auburndale Home Hospitality Committee for Soldiers and Sailors have arranged hospitality over the week end for about twenty-five sailors who will visit Auburndale at that time. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the Naval Welfare Fund.

BRAE BURN CLUB

One hundred men from the Radio School enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner as guests of the Club. Mr. Edward J. Frost of Auburndale entertained fourteen guests at dinner on Thanksgiving. Other members who entertained at dinner were Mr. George P. Bullard of West Newton; Mr. C. D. Smith of Boston, who had a party of twenty; Mr. Harry E. Duncan of Newtonville; Mrs. Arthur Foote of Brookline; Mr. F. Winthrop Batchelder of Newton; Mr. George G. Livermore of Watertown; Dr. Courtland Myers of Boston; Mr. V. C. Stanley, and Mrs. Cutler of Boston.

LETTERS FROM ABROAD

Seaford, Sussex, Oct. 14, 1917
Before the U. S. declared war against Germany, I went up to Vancouver from the State of Washington, where I was visiting to offer my services to the Canadian Army. I was accepted after a stiff medical examination and joined the University of British Columbia Battalion. After having been a soldier for one day I was sent by my Commanding Officer to the Royal School of Infantry where I qualified as a Lieutenant (an odd thing for an American in a foreign country). At the school I donned the red coat which you know the old timers wore when we were at war with England. Little did I dream I would ever wear the "red coat," and for three months underwent a strenuous course of training under officers who had been under fire in France and knew the game as it is now played. We worked from morning until night, drill, study, lectures, and drill again, bomb throwing, trench digging, and what not. Upon the last day of examination a telegram came from Headquarters ordering me to report at once at Hastings Park, Vancouver as I was to proceed overseas for training in England. Leaving Victoria, where the School was situated I proceeded to Vancouver where I reported to my Commanding Officer. Taking off the "red coat" (this was the dress for cadets only) I put on for the first time the famous "khaki" and I felt at once proud and at peace with all to think I was going to fight for the cause of Democracy against Autocracy thereby doing "my bit" even tho' it be under a flag other than my own.

American's great day, the month of July, we boarded the Canadian Pacific Railroad's cars and began our long trans-continental trip getting a wonderful send-off, music and cheers from the good people of Vancouver. A beautiful trip over the Canadian Rockies and across the prairies of Alberta and Saskatchewan. At every stage stop we were met by hundreds of people to cheer us on, giving us magazines, cherries, candies, etc. Whenever we came to a river the train was stopped and the boys took to the water like ducks. No one not even the officer commanding knew our destination or date of embarkation, and when we arrived in Ottawa we were ordered to that great camp "Valcartier" situated in Quebec. I think the transport was not ready or we missed it, nevertheless we staid at Valcartier for a month and went through some intensive training. We were not received warmly in Quebec but rather chilly I should say, as you know in Quebec there is not much love for the army.

Training at Valcartier was a killy battalion and there were some 600 boys from Boston in it. Perhaps you remember when their bagpipers were in Boston. Suddenly one day we were ordered overseas and believe me there was some singing and cheering as everyone was anxious to get to England as a matter of fact, we were to sleep for anyone that night. The next day we left camp with kit bags and a few pounds of white sugar apiece (as white sugar is very scarce in England) for the city of Quebec where we waited at the dock looking up the St. Lawrence River for a boat but none in sight. After waiting three hours we topped were told to come our way from Montreal and we were put on board a tug and transferred in the middle of the stream on to the R. M. S., which was a luxurious passenger steamer and assigned to first class staterooms there being only a couple of hundred on board. The sail down the St. Lawrence as anyone who has had the pleasure is indeed glorious. We docked at Halifax after three days' sailing and took about a thousand more on board, and then sailed towards the great struggle which is being waged in France. There were six ships in the convoy, two of them were filled with the dear old Yankee boys. A day out and everyone had to put on life belts and were compelled to wear them at all times and when the ten days' voyage was up everyone was so used to them that they seemed part of the soldiers' uniform. We zig-zagged our course over and passed safely into port without a bit of trouble. Two days before landing we met a half a dozen torpedo boats and they took us in. In the evening we docked and boarded those queer English trains for London, at every station we picked up "Tommies" on their way back to the trenches after a short stay with loved ones. I talked with some of them and they all had been in France doing their bit for "King and country" for a year and a half or more. They had their full equipment with them, rifle, gas-masks, steel helmets, etc., and some load it was, but they all seemed cheerful and could sleep standing up (there were no sleeping cars).

Upon arrival in London we took another train for our camp there, undergoing the most realistic battle training which I will write to you of next week.

GEORGE SUNDLING.

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS ABROAD

The following extracts are from a recent letter by a Newton young woman who is with the Brigham Hospital unit, "somewhere in France."

"It has been raining here steadily for over a week, and a couple of days it hailed so hard and heavy that it would cut you in the face. It is also very cold and gives us some idea of what winter here is going to be. We got our sleeping bags from the London chapter of the American Red Cross. They are fine, real, brown, heavy blankets. It has been so cold that we have been sleeping in them with four blankets, flannel night gown and bathrobe on—so you can know how cold it was."

I got your box of peanuts and I guess I need not tell you how good they tasted or how short a time they lasted as all the Brigamites soon devoured them. It is really funny how excited we all get when one of us gets a box from home with real American food. Helen got a box with a lot of Walter Baker sweet chocolate. We made hot chocolate to drink out of it as we don't need to have sugar to put in it, sugar being a very scarce article here. We cannot buy sugar in any of the canteens and we are only issued so much by the army as sugar ration. When we run short of it before our supply comes, we drink our tea and coffee without. If it isn't too much trouble I wish you would send peanuts and salted nuts regularly as they are so good and such a change from what we get.

I am on duty in one of the huts, which is quite fortunate for this weather that we are having although I had a good deal of that weather on nights in the tents. The girls on duty in the tents have had to keep their rubber boots on all the time while working. You should see us all going back and forth from the sisters' quarters to the wards in our brown coats, rubber boots and sou'westers, we look like an extensive advertisement for Uneda biscuits.

There are only three huts to our hospital, the rest being tents. The severest wounded men are sent there those requiring amputation of limbs, brain wounds, etc. I have the American boy who had his two legs amputated as a result of the air raid. He is expecting to return to U. S. A. soon as he is all healed now. He has acquired the same cheerful spirit as the rest of the patients in spite of his dreadful catastrophe. He was talking to one of the other patients, today, who had an arm amputated. He told him that as he had no lap and the other patient had no arm they would go fifty-fifty and he would let his girl sit on the other patient's lap while he hugged her.

Although we are working dreadfully hard we are happy and most hopeful because of the wonderful work that has been done on the last "push" up the line. Haven't the Australians done wonderful as in fact they all have. And they are just as wonderful patients, the most cheerful, optimistic people you could ever meet in spite of their wounds and the hardships they have endured, standing for days, knee and often waist deep in mud and rain.

But cheer up, it will soon be "capes in quivers" and we will all be home in dear old U. S. A. but until that time we couldn't even let ourselves think of that, any more than the soldiers up the line would think of deserting their post. Our duty is here and I am often thankful that I was through training in time to come over "to do my little bit."

WOMAN'S CLUBS

Mrs. G. M. Winslow, a former member of the Auburndale Review Club, graciously opened her home on Tuesday for the regular meeting of the club.

After the business session the morning's program opened with a piano duet, the final movement of Haydn's First Symphony, by Mrs. Franklin Leland and Mrs. Nelson Freeman. Miss Harriette Hunt read an instructively interesting paper on the evolution of the pianoforte.

The two papers following dealt with some of the great sonata writers. Mrs. W. C. Gordon described the brilliancy of Scarlatti's work, and Mrs. Leland played most skillfully one of his compositions. Mrs. Gordon then told us of Kuhnau, who wrote the first compositions called sonatas, of C. P. E. Bach, of Haydn and Mozart, after which Miss Sally Turner sang, with her usual feeling and expression, a pastoral lay by Haydn entitled "My Mother Hides Me Behind My Hair," also a beautiful song, "The Violet," of which the words were written by Goethe and the music by Mozart.

Mrs. J. F. Rider's paper told much of interest concerning John Sebastian Bach, the father of modern music and sometimes called "The Giant of Music," and of Beethoven, who composed much of his wonderful music after he was attacked by incurable deafness. In the course of this paper, Mrs. Freeman played a Fugue from Bach, and Miss Turner sang one of his songs.

This very interesting program closed with what Miss Turner called a perfect song, because the words and music were so perfectly blended. The song was "Longings," of which Goethe wrote the words and Beethoven the music.

The members of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands and their friends made a large audience to greet Miss Mary Boyle O'Reilly on Tuesday evening. The subject was "The Women behind the War," and for over an hour Miss O'Reilly held the closest attention with her wonderful experiences as "Sister Mary" in many countries in the war zone.

"The Star Spangled Banner" was sung at the close, led by Miss Mary A. Newhall.

Mrs. W. M. Leonard made a request for the entertainment of our soldiers and sailors for week ends or Sundays. Fifty-six are to dine in our village Thanksgiving day and later on two homes will be opened for a dance.

NEWTON WOMAN'S CLUB

At the regular meeting of the Newton Woman's Club, Thursday, November 22nd, at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Nagle, Kirkstall road, Newtonville, Miss Grace Page of the Leland Powers' School, delighted her audience with her artistic rendition of Sheldom's "Romance."

A pleasant social hour with refreshments followed.

Are Your PICTURES Suffering?

How many years since an expert has examined them?

It is the rule for owners of pictures to neglect them until their condition is so bad that the expense of their restoration is many times as great as if they had received proper care.

We give especial attention to restoration, framing and regilding, and the quality of our work is unsurpassed.

Our Carriage-Robane Shop, headed by Mr. Hermann Dudley Murphy, unquestionably America's most original and artistic designer of frames, has been the leading influence in the development of taste in framing for the last dozen years.

The four to be elected will be voted on by the preferential ballot system at a special church meeting, the date to be announced later.

PRIZES AWARDED

In the assembly hall of the Technical High School Wednesday morning the cash prizes awarded by a Newton citizen for the best vegetables grown in war gardens by pupils of the school were awarded. The prizes totaled $100 and were divided into $25 for first place, $15 for second and $10 for third. The girls who won were, in order, Margaret L. McLean, Elizabeth Hardy and Anna Mooney. Harold Brown was given the first boys' prize, John Conroy the second, and the third was divided between Raymond Heishlein and William Whelan. In addition 10 bronze medals were given for honorable mention. The judges were Alfred McDonald, who is superintendent of nature study in the school; John W. Paul and Frederick A. Ward, both of Newton Centre.

The medals were won by Edward Parkhurst, Frances Iggo, James E. Miligan, Catherine Connolly, Lauretta Carley, Edward J. Motherway, Clifton Temperley, Elmer P. Priest, Kathleen Desmond, and Marjorie Burnham.

HUNNEWELL CLUB

The Annual Thanksgiving Assembly on Tuesday evening, at the Hunnewell Club was a very pleasant social affair and about one hundred members and their guests were present.

Russell's Orchestra of five pieces furnished excellent music, and during the intermission refreshments were served in the dining hall.

The tables were decorated attractively with white chrysanthemums. The ladies who poured were Mrs. Henry I. Harriman, Mrs. Clarence C. Smith, Mrs. Duncan M. Stewart, and Mrs. Edward O. Gruener.

TRINITY CHURCH

Evening Service at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, December 2, will be a special patriotic service centering around the unveiling and dedication of permanent tablets in the church, carrying the Roll of Honor of the names of men of the parish who have gone into the service.

The record of the achievements of these men, so far as they are now known, will be read, and a special address of interest to all who have loved ones "over there" will be delivered by the Rector who will speak on "The Secret of Serenity: How to be at Peace When the Troop Ship Sails."

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Some people have seemed to think that because the club women are keeping up their club meetings and other activities that they are not doing their share in the war relief work. To show that this is not true the Club Editor proposes to tell the club women from time to time what special things the clubs are doing or have done in this line. It is not possible to secure the data to use all at once, so no club need feel neglected if it is not mentioned this week.

On the south side of the city the Newton Centre Woman's Club took a $100 Liberty Bond of the first issue, and a $50 one of the second issue. It has contributed $50 to the Y.M.C.A. Red Triangle Drive, and has given $10 each year since the war began to the Christmas Fund for the children's relief. It did Red Cross work at the beginning of the war, and last spring took the initiative in forming the Women's Associates of that village. At Newton Highlands the Woman's Club likewise was responsible for the Women's Associates there, the Civics committee making the start. That club took five $50 Liberty Bonds. The Monday Club of the same village has two $50 Liberty Bonds, and gave $25 to the Women's Associates. One of its members is the president of that organization, and the two chairmen of the work committee are also Monday Club women. At Auburndale, the Woman's Club purchased two $100 Liberty Bonds. It has contributed to the local Red Cross, to the Junior Red Cross, to the Navy League, to the Library Fund, to the War Camp Community Fund, has adopted a French orphan, while half the proceeds of the Garden City Fair, $450, went to the Newton Public Safety committee. It is carrying on a large work on surgical dressings, having an evening class for young women who are occupied during the day, and one all day on Fridays. The club also has a committee on Home Hospitality for the soldiers and sailors.

These are merely hints at what is being done, and any further information from other clubs will be heartily welcomed.

Local Announcements

Mrs. H. W. Drew will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club tomorrow afternoon, when the study of King Henry IV, Part II, will be begun under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Moore.

The Christian Era Study Club will meet on Monday, December 3, with Mrs. N. L. Grant, 208 Melrose street, Auburndale.

Monday afternoon will see the opening of the remodeled clubhouse of the Brighthelmstone Club. It will be New Members' and Daughters' Day. There will be a musical program and reception.

The Newton Highlands C.L.S.C. will meet with Mrs. William T. Logan of Forest street on December 3.

On December 3 Mrs. J. S. Patton entertains the Monday Club of Newton Highlands for the regular meeting.

Mrs. William C. Collar will speak on Bernard Shaw at the meeting of the Waban Woman's Club on Monday afternoon to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Earle Parker, Metacomet road.

Mrs. Joseph Lovell of Otis street will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Mothers' Club next Monday. Miss Jordan of the children's department of the Boston Public Library will be the speaker.

"A Day in Russia with Song and Story" is the subject of the meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club next Tuesday afternoon. There will be songs by Mr. W. J. Spaulding, accompanied by Mrs. Spaulding, and piano solos by Miss Alma Suren. The meeting will be held at the Congregational chapel and the members of the Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be the subject guests, since Russia is the subject which they are considering this year.

On Tuesday afternoon and evening the Newtonville Woman's Guild will give its annual play at the Congregational Church. "The Farmerettes" is the title and it will be presented by Guild members. Members may obtain tickets for guests.

The Social Science Club will hold a business meeting on Wednesday, December 5.

The current events lecture of the Newton Centre Woman's Club occurs on Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

At two o'clock on Thursday the Newton Ladies' Home Circle holds its regular meeting in G.A.R. Hall, Newtonville.

State Federation

Friday, Dec. 7, 10.15 A.M. Art conference, Boston Museum of Fine Arts lecture hall. All club women cordially invited. Mrs. Cyrus Dallin will speak on "Pageant of Patriotism;" other committee members will talk upon "Art in Wartime." A Round Table conference on "The Need for Art Now" will follow. Luncheon may be obtained in the Museum restaurant and the afternoon spent in the Museum.

Local Happenings

The Pierian Club held its last meeting in Emerson School hall, on Wednesday evening, November 22, the public being invited. Dr. Payson Smith, Massachusetts Commissioner of Education, gave a talk on "Child Education."

Children's Day of the Newton Highlands Monday Club Saturday last was one of the most successful the club has ever held. About sixty children large and small came to enjoy the entertainment provided in large part from among their own number. The program included a minuet by Kent and Sylvia Allen, piano solos by Elizabeth Fairchild and Charles Parker, a song by Ruth Fairchild, a drum solo by Todd Walker, and stories told by Miss Mabel C. Bragg. At the close the children were provided with fancy paper caps and then marched to the banquet room below where refreshments were served. The children with their gay caps together with the bright decorations made the prettiest of sights, enjoyed by the members and guests as much as the children and the entertainment. Much credit for the success of the occasion is due the committees in charge, Mrs. Walter B. Godsoe being chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. Everett Winslow of the entertainment committee.

On Monday afternoon the meeting of the C.L.S.C. of Newton Highlands was omitted on account of the illness of Mrs. Robert Clark, who was to have had the paper.

Y.W.C.A. WAR WORK

The Young Women's Christian Association is raising a campaign to raise funds for its war work on December 3, and the south side of Newton has already launched its drive. This follows closely on the heels of the Y. M. C. A. effort because the women's work is an absolutely necessary adjunct to their work. Mrs. Adams D. Claffin, Mrs. Fred R. Hayward, Mrs. Mary H. Kendall, and Mrs. Arthur C. Badger will open their homes for parlor meetings, and Miss Margaret Slattery will address a large gathering at the Congregational Church, Newton Centre, Tuesday evening, December 4. Waban is also planning for a big affair later.

Newton women will get a new idea of just what the great war means at several drawing room meetings that are planned for next week, when the exceedingly efficient young women from the War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A. Headquarters in Boston will direct the attention of the Christian women of this city to the cases and needs of 2,000,000 American young women who will soon be actively employed in war work.

The War Work Council of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association seeks to raise $4,000,000 in the country at large and $200,000 in New England for work among girls and women in war time. Boston's quota is $100,000, and Newton's is $5000. The campaign will be on in Newton next week.

The Campaign in Newton, as in most New England Cities, will be drawing room affairs. At these meetings representative women of this City will be invited and they will hear the story of the needs of the War Work Council.

Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 Mrs. Harold Peabody, daughter of Bishop Lawrence, will address a gathering of women at the home of Mrs. Eben H. Ellison, 42 Vernon street and in the evening at 8 P. M. at the Congregational Church parlor in Newton Centre, Miss Margaret Slattery, member of the State Board of Education, will tell in her graphic and forceful way of the "girls for girls" movement that will play such an important part in the winning of the war. This meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Arthur C. Badger and Mrs. Edward R. Spear. The third meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Badger at Oak Hill later in the week. At this meeting Mrs. H. G. Pierson will be the speaker.

MOTHERS' REST

The Annual Report of the Mothers' Rest Association of Newton was presented at the annual meeting of the corporation, held on October 18th and is filed for reference with the secretary. At a recent meeting of the Board of Managers it was voted that because of the unusual expenses of the year caused largely by the increased cost of all food stuffs, it is unwise to incur the expense of printing and distributing the annual report.

It is hoped that this measure of economy, dictated by the times, will meet the approval of all members of the association. The Board wishes to acknowledge with gratitude all services rendered by members and friends of this association and especially appreciates the promptness with which members have paid their annual fees. Will all those who have not done so, help to save printing and postage by sending their remittances as early as possible to the treasurer, Mrs. W. R. Holt, 15 Rice street, Newton Centre.

BANJO, Mandolin, Guitar, private lessons. FRED MARTIN, 154 Boylston Street, Boston, Telephone Beach 7349-M. Instruments. Adv.

THE NORTHGATE CLUB

The annual meeting was held Saturday evening at the Northgate Club, with an attendance of about fifty. The secretary and treasurer's report for the year was read and accepted. The secretary reported one of the most successful years in the history of the Club, with a membership to date of 103, which the Club hopes and expects to increase to a maximum of 150.

The newly-elected officers were, Mr. Robert C. Chapman, Jr., president; Mr. Edward G. Perry, treasurer; and Mr. Herbert Grindall, secretary. After general discussion as to ways and means of obtaining the desired membership, the meeting adjourned about ten o'clock, and the members enjoyed a luncheon served by their efficient "Dan."

The Club desires any resident of West Newton and vicinity, who would be interested in joining this organization, to consider himself and the ladies of his family invited to the regular Tuesday evening Neighborhood Nights, or on Saturday evenings, men only, when he would be welcomed to the activities of the Club.

On Thanksgiving eve the regular annual turkey "roll off" was held at the Club.

TO BENEFIT WOOL FUND

The Newton Amateur Opera Association has decided that the proceeds of its performance of "The Innocent Eskimo" the second week in December will be for the wool fund. The fact that money is needed by the organizations of the city which issue wool to the hundreds who are knitting for the army and navy has led the association to extend its assistance.

As the regular presentations are for members of the organization, an extra performance has been planned to which the public will be admitted.

The patronesses of this special performance are Mrs. John W. Weeks, Mrs. Samuel L. Powers, Mrs. James Richard Carter, Mrs. William A. Young, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Mrs. Charles A. Brown and Mrs. George E. Farrington.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION

One of the first measures to come before the House of Representatives at Washington this December will be the bill submitting to the states the constitutional amendment for national prohibition. This has been passed already by the Senate, comes up now for final action. All who believe in it can help greatly just now by writing or telegraphing Congress through our Representative, Mr. Carter. Below is the proper form for such a telegram. To the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Care of Congressman Wm. H. Carter: I (we) urge your vote for the Federal Amendment in favor of prohibition.

(Signed).....

COPELEY THEATRE.—Only two weeks more, and the long run of "The Man Who Stayed at Home" at the Copley Theatre will be over. Its success has been unprecedented. Through the summer and autumn it has played to large and constantly appreciative audiences. Its portrayal of realistic scenes and episodes in England at the beginning of the war is filled with many thrilling moments, and its plot contains not a little humor to enliven its more serious moments. And as acted by the Henry Jewett Players its performance have been appealingly realistic. On Saturday evening, December 22, will begin the regular repertory season of the Henry Jewett Players at the Copley Theatre. The first play will be George Bernard Shaw's successful comedy "Fanny's First Play."

Dr. T. P. Cahill, Hopkinton, Mass., is now at the Sherman building, 93 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, daily continuing the practice of Dr. Mc Intire, who has been called to the colors. He solicits his former Watertown and Newton patronage, respectfully. Tel. Back Bay 71708. adv.

TREMONT THEATRE—"Turn to the Right!" the famous comedy of laughs and heart throbs, has only engagement at the Tremont Theatre, Boston, must end Saturday evening,
December 22. "Turn to the Right!"
will not be presented in any other city outside of Boston this year.
Those who have not seen this charming play should have themselves of the remaining opportunities to do so.
Audiences that have crowded the Tremont Theatre to see "Turn to the Right" have come under the spell of biggest laugh and the wholesomest stage story of the season, in a play packed full of romance, laughter and surprise; and then they come again because "Turn to the Right" is so full of the little, lovable, alluring touches of fun and wisdom and human nature, you have to see it more than once to appreciate the secret of its universal charm!

COMPANY A, MASS. STATE GUARD

The recent increase in applications for enlistment in Co. A, 11th Reg't M.
S. G., has developed inquiries which seem to indicate that even yet there are some of its good friends in Newton who do not clearly understand that the Newton State Guard Company (officially Co. A, 11th Reg't 4th Brig. M. S. G.) was mustered in and is now serving as a part of the militia forces of our Commonwealth, and as such is essentially a military organization and is entirely distinct from any local or semi-military organization or from bodies of a police or constabulary nature.

Company A, like the other 150 companies of the Massachusetts State Guard, as enlisted for the duration of the war and is serving under the act of the Massachusetts Legislature of 1917, which provided for such a regular military body to replace the old Massachusetts Volunteer Militia.

Company A of Newton was the first Company to be mustered in as part of this Massachusetts State Guard which now comprises some 11,000 men, organized and officered into 3 Brigades, 11 Regiments with the full complement of headquarters, staff, line and field officers. As a part of its duty and privileges the State Guard is entrusted with the care and use of the State Armories.

It will therefore be seen that the conditions, duties and privileges of our Newton Company are the usual and regular duties and privileges of a military organization and our men are serving as soldiers of the Commonwealth, duly authorized to bear arms in defense of its law and order. It will so continue unless placed directly under control of the Federal Authorities, as the Press has hinted may happen.

The officers of Co. A have been frequently asked of late as to the possibility of enlistment in its ranks. If any Newton man feels a desire to render military service to his State, or be prepared so to do, the officers of A Company will be glad to see him at the Armory any Tuesday or Friday evening at 7.30 P. M.

Recently the Company secured a machine gun and has applied for authority to increase its quota by the addition of a machine gun section. A list of applicants is being formed from which vacancies will be filled and any permitted increase recruited.

WILBUR THEATRE—Arthur Hammerstein, whose many successes have been brought to Boston in the past, will again visit Boston next week.
This time, the well-known producer will present for the first time in many seasons a drama. It is entitled "De Luxe Annie," dramatized by Edward Clark, from a short story of the same name by Scammon Lockwood, published in the Saturday Evening Post. "De Luxe Annie" is a psychological play of mystery and surprise, in three acts and six scenes. It opens with a prologue which takes place in the smoking compartment of a Pullman car, and then, like "On Trial," the story reverts back to the scene of its happening.

"De Luxe Annie" begins a three-week engagement at the Wilbur Theatre on Monday evening, next, December 3rd, after a successful engagement in New York, where it is now playing at the Cort Theatre.

GOOD SHOOTING

The Newton Centre Rifle Club held its initial revolver match at the new Range on Kingman's Field, Newton Highlands, last Saturday.

The principal event was a handicap match with a 12 lb. turkey offered as a prize. Shooting commenced at 9 o'clock in the morning and was continued until 4:30 P. M. It was open to all members of the Newton Constabulary and the Newton Police Department, and during the day over 200 visited the Range and about 75 took part in the match; the others enjoying some practice work. The Colt 38 calibre double action army type revolver, furnished by the Newton Public Safety Committee, was used. Over 1600 rounds of ammunition were used.

The sensation of the day proved to be the remarkable work of E. B. Stratton of the Newton Centre unit, who made three successive scores of 49 on 10 shots, possible 50. The first two scores Mr. Stratton made 18 consecutive bulls-eyes, which is a record that will stand for some time. He was awarded a silver medal for the highest individual score made during the day for 10 consecutive shots.

Sergeant A. D. Colby of Newtonville made the second best score of 47 and received a bronze medal.

Captain H. L. Bigelow of Chestnut Hill made the third score of 46, and also received a bronze medal.

The following were the high men in the respective classes:
Class A—Adj. F. W. Davis, Score 46.
Class B—G. G. Will, Score 40.
Class C—Capt. W. N. Dudley, Score 38.

The latter scores were handicapped with the high score made by Adj. Davis and all three competed on Monday morning at 7:45 at the Range, each man firing 10 shots, with the following result.

Adj. Davis, net score 49.
G. G. Will, net score 35, gross 41.
Capt. Dudley, net score 33, gross 50.
The 12 lb. turkey was, therefore, awarded to Capt. Dudley of Newtonville.

Late in the afternoon on Saturday the entire Waban Company of the Constabulary marched to the Field and some of its members participated in the match as well as in the practice work.

As soon as weather conditions permit other matches will be held. In the meantime opportunities will be offered for indoor rifle practice.

Some of the other scores worthy of mention were the following:

W. W. Claffin	45
A. D. Wheeler	43
W. G. Snow	42
J. Benbow	41
A. W. Rayner	40
H. W. Hayward	40
C. Y. Ferris	38
E. B. Bishop	37
R. W. McCabe	37
W. D. Rising	37
J. Blanchi	37
C. O. Burbank	36

summer, when more important matters would be taken up. He favored a more efficient system of state government, with a state budget and more power to the governor over the various commissions and boards. He gave some interesting sidelights on the prominent members of the convention, including Judge Morton, Mr. Albert E. Pillsbury, whom he termed the ablest man in the convention, Mr. M. Lomasney, for whom he had only words of praise, and Mr. Edwin C. Curtis.

Dr. Guy M. Winslow said he believed in the principle of the I. and A., although he did not believe the state would suffer if it should be defeated. He thought the convention had shown that old party labels did not really indicate the lines of cleavage on political principles. Dr. Winslow would like to see the Republican, Democratic and Progressive parties disappear, and the people divide on conservative and liberal grounds.

Messrs. Walter A. Hodgdon and Herbert S. Rogers, candidates for alderman-at-large from ward 5, and Mr. Philip Nichols, candidate for alderman-at-large from ward 7, were present and introduced to the members. Light refreshments were served at the close of a most interesting meeting.

DEATH OF MR. MURDOCK

Mr. Francis Murdock, one of the best known business men of the city, died last evening at his home on Centre street, Newton, after a long period of failing health, but with only a week's serious illness.

Mr. Murdock was born at Waltham, Mass., October 28, 1835, his parents being George and Mary A. (Bacon) Murdock. The family moved to Brighton when he was six months old, and a few years later came to Newton which has since been his home.

He received his education in the common schools of Newton and at Deacon Woodward's private school.

He then entered the store of his uncle, Mr. George W. Bacon, was later made a partner, and subsequently succeeded to the entire business, which had always been located in Bacon Block, opposite the Newton Trust Company.

Mr. Murdock was treasurer of the N. & W. Gas Light Company for many years, and was also president of the Newton National bank previous to its absorption by the Newton Trust Company.

Mr. Murdock has been a director and agent for the Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Concord, Mass., and was also in business as a general insurance agent.

Mr. Murdock was a life-long member of Elliot Church. He was a director in the Newton Trust Company, a trustee and member of the investment committee of the Newton Savings Bank, a trustee of the Newton Cemetery and a member of the Hunnewell Club.

Mr. Murdock twice married, his first wife was Miss Henrietta C. Sullivan, and he is survived by his second wife, who was Miss Mary W. Fuller.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his late residence, 261 Centre street, Newton.

—Mr. George Lawson Braynion died last Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl Mansfield, on Parker street. Mr. Braynion, who was 75 years of age, came here a few months ago to spend the winter with his daughter, and has been in failing health for some time. He was a native of Nova Scotia, and is survived by a widow. Funeral services were held yesterday, Rev. E. T. Sullivan officiating, and the interment was in the Newton Cemetery.

Five families in the neighborhood of Langley road extended the hospitality of their homes to ten of the soldiers from Ayer over the week-end. Two of the young men being entertained at each home. They were conveyed by auto from the Camp to Newton Centre on Saturday afternoon. In the evening they all drove to Boston and attended the theatre, and on their return to Newton Centre, assembled at the home of one of the families, where supper was served.

Mrs. Alfred E. Alvord of Dalton road, assisted by other ladies of this village, was the hostess at a noteworthy Thanksgiving entertainment. Eighty men, 40 from the National Guard now on duty at the Watertown Arsenal, and 40 in detachments from the Radio School at Cambridge, and the Naval Reserve were given an elaborate dinner at the Trinity Court Cafe in Boston yesterday noon, and then witnessed a performance of "The Man Who Stayed at Home" at the Copley Theatre.

—Mrs. Roena C. Stone, widow of the late Reuben Stone, and for many years a resident of this village, died at Taunton on Tuesday at the age of 79 years. Mrs. Stone was born in Taunton, but lived nearly all her life in this village, where her husband, a member of one of the oldest families in Newton, carried on a farm at Oak Hill. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, and is survived by an adopted daughter, Mrs. Bertha (W. R.) Brown of Everett. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Newton Cemetery Chapel.

DEATH OF MR. GREENIDGE

Mr. Vivian Greenidge, a resident of Newton Highlands for the past thirty years, died last week Thursday at his home on Hartford street, after a few days' illness with heart trouble. Mr. Greenidge was born in the West Indies and was 61 years of age. He was a vestryman at St. Paul's Church and active in social and business affairs. He was twice married and his second wife, Miss Nellie M. Fenno, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fenno of Newtonville, survives him. There are also four children by his first marriage, Mr. A. Earle Greenidge of the U. S. Navy, Mrs. Arthur H. Emily (Louise Greenidge), Mrs. Erekine P. Noves (Adele Greenidge) of Augusta, Me., and Mrs. Albert C. Bacon (Ethel Greenidge) of Newton Highlands. He is also survived by two aged aunts, the Misses Irene and Marion Greenidge of Newton Upper Falls.

Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Church, Sunday afternoon, the rector, Rev. Louis A. Parsons, officiating and the Newton Highlands Constabulary, of which Mr. Greenidge was a member, attended in a body. The burial was at Oakwood Cemetery, Troy, N. Y.

MUSICAL

The benefit for the Special Aid at the residence of Mrs. Francis E. Stanley, 638 Centre street, Newton, on Wednesday afternoon, was a great success both artistically and financially. Although the day was quite unpleasant, a large number were present, and over $200 realized for carrying on relief work for the soldiers by the society. There were no expenses, the artists giving their services. Those taking part were Mrs. Martha Atwood Baker, soprano; Mrs. Julia Pickard Stoessel, violinist; Edna Stoessel, pianist; Joseph Malkin, cellist; of Boston Symphony Orchestra; Mr. Samuel Gardner, violinist, of New York, who came over on Wednesday especially for this occasion; and Mr. Albert Stoessel, violinist.

Mrs. Stanley wishes to thank both for herself and the society everyone who contributed to the success of the affair.

It is unnecessary to comment upon the work of these artists, as they are all widely and favorably known, and the large audience voiced its appreciation in no uncertain terms.

BOYS' RED TRIANGLE PLEDGES

Arrangements have been made through Treasurer F. L. Richardson of the Newton Trust Company, to receive, through its various branches, the payments on the Boys' Pledges made in the recent Red Triangle War Work Fund Campaign. The certificates with coupons attached are in the hands of the Trust Company, and payments may be made during banking hours. For the convenience of the boys the following division has been made. Boys living in Newton will call at the Newton branch; those living in West Newton and Newtonville will call at the Newtonville branch; those in Auburndale at the Auburndale branch; and those in Newton Centre, Upper Falls, Highlands, Waban and Chestnut Hill at the Newton Centre branch. For each payment of one dollar the boys will receive a numbered coupon. When ten of these coupons are paid the certificate will be turned over to the boy in whose name it stands.
